REVOLT COMES SUDDENLY

Woman Caught in Act of Striking Alexis-Trunkful of Money Is Stolen by Mob-Rebels Denounce American Minister.

PORT AU PRINCE, Dec. 2.-President Nord Alexis has been deposed and is now Nord Alexis has been deposed and is now safe on board the French training-ship Duguay Trouin, and Port au Prince is in the hands of the revolutionists. General Antoine Simon, leader of the insurgents, is marching up the peninsula with an army of 5000 and a new President, General Legitime, has been proclaimed. At the last moment President Alexis yielded to the urging of those about him, and decided to take refuge aboard the French warship. At 5 o'clock yesterday a salute warship. At 5 o'clock yesterday a salut-Il guns announced his departure from Driven Out in Storm of Curses. Thousands had gathered there early in the day and surged about the entrance, threatening to tear down the walls to selze the President and his loyal followers. As the hours passed, the mob became infuriated, shouting for him to leave the palace. The mob was armed, and men and women, boalde themselves with rage, heaped curses on the head of the aged man who had fercely expressed his determination to fight to the Under Shelter of Tricolor.

The situation was so serious that th French Minister and other foreign representatives, together with members of a special committee, forced themselves the President, who finally consented

Shouts greeted him as he stepped from the precincts of the palace and into a car riage. M. Carteron, the French Min-ister, holding the French tri-color, sat beside him and threw the folds of the flag over the shoulders of the deposed Pres-ident to protect him.

Female Furies Howl at Him.

An immense crowd of men and wom At immense crowd of then and women had assembled at the wharf, and the arrival of the Presidential carriage, ascorted by a battalion of intantry and a squadron of cavairy under command of General Hippolyte, was the signal for tunuit and riot. All along the route the people who lined the streets shouted, the route and covered at the falls. Presidents jeered and cursed at the fallen President, but when the landing stage was reached the mob lost all restraint. The scene was trugic and shameful. Infuriated women broke through the cordon of troops and shricked the coarsest insults in the very face of the President, who strovely bravely to appear undismayed.

Bullets Drive Back Mob.

They tried to hurl themselves upon Alexis, and fought with hands and i In forcing them back. In order to dis-engage him, the troops discharged their gues. During this time a space was cleared and Nord Alexis, with the French lors still draped about him, was hurried aboard a skiff in tow of a steam faunch, his suite tumbling into the skiff after him. As the launch drew away, three Haytlen gunbonts and the French and American warships in the harbor fired a salute to the fallen President.

Woman's Blow Falls Short.

Just as Nord Alexia was embarking woman succeeded in reaching his side and drawing a murderous knife made a sweep at his body. The blow fell short and before the woman could follow up with another she was seized by seldier. A man succeeded in striking the President with his fist, but the blow was a glancing one on the neck. Nord Alexis turned to M. Carteron, and shaking his head, said; teld you so, Your Excellency."

Mob Steals His Money.

A trunk, which was left behind in the precipitate departure of the President and his party from the wharf, was selzed by the rioters and broken open. It was found to contain $10,000 in gold and $20,000 in Haytlan gourdes. The specie was scattered about and promptly appropri-

The unrest which ended in the oper revolt of the residents of Port au Prince had been noticeable for some days, and reached its culminating point early this morning when regularly organized bands of citizens moved quietly about the town and took possession of various points of var.tage. No sheis were fired, and the only resistance found was that of the President, who barred himself within the palace. One of the leaders in this movement charged that the American mini ister, H. W. Furniss, was the chief of those encouraging the President to resist, and he issued the following proclamation;

"Citizens: The danger is supreme; we risk our independence if we do not take good care. The old man would have given up already were it not for the advice of a diplomat, who is preparing for our annexation. A clash is expected, and this diplomat wishes to precipitate one in order to have a pretext for colonising us. Let us therefore be docile, yet not supine." yet not supine."

Simon Must Hasten.

All of the political parties were rep-resented on the committee which urged the Presidency upon General Legi-time. While accepting the office at the first call, General Legitime showed some hesitancy in undertaking the Presidency at such a crisis. He expressed his wish to obtain General Simon's decision before finally accepting the office. It is of the utmost importance that General Simon hastened his there is great likelihood that the many parties now organizing will become engaged in a struggle among them-selves for supremacy. General Canal is doing everything possible to maintain order. Infantry and cavalry patrol the streets and, al-though a panicky feeling remains, though a panicky feeling remains, there is little danger to the foreigners. Armed sailors from the two American cruisers and the French cruiser in the imphorwere landed at 1.30 yesterday. They are guarding their respective legations.

All the remaining ministers, together with the milliary officials under Nord Alexis, have taken refuge in the various foreign legations. These are the same men who nine months ago were protesting vociferously against the granting of the right of refuge to unsuccessful and consular representatives. Today they are only too happy to seek the protection of a foreign flag to grant the fury of of a foreign flag to escape the fury of the people rectors of the International Horse Show have definitely arranged to hold their third show at Olympis from June 5 to 15, 1999, inclusive. These dates fit in be-tween the Epsom and Ascot fixtures, and tween the Epsom and Ascot fixtures, and the days are being generally kept open in town and country for this special purpose. It is the intention of the management to provide a show on a scale of magnificence never before attempted in this country or eisewhere. The prize list will be very large, the total value of the premiums being $00.00. In addition a large number of valuable cupe in gold and silver, and souvenirs of various descriptions will be offered by well-wishers of the show from all parts of the world. It is proposed to offer a gold challenge cup of the value of $1000 to be competed for by English officers only, to be held by the regiment to which the winning officer belongs, and in addition there will be a $2500 intermational gold cup to be competed for by teams gold cup to be competed for by teams of three officers from any country in the world. The cup will be held by the winning nation, and must be won three times before becoming absolute property An innovation next year will be the fering of a selection of objects d'art, useful diamond ornaments, according to the personal tastes of the winners in the ladies' classes, instead of the stereo-typed prizes or cups.

Horse Show Next June.

EUROPE'S BAD BOY RENOUNCES GRAND DUCHESS.

Matrimonial Venture and Title Open to Any Young Woman Who Will Take Risk.

BERLIN, Dec. 3 - (Special)-in spite of the words of the Servian Crown Prince that he was most cordially re-ceived by the Czar and that he found that raier more than willing to support the Servian people, there is much to show that "Europe's bad boy" really received a very severe lecture from Czar Nicholas and that it has not been withut effect.

Before the Crown Prince went to St.

Petersburg he spoke to everyone who cared to listen about his approaching marriage to a Russian Grand Duchess. but since his return he has never men tioned the project with a word, so maybe he now will return to his former idea of marrying an American helress if he can find one who dares take the risk. But this is not all. Also Prince George's political ambitions have been nipped in the bud, and he has not made a single speech or issued any proclamations to army or nation as he used to do almost every M hours before he went to Russia. In a recent interview by a French jour nalish, during which the Crown Prince was present, King Peter said with a firmness quite unusual in him, which undoubtedly was inepired from the per-sonal letter he received from the Czar: You may assure your countrymen that give my royal word of honor that, notwithstanding the effervescence of pub-lic opinion, which is comprehensible, Servia will not trouble the peace of the world. We shall not depart from our correct attitude toward Austria-Hungary. We await with confidence the result of the conference, for we know that our cause is just. However, if Servia is attacked, she will defend herself to the ut-

The calling out of the reserves was merely a precautionary measure dictated by the country's sense of security.

MATADORS TO BOYCOTT RINGS UNLESS PAY IS RAISED.

MADRID, Dec. 3 .- (Special.)-The industry of bull-lighting is seriously men-aced owing to a "trust" formed by the matadors, and the Spanish public are greatly alarmed of the possibility of their most popular amusement being abolished.

For some time the matadors have been dissatisfied with the rate of pay conceded by managers of buil-rings and they have demanded increased renumeration, in view of the savage character of many of the built. the bulls.

At a meeting of the principal matadors of Seville, Madrid, and Cordova, held this week, it was agreed to demand the double fee of $400 each performance whenever bulls of the Miura breed are used. These bulls are especially dangerous.

The matadors declare that they will boycott all rings where the increased rates are not granted. The managers are disposed to close the rings rather than comply and the crisis has created greater excitement than the recent floods in ent than the recent floods in

Patrons of the bull-rings have formed a rival trust and have bound themselves not to go to a bull fight where there is not at least one Miura bull loosed in the

tion Recently Shown Him.

LONDON, Dec. 3. - (Special.) - Mr. Asquith, the Prime Minister of England, may be a resolute man, but he is not a groud one or one who desires to hide his early history. Recently he was the guest of his old school—the City of London School—at a banquet given by the com-mittee in the magnificent old hall at Lincoln's Inn. Replying to the toast of his health, Mr. Asquith declared that among the many and varied congratulations which he had received, none had gone more nearly to his heart than those which he had received from his old chool. He thanked the Corporation of London and the Lord Mayor for the great distinction they had done him in founding and naming with his name a scholarship in his old school. He remembered with gratitude that it would not have been possible for him to pursue the studies he began at their old school but for the benefactions of their school but for the benefactions of their plous founder, John Carpenter, and others, and the great city companies, particularly the Grecers' Company, to which he was more especially bound to pay his acknowledgments. It would not have been possible for men like himself, born in a humble station in life and not endowed with this world's goods, to have pursued the studies they began at school, had it not been for the wise and farsighted beneficence in days gone by, and which he was glad to think was going to be supplemented and rivaled by the corporation of today. There was now hardly a board school in London which had not an advantage as compared with the old days. Nevertheless they managed to exist. LONDON, Dec. &-(Special.)-The di- exist.

FAVOR NO CHANGE IN WOOL TARIFF

Testimony Before Ways and Means Adverse to Alteration of Schedule.

PRODUCTION IS EXPENSIVE

Western Woolgrower Claims That Cost of Range Rent, Supplies and Wages Has Increased In Past Years.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Judging by the teatimony given before the ways and means committee yesterday and questions by the committee memmeans bers, Congress will not make an change in the duty on wool. Woo manufacturers are asking no reduction and woolgrowers are entering a plea for the maintenance of the present schedule. The committee seems to be favorable to this plan. Only one Western woolgrower was heard today, P. G. Johnson, of Black-foot, representing the Idaho Woolgrowers' Association and the National Woolgrowers' Association and the National wong-owers' Association. In his argument he showed that the cost of wool production, owing to the increased cost in wages, supplies and range rent, had increased in past years beyond the protection afforded by the tariff, and but for the profit made or mutten the woolgrowers would yesterday be bankrupt.

WOULD DESTROY INDUSTRY

Grosvenor Speaks Against Change in Tariff on Wool.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.-During con-sideration of the tariff on wool, woolen manufactures and carpets, which was begun by the House ways and means committee at today's hearing, General Charles H. Grosvenor, ex-Congressman from Ohio, appeared for the woolgrow-ers of Ohio. "You can't reduce the duty on wool as it stands without destroying the in-dustry." he told the committee. "The dustry," he told the committee. "The industry is now fairly profitable."

General Grosvenor said that under the low rate of duty on wool imposed by the Wisson hill the committee of the committee. by the Wilson bill the number of sheep raised in one county of Ohio decreased from 153,000 to 92,000 within four Representative Clark, of Missouri, secured the admission that this reduction was, in part, due to the increased value of land in Ohio.

KITE NOTE TO PRISONERS

Aerial Message Drops Into Hands of Calcutta Jail Officials.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 2 - (Special.) -The Calcutta police have been actively engaged in the investigation of an ex-traordinary attempt to communicate with prisoners in Alipore jail. A kite was flown over the prison, where it dropped. At it happened, it fell into the hands of the jall authorities, who found thereon a message intended for the prisoners connected with the bomb conspiracy. For some days before his execution, Khudiram Rose was engaged in writing a bulk autobiography. On the night before his execution he put this in an envelope directed it to Bahu this in an envelope, directed it to Babu Kalidas Bose, vakil of Mozufferpore, and handed it to the jail authorities, with the request that after his execu tion it might be handed to the vakil, who was his counsel. The vakil has applied for it, and correspondence is going on between him and the fall authorities. The curious announcement is made that Babu Kalldas "out of sheer curiosity" has preserved in a bottle a quantity of ashes collected from Khudiram's funeral pyre, "not because he sympathized with his crime, but because it might enable the scientists or alchemists to detect something in it that tended to make the anarchist." There were many demands for a pinch of the ashes, but "as that would savor of sympathy with anarchy, Babu Kalihas stubbornly refused such requests.
