ADDING MACHINE CONTEST.—Forty contestants tried to excel each other in the use of adding machines Tuesday night in the lobby of the Security Savings & Trust Company. The contestants are members of the Portland chapter of the American Institute of Banking. The fastest record was made by T. O. Bates of the Merchants National, but he failed to secure a prize by reason of a mistake he made in striking one key. The first prize was awarded E. J. Engel, United States National, who listed 200 checks in 3:31 4-5 and received $17.50; the next prize of $7.50 was won by Charles Leigh, Bank of California, who listed the same number in 4:07 3-5; the other prize was secured by E. Unger, same bank, time 4:14, prize, S. It was announced that Judge Bronaugh will address the members at the next meeting. ers at the next meeting.

CALLED BY UPLIFT COMMISSION.—Philip S. Bates, publisher of the Pacific North-west, left last evening for Omaha at the west, left last evening for Omana at the request of L. H. Balley, chairman of Prosident Roosevelt's Commission on Country Life, to attend a meeting of the Commission. The conference will take place with the full Country Life Commisplace with the full Country Life Commission now in attendance at the big National Corn Exposition, which opened yesterday, the most important agricultural event in the interest of grain and grass crops that the United States has ever known. There is no doubt but what Mr. Bates will have an excellent the control of the advantage of the country of the opportunity to make known the advan-tages of a residence in Oregon and no ne is better able from a personal knowldge to exploit them. DEMANDS FOUR-CENT CAR FARE-A movement has been started to secure a reduction of streetcar fare by the issuing, by the streetcar company, books containing 25 tickets for $1, which is at the rate of four cents. The Mount Tabor Push Club took the matter up at the meeting Mon-day night and instructed the delegates to the United Push Clubs to submit the matter there for consideration. It was the sense of the Mount Tabor Club that such books of tickets should be issued and carried by the conductors on streetcars for sale to passengers. The mat-ter will be brought before the United Clubs tought. There is also agitation along the same lines from other sources and the movement promises to have considerable strength. TICKET SCALPING AT AN END.-Report was received yesterday by local m of the Railway Ticket Protective Bureau at Chicago, that the practice of ticket scalping in this country practically has been wiped out. The letter from the needquarters of the bureau informs mem-bers that % per cent of the so-called 'business' of ticket scalping has been Iminated and that the only illegal sales of lickets going on at present are of those of week-end return coupons at those of week-end return coupons at some of the great lake points. Officials of the railroad companies say there has been no scalping in Oregon to amount to anything since the law of Oregon for-bidding the practice was enacted, which was at the time of the Lewis and Clark

EMERGENCY CLAUSE REQUIRED,-All ordinances passed by the City Council In future must bear emergency clauses, if it is necessary for the public good that they take effect immediately, according to an opinion filed by City Attorney Kavanaugh with the Council yesterday morning. In addition, it is necessary to have the signatures of 12 members of the Council and the approval of the Mayor. This is because of the decision of the Oregon Supreme Court, which held that ordinances must be held in abeyance for 20 days to give opportunity the application of the referendur Mr. Kavanaugh has petitioned the Su-preme Court for a re-hearing, as he be-lieves it is a regrettable matter, as it

The road is to extend from Cape Horn on the North Bank road into a large timber tract in Washington owned by Blazier Bros. of this city, former owners of the Columbia building, at West Park and Washington street. The present plans of the Oregon-Washington Logging Company, controlled by the Blaziers, is to have the road completed as rapidly as possible and to transfer logs over the road to the Courbin Biver and on the Bortland by lumbia River and on to Portland by water for manufacture into lumber by Portland mills.

LOAN OF LIBERTY BELL ASKED.-The special committee of the City Council, named by Mayor Lane to secure the Liberty Bell for the Rose Festival and the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, held a brief meeting yesterday afternoon. The members are Councilmen Rushlight. Annand and Baker. They formulated a short letter to the Mayor of Philadelphia, and to the Council of that city, asking permission to have the famous bell sent West. This is expected to bring a reply and to open negotiations in an official way to get the coveted attraction. Whenever the bell leaves Philadelphia, it is accompanied by three policemen, who take turns in guarding it.
