In Spite of Constant Fluctuations in Stock Prices.

LITTLE PRESSURE TO SELL

Market Entirely in the Hands of Professional Traders-Money on Call Advances to 3 Per Cent-Bonds Irregular.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The constant fluctuations in teday's stock market made it puszling to discern the prevailing tone of the speculation. The pressure to sell was much less promounced than late yesterday. This fact formed the basis for some efforts to get prices to a high level, which as often were frustrated by the dying out of the dimand as prices got higher. On the occasion at declines there developed a sufficient demand to check the tendency and rally prices. The constant change in the course of the price movement afforded a harvest for the traders who were sufficiently agile to turn with the tide. Their profits, however, were targely at the expense of other traders less ugile. The dealings were atmost wholly in the hands of professionals. News of the day lid not record any marked changes in the influences governing prices.

The money market showed a firmer tone,

News of the day did not record any marked changes in the influences governing prices.

The money market showed a firmer tone, which developed earlier in the week in connection with the settlements, the requisitien in hanking resources on account of new securities issued and the gold export. Call loans advanced to 3 per cent. Government operations through the Subtreasury have taken from the banks annee the last bank statement $2,682,000, including a withdrawal of Government deposits with the banks early in the week Payment for the gold shipped to France teday is not included in the withdrawals to date. The slight effect produced on the foreign exchange market by the gold shipment makes it evident that further shipments will be made. New bond issues continue to be announced and bankers report a large demand for their offerings, indicating the good specific of capital for these investments.

There was welling here of stocks for forcing account in spite of the easier tone of the London discount market, based on the failure to advance the official discount of the Bank of England.

Incoming reports of railroad negeratings for October indicate that the September incoming reports of railroad net earnings for October indicate that the September rate of improvement was not fully maintained at that time, either in the gross or rate of improvement was not fully maintained at that time, either in the gross or the net, the decrease in gross being larger and the increase in net by curtailment of operating expenses smaller than in the earlier comparisons. The latest returns of gross earnings for November also, although comparing with the period last year when the depression began to make tracif felt, show no growth in the rate of linerass over earlier periods.

The earlier movement to market of both grain and cotton is supposed to be responsible in part for the slowing down in the rates of traffic. The luli in the iron trade and in copper is of similar import and the law price of sliver is an additional consideration bearing on the metal and mining stocks. United States Steel sold below 54 for the first time since the week of the National election. No reason was given for the apecial strength shown by the Gould group, Great Northern proferred and a few others. In most cases, last prices were but little changed from the day before.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,578,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET. Prices Current Locally on Cattle, Sheep

The first important slipment of sheep received in the local market came in yesterday. It comisted of a carload of good grade which was disposed of very readily. As prices are already high they were not advanced. Three cars of hogs were also received, most of them of good quality. The general tone of the hog market is inclined to be easy in view of the liberal arrivals recently. Cattle are in strong demand and there is prospect of some advance in prices in the near future. Lambs and calves are in active demand and steady.

Local prices current yesterday were as follows:

CATTLE—Best steers, $494.25; medium, $3.7594; common, $2.25 $2.50; calvees, $3.5094.50;

CHICAGO. Dec. 3.—The wheat market today lacked the bullish enthusiasm which had been manifested the two previous sessions and the trade during the greater part of the day was inclined to drag.
The high point for the May option was registered a short three prior to the close and again on final transactions was noted.
At the same time, the July delivery equalled the high mark set yesterday, but the December delivery falled to reach, by an eighth of a cent, yesterday's record of $1.06. There was no evidence today of any support from the leading buils, but, on the contrary, it was chaimed that the hig holders were moderate seliers here and in the Northwestern markets. The upturn late in the day was due chiefly to covering by shorts. The unresponsive tone of European grain markets was one of the main weakening influences, prices in nearly all of those markets being lower, with Liverpool showing a decline of $46 An official prediction of rain or snow for a large part of the Winter wheat belt in this country was another bearish factor. The principal buillah influence was the decreased movement in the Northwest.

Corn was weak early, but decided strength developed later. Final quotations on Decomber were 63%c and May $1.50.63%.

Outs closed stronger at the highest point of the day with prices up $81%c. December closed at 40%c and May at 52% § 52%c.

Provisions were dull and weak. Prices at the close were 7% $100 to 12%c lower.
