COUNCILMEN HOLD STORMY SESSION

Members of Liquor License Committee Hear Charges Against Saloonmen.

ONE LICENSE IS REVOKED

Ten Applications of Big Down-Town Grills Are Still Without Recommendation and Will Go Before the Council as Whole.

Owing to atrong differences of opinion among members of the liquor-license com-mittee of the City Council, ten applica-tions for licenses to sell liquor with meaks, made by proprietors of "big" downtown exmade by proprietors of "big" downtown establishments, are still without the necessary number of signatures to recommend, them favorably to the Council for action.
Again yesterday afternoon, all were unsigned except by Councilmen Cottel and Driscoll. They will go to the Council this time without recommendation and a bitter fight will thus be precipitated. At lis meeting yesterday the committee listened to testimony in four cases, dismissing charges against three saloonkeepers and voting to revoke the license of the other. Much wrangling and caustic comment by members, one at the other,
characterized the committee's session.

we get the Cellian law straightened out,"

Vaughn Favors High License.

"Well, you just watch me, and I'll show you how I refuse," commented Councilman Vaughn. "I refuse to sign any such applications until such time as restaurants and saloons pay the same licenses. I am in favor of fixing restaurant liquor licenses at $800 a year, just as the saloon license, and will never sign any application on any other basis."

"I will sign every restaurant liquor license that is presented," was the statement of Councilman Driscoil.

City Attorney Kavanaugh's opinion, as read, is that no restaurant serving liquor with meals can lawfully serve it unless granted a license by the Council. Unlicks some action is soon taken tometile the cotroversy, which has now centinued for a month, City Auditor Barbur will ask the police to order proprietors of these places to cease serving liquor with meals. Among the places are the Louvre, the Quelle, the Hof Bran, the Turn Halle, the Perkins Grill, the Oregon Grill and the Portland Grill.

In view of the fact that threats have already been made by people interested in the lines under contemplation by the company to apply the referendum to the franchises unless they are all stringent in their terms as to the public safety and contain all the provisions embodied in a recent franchise given the United Rall-ways Company and the further fact that Mayor Lane has virtually served notice that he will veto the franchises unless they are "properly guarded," it looks as though a very difficult problem confronts be applied, it would be an appeal from the City Council's action, and might result in defeating the granting of the franchises. In such an event the company's object would be thwarted and the people who wish new lines would have to go without them.

The far-reaching effect of applying the referendum, should it result in blocking the extensions, is easily seen when it is understood that it would make it impossible to construct a line to the Swift packing plant, on the lower peninsula. That proposed extension is one of the most important of any under contemplation by the company. It is one of the nufsher included in the blanket franchise now under consideration.
