MESSAGE IS BRIEF

Roosevelt's Address to Congress Tamest Written.

TARIFF QUESTION AVOIDED

Unless to Urge Revision at Short Session and Besides Incoming Administration Is Pledged to Reform Duties.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—President Roosevelt's last annual message to Congress is practically completed; the body of it was written at Oyster Bay and the finishing touches are being put on at Washington.

Message to Be Short.

It is believed to be by far the tamest annual message that Mr. Roosevelt has ever written, because this session of Congress will be a short one, and because there will be little opportunity for general legislation.

ROSE COMMITTEE MEETS TONIGHT.

General plans and arrangements for the observance of the second annual Rose Planting Day in Portland will be taken up and carefully considered at a meeting of the special committee of the Rose Festival Association at 5 o'clock tonight, at headquarters, on the fifth floor of the head-quarters building. The principal problems to be considered are: Shall there be a general congregation of all civic interests at one place for the purpose of planting roses, or shall there be a general appeal to the entire populace of the city to get out and set out their roses on this particular occasion. In addition to this, the chief matter of interest will be the preparation of a memorial which it is hoped will be signed by every member of the committee, which is to be engraved and forwarded to Luther Burbank, the world-renowned floral wizard, requesting him to be present when Portland observes its annual Rose Planting day.
