Police Interfere in Seattle and Woman Is Escorted to City Jail.

DOOR OF HALL FORCED

Somebody Breaks Lock, but Anarchist Is Bailed Out, Broken Lock Is Paid For and Incident Ends.

WILL NOT TALK TO JUST 12.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Because of police interference, the scheduled lecture by Miss Emma Goldman at the Metropolitan Hall, Ninth avenue and Yester Way, did not occur last night. Those who had paid their 15 cents to hear the anarchist lecturer were instead allowed to follow Miss Goldman as she marched down Yester Way to police headquarters between Sergeant Frank Bryant and Patrolman 154 Hagen.

Broken Lock Paid For.

The police tonight could not find the person who actually broke the lock, but Miss Goldman stated that it was her meeting and that, while she did not know who broke the lock, she would assume all responsibility for the act.

John Cannon, of the Grand Union Hotel, trustee of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, who has the renting of the hall in which the lecture was to have been held tonight, said that the anarchists had no right to use the hall, but broke the lock from the door and entered it forcibly. Cannon said he would not allow an anarchist meeting in the hall for $3000.

Police station by Captain D. F. Willard and later released, after she had paid Trustee Cannon for the damage done the hall and for the lock that had been broken.

Refuses to Talk to Twelve.

When Miss Goldman appeared on this depressing scene the anarchist nose was elevated in scorn and she declined to tell the masses how to better themselves. "I shan't lecture," said she, and despite the protests of several admirers, she left the hall in a huff. Her two emissaries would have followed her had it not been for the proprietor.

Police Catch Runaways.

Two runaway boys were caught by the police Sunday night and returned to their parents. One of these, Homer Beigley, whose home is at 22 Fifth street, had been living for the past week in a box-car in the terminal yards. He was arrested by Sergeant Goltz at the corner of Fourth and Oak streets. The boy has run away from home before and has figured in a number of cases of police investigation.

Thieves Rob Baby's Bank.

The baby of A. J. Windnagle, who lives at 48 1/2 Locust street, was the victim of bank robbers Sunday night. They entered the Windnagle residence while the family was at church. The burglars broke open the child's bank and abstracted $1 in small coins. The toy bank had been broken into small pieces by the robbers. After making a thorough search for valuables throughout the house, the thieves contented themselves with taking $7 in money from a bureau drawer.

PEKING, Dec. 14.—As the result of a visit paid to the Bowery Mission by ex-Judge E. H. Gary, head of the United States Steel Corporation, at an early hour yesterday, that mission is several thousand dollars richer. Also, as a further result, a movement may be instituted to bring about the passage of a law to provide for the transportation of deserving indigent Americans to places in the West where positions may be offered them.

Several days ago Judge Gary made arrangements with the Bowery Mission to visit this strange oasis in the desert of New York's underworld. Rev. John G. Hallmond, superintendent of the Mission, and Dr. Charles Vincent Herdicks, sociological worker, formed a reception committee. With Judge Gary, were Mrs. Gary, Captain De La Mar, a Western mine owner, and a number of others.

The bread line at the Bowery Mission forms at midnight. From 1 to 3 o'clock in the morning men to the number of about 1500 are given hot coffee and ham line yesterday morning.

Judge Gary wrote a check and handed it to the superintendent of the mission. Captain De La Mar gave the mission $1000. Other in the party gave liberally, and not counting the check given by Judge Gary, it is reported that the donations footed up to nearly $4000.

The character of the men who formed the bread line surprised those who came to observe. Judge Gary talked with many of them. They all had the same story to tell—no work, no chance to earn a living.

"And I can't get men to work in my mines out West," said Captain De La Mar.

It was this remark that brought up the question of transportation and the desirability of a law that would make it possible for men to be transported at public expense to distant points as immigrants are transported by the Federal government.

Cappers, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, in his annual report states that for the last fiscal year there was a decrease in the receipts of $7,998,072, as compared with the previous year, and that for the first three months of the current year there has been a decrease of $7,262,238, as compared with the corresponding months of the last fiscal year.

The revenues for the full current year are estimated at $250,000,000, which is $1,465,000 less than for last year. The production of distilled grain spirits was 128,889,749 gallons, a decrease of more than 45,000,000 gallons.
