PEOPLE IN SAD PLIGHT

DR. WILSON FEARS BETRAYAL BY POLITICIANS.

Says Oregon's Former Senators Have at No Time Been Worthy of State.

"That Oregon, prior to the adoption of the amendment to its constitution giving to the people the right to express their choice for United States Senator, was represented by men who neither morally, socially or politically represented the best thoughts or morals of the people of the state, was the indictment of Oregon politicians made by Dr. Clarence True Wilson in the peritide to his sermon at Centenary Church last night.

"That Petition for Perjury" was the subject of Dr. Wilson's remarks in the course of which he said that the supremacy of the people was the foundation of the Government. The right of self-government, he said, was vested in the people by the Constitution, although the framers of that document were criticised mildly for "hedging" in that they withheld from the people the right to elect their president and United States Senators by direct vote, although the right was reserved to them to elect all other officers, including Representatives in Congress.

Discussing the pledge to which State members of the Legislature subscribed prior to their election, Dr. Wilson said, in part:

the attention of Senators out of the Ethical political ring that have too long controlled, and let the sovereign people say who shall represent them in the highest branch of government.

The people of Oregon have put their hand to the task and will never let go. They have voted upon about 20 bills through the initiative and referendum, and they have neither served or humiliated yet. They have twice made choice of their own man for Senator, and they will not allow the polluted hands of any political machine to touch their Ark of the Covenant, the integrity of popular government. In an open fight, in a free field, they turned down Fulton because they preferred Calkins. In the election they defeated Calkins because they preferred Chamberlain. And, party or no party, politician or no politician, the people propose to have the people's choice and to deal with the men who dare to sell them out or betray their trusts.

Whenever an American citizen voluntarily goes before his fellow citizens and asks for their suffrage on a conditional promise that, if elected, he will do certain things, that promise is as sacred and important to the integrity of government as a compulsory oath administered in a court. To betray the trust imposed in one who is thus elected is perjury of the blackest type; it is securing votes (more sacred than money under false pretenses, it is treason to the very heart of our form of government.

I shall pity the poor wretch who sells himself to go back on his constituents. He is more shadow, too frail to bear the strain of carrying through a sacred trust, incapable of being true under temptation. But those who resort to political combinations and circulate petitions and sign them, calculated to make the people's representatives betray them, to procure perjury from them by making it easy for them to violate their pre-election promises, stand upon statement No. 1, to put the short-sighted interest of their party ahead of their word of honor and the rights of the people, these are the corrupters of mankind. Against them the pulpit should thunder, the press should sound the alarm, and every true hearted man should denounce this open effort to prostitute free government to treason and dirty politics.
