

TRIED FOR MURDER; GUILTY OF ARSON

Lamphere Is Sentenced to Prison, Fined $5000 and Disfranchised.

VERDICT CAUSES LAUGHTER

Jury's Finding Ridiculous, Says Defendant's Attorney—If Guilty at All, Guilty of Murder—Ask for New Trial.

LAMPERT, Ind., Nov. 26.—Ray Lamphere, charged with the murder of Mrs. Belle Guinness and her three children by setting fire to the Guinness house, was found guilty of arson tonight by the jury, which had deliberated since 2:30 o'clock last evening. Within five minutes after the verdict the defendant was sentenced to the State Prison at Michigan City for an indeterminate term of from two to 21 years, fined $5000 and was disfranchised for five years.

Verdict Ridiculous. Attorney Warden, for the defense, said tonight that a motion for a new trial would be made, and should it be refused, an appeal to the Indiana Supreme Court would follow. The Indiana Supreme Court is two years behind in its work, so this case could not be reached until after he had served the minimum term of his sentence. Mr. Warden declared the verdict to be ridiculous.

"If he was guilty at all," said the attorney, "he was guilty of murder. He should have been hanged in the first degree. The motion for a new trial will be based on the judge's instruction that a jury could find Lamphere guilty of arson. Should the case be carried to the Supreme Court and sent back for retrial, Lamphere could not be tried on any charge in this particular case excepting arson, the crime for which he was convicted. However, in an event of that kind the state would elect to try him on one of the indictments, probably the Helgelein case. Members of the jury are reluctant about discussing what occurred in the jury-room, but enough has been learned to know that but for two members Lamphere would have been found guilty of murder or manslaughter, the verdict being a compromise. Several members of the jury, it is understood, held out long for murder in the first degree, with a life sentence. So far as could be learned, some was for hanging.

Confident Body Was Woman's. Lamphere, in a statement tonight, said that he was confident that the adult body in the fire was that of Mrs. Guinness. He reiterated his innocence in the matter of setting fire to the house, though admitting that he was on the road and saw the fire that night. He also declared that he did not see Mrs. Guinness kill Helgelein.

TROOPS STAY ON SCENE

NO DEMONSTRATION BY STRIKING CLAYWORKERS. Clergymen Intercede With Employers in Behalf of Workmen, but Their Petition is Denied.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Nov. 26.—Although the clay-mixing and clay-working strikers in Keasby village, on the outskirts of this city, made no demonstration today, and evidence accumulated that they were not likely to resort to further violence, yet it was decided this afternoon not to withdraw the troops. All the injured were reported tonight out of danger.

Rev. Francis Gross, of the Hungarian Church, and Rev. Julian Zielinski, of the Polish Church, held a meeting with H. M. Keasby and H. R. Keasby, of the National Pipefitting Company, and urged the needs of the men. The priests asked for the increase from $3.50 to $4.50 for which the men have struck. They were told that business conditions did not warrant an advance at this time.

LEAVES MONEY TO WOMEN

Wealthy Manufacturer Bequeathes Sum to Nurses. CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Three graduates of the Illinois Training School of Nurses will receive legacies left them by Walter E. Ammon, a former patient. The nurses and the amounts left them are:

Miss Nellie G. Miller, $500; Miss Freda E. Phelps, $500; Miss Alice L. Voight, $1000. Mr. Ammon was a manufacturer of butter in Jersey City, N. J. Six years ago he came West on a business trip and while at the Auditorium Hotel in this city became ill with typhoid fever. Miss Miller was called in by doctors who were attending Ammon. The patient was taken to the Presbyterian Hotel, where he was attended for three months by the other two nurses.

Mr. Ammon, while in the Pennsylvania station in Jersey City, on November 17, was fatally shot by Andrew McGrath, who had a fancied grievance against him. Mr. Ammon's will also contains bequests for many young women in the vicinity of New York. To a young woman who did the stenographic work in drawing his will he gave $250, and the young women who were employed by his firm in Jersey City, $1500. Miss Anna Louise Carrie, of New York City, received $2500 with no explanations, and Miss Magdalena B. Williams, daughter of a Jersey City policeman, to whom Ammon is said to have been engaged, gets one-third interest in his business house. Miss Williams was Ammon's private secretary for some time before the murder.

PARIS SHAKEN BY MURDER

(Continued from First Page.) was not Wolff, the man who did commit the crime resembled him strongly. Then suspicion turned upon Mme. Steinhell herself, and at 6 o'clock it was announced that she should be locked up in the prison at St. Lazare under a warrant of arrest. No charge, however, was specified. Wolff was also held, but not on a warrant. One of the surprises of the day was the revelation of the fact that Mme. Japy, who was murdered at the same time as Steinhell, was not Mme. Steinhell's mother, as had been supposed, but her stepmother.

The end of the day brought a crop of sensational rumors. It was said that Minister of Justice Mirand had ordered an investigation of the open charges that Mme. Steinhell had been the mistress of M. Ledette, the examining magistrate in the case, and that M. Ledette had been instrumental in stifling the investigation. Chief of Detectives Ham-Wolff was credited with the statement that Wolff had practically established his alibi and that open suspicion had been cast upon Mme. Steinhell Couilland, the man arrested several days ago on suspicion, was released.

Steel Magnate Is Seventy-one.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Andrew Carnegie's 71st birthday passed quietly, happily and uneventfully. He crowned the anniversary with a quiet little dinner to a number of intimate friends last night at his residence in East Ninety-first street. Only 14 guests were present. Many telegrams and messages of congratulations were received by the ironmaster during the day.

REIGN OF TERROR EXISTS IN HAYTI

Anarchy Widespread and Country Generally Is Literally Running With Blood.

WHOLESALE EXECUTIONS

Persons Suspected of Sympathy With Insurgents Shot Down. Foreign Residents Make Frantic Appeals for Aid.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—According to a cable dispatch, received today by the Post, from St. Thomas, D. W. I., private cable advices received there from Port Au Prince are to the effect that the anarchy, which has been in Hayti, give only a faint idea of the reign of terror now existing on that island. The dispatch continues: Anarchy reigns throughout Hayti and the country is literally running with blood. Private cables received here from Port Au Prince states that wholesale executions are in progress, both by the government forces and the revolutionists. Persons who are suspected of sympathy with the insurgents are being summarily shot by order of President Nord Alexis. The same course is being followed by the revolutionists, who have control of the southern portion of the Republic. "Foreigners in Hayti are making frantic appeals to their governments for protection and the French representative has called for ships. The German Minister, it is said, has called a similar message to Berlin. "It is the general opinion in St. Thomas that intervention by the United States is necessary."

NO BRITISH SHIPS SENT

Consul-General Does Not Fear for Safety of Countrymen. LONDON, Nov. 26.—No British warships have been ordered to Hayti. The Consul-General of Great Britain at Port Au Prince has informed the Foreign Office that he is not apprehensive of any danger to British subjects or British interests.

NEW YORK LOSES GIFT

Yerkes Widow Refuses to Pay Interest on Big Library. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Because the widow of the late Charles T. Yerkes refused to pay $17,000 interest on a mortgage, the city of New York will lose the Yerkes' Library and Art Gallery adjoining the Yerkes' mansion, at Fifth avenue and Sixty-eighth street. An order providing for the sale of the library under foreclosure on December 16 was entered yesterday as a result of proceedings brought by the Mutual Life Insurance Company, which held the mortgage.

Mr. Yerkes provided in his will that the library and art gallery should become municipal property and since the suit of the Mutual Life was instituted it was generally understood that the matter would be amicably settled. But unless something is done between now and December 16, the property will be lost to New York as a public institution. The value of the library is considered to be greatly in excess of the amount of the judgment to be satisfied—$242,286—while the land where the library is situated is held at about $12,000 a front foot. With this as an estimate, this property is twice as valuable as the amount of the judgment. Buy your Xmas gifts now; save 25 per cent at Metzger's.

When to Use Dr. Williams' PINK PILLS

These pills were originally a prescription used in the doctor's private practice and their benefit to mankind has been increased many thousand fold by their being placed on general sale with the doctor's own directions for use. They are entirely safe and contain no opiates or other habit-forming drugs.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the remedy to use when the blood is thin as in anemia; or impure, as in rheumatism; or when the nerves are weak, as in neuralgia; or lifeless, as in partial paralysis; or when the body as a whole is ill nourished, as in general debility. They build up the blood, strengthen the nerves and have cured troubles of women and growing girls and many forms of weakness. That hundreds of people have tried the treatment with good results is shown by the increasing number of cures reported.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
