DEATH RECORD OF DAY

General John Greene, U. S. A., Retired, Dies in 84th Year.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 22.—General John Greene, U. S. A., retired, died here suddenly today from neuritis of the heart, which yesterday closed his career. He had a most remarkable career in the Army. He was a veteran of the Mexican and Civil Wars and was brevetted for distinguished gallantry. He participated in the more noteworthy Indian campaigns of the West. For exceptional gallantry displayed during the Modoc wars in California in 1872 he was given a medal of honor by Congress. He was retired in 1883.

Talks of His Mission.

The news of our Emperor's death reached us upon our arrival at Honolulu and overwhelmed us with sorrow. We hoped at first that the dispatches might not be true. But a cable message from Peking soon confirmed the news. The loss of our Emperor, a nationally-loved and respected sovereign is nothing short of a national calamity. The son of Prince Chun, brother to the late Emperor, has succeeded to the throne, with Prince Chun himself as Regent.

The subject of my present mission is to convey to the Government and people of the United States the grateful thanks of the Government and people of China for remitting a portion of the Boxer indemnity. The generous action on the part of the United States has evoked an appreciative response throughout my country.

Will Renew Old Acquaintance.

While I am in the United States I shall take opportunity to visit different parts of the country, especially to renew the acquaintance of my friends and associates of the days of my boyhood in New England, and have not visited this country since the day of my return to my native land. The meanwhile the United States has grown immensely in wealth, prosperity and power. At the same time great changes have taken place in the world. I have no doubt that the pleasant memories of my former residence in this country, which I have dearly treasured all these years, will be greatly enriched by fresh additions as the result of my present visit.

Imposing Delegation at Dock.

The Ambassador was received by an imposing delegation. General Frederick A. Smith, commanding the Department of California; Colonel Steinhilber, of the transport service; Commandant E. V. Eberle, of the naval station, and Captain E. T. Donnelly, originally of the United States Army and Navy, represented the Army and Navy. Officials of the Collector of the Port, Lieutenant-Governor Warren R. Porter, of California; members of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, of the San Francisco Merchants' Association, Chinese Journalists from all parts of the country and local business men representing several cities were present.

Policy to be Continued.

During the Ambassador's stay in this city a majority of the visitors will be received by Yung Kwal, Secretary of the Legation at Washington. In the course of his informal remarks today and as spokesman for the party he said: "We are stunned and saddened by the removal of the Emperor and the Dowager, but we are altogether ignorant of any developments that may ensue. We look for a continuation of the policy that has prevailed in China during the past few years. Prince Chun, the late Emperor's brother, who is now Regent, has been, as a member of the Privy Council, practically at the head of affairs in the empire for a year past, and we look for no important change that will affect China's relations with other countries. The reports of riots and disturbances in various parts of the empire have been much exaggerated."

Tang Shao Yi is American in Many Ways and of Very High Rank.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Tang Shao Yi, the high commissioner of the Chinese Empire to the United States, who came so many thousands miles to thank the United States Government for remitting part of the Boxer indemnity, is one of the most brilliant and capable men of the Flowering Kingdom. In fact, he is American in many ways, having received his early education at Springfield, Mass. He arrived there in 1871, when 12 years of age, and became a guest of the family of E. C. Gardner, but later moved to Hartford, Conn., where he attended the high school, preparatory to his entrance into Columbia University at New York. He was attending that university when he was recalled to China in 1887.

Tang Shao Yi is not only the bearer of letters and rare presents to President Roosevelt and other officials of the American Government, as a token of China's esteem and gratitude, but he is commissioned to observe and absorb all that concerns the financial and commercial systems of the United States, so that upon his return his country may profit by what he has learned.

After his education in this country, Tang Shao Yi was made manager of the Imperial railways in North China, and later became Ambassador to Tibet, where he adjusted successfully a difference between England and China over the perpetrating Tibet question. Later he was made minister to England and then became mandarin of a Manchurian province, from which he was promoted to the rank of Earl.

At present Tang Shao Yi is director-general of railways of the Chinese Empire, high commissioner of customs and a member of the grand council which governs the nation.

While Tang Shao Yi for a time was an ardent Progressive, he is now identified with the conservative government of the Chinese. But those who know him best assert that this is simply diplomacy with him, that he firmly believes in progress and occidental civilization, but he realizes that he can hope to bring it about only by degrees.

That his visit to this country means more than the mere presentation of a letter of thanks from the Emperor, is thoroughly understood, and it is conceded that no man in the Imperial government is better fitted, not only to master the intricacies of the American financial system, but to adopt it to the peculiar conditions that exist in the Flowering Kingdom.
