Says He Made Mistake When He Fled to America and Thinks That Perhaps His Present Disgrace Would Kill Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4-(Special.)-SAN FRANCISCO. Jan. 4.—(Special.)— Count Winnick von Gfug Gassendorff, as he writes his name on the small book at the city prison, chafes excessively at his forced confinement. He is awaiting impatiently the arrival of a detective from Portland, Or. He said yesterday that he made a great mistake when he came to the United States and never would have left Germany had it not been for a duel which he fought there in 1907, and in which he shot and killed another German officer. Because of this he says he was compelled to leave his fatherland.

"They say that I have got money from They say that I have got money from others. This is not so. I negotiated for an automobile in Portland with the Studebaker Company, I was not exactly pleased with the machine and did not take it. They insisted on my giving a check to whow I meant business. I did so, but told them not to present it till I returned. They told me to look at their machines Inter told me to look at their machines in this city. I did so, but I never have taken a machine. I learned that some-body wanted my arrest, so I thought it was best to get away. I have no idea why they prosecute me. I am expecting money. The German Consul of Victoria with the control of th money. The German Consul of Victoria knows me and I will communicate with him when I arrive in Portland. Then I will begin suit against these people who have caused me this humiliation. I will punish them for this. "Do you think," he suddenly asked,

WAR ON DUCK POACHERS

Day Duck Club Succeeds in Having Two Boys Arrested and Fined.

War on game poachers has been de-clared by bolders of duck preserves of the Columbia and Williamette Rivers. Last Saturday two youthful violators were baled before the Justice Court at St. Helens, convicted of unlawful tres-pass and required to pay fines and costs smounting to $160. They were Orville and Highry Heaver, aged 21 and 19 years, and their father. John Beaver, supplied the cash to keep the youtns out of Jall. The game preserve, comprising 1600 acres, at the mouth of Santosh River, three miles south of St. Helens, is leased by the Day Duck Club—a company of Portland men who often spend Saturday and Sunday shooting ducks. They have a cabin on the place and a supply and Sunday shooting ducks. They have a cabin on the place and a supply of decoys, dables and bedding. This property has frequently been despoiled by unknown residents of the vicinity, through malice and jeadousy of the city "sports." By clever work of a Portland detective agency, the Bencar boys were detected in transacting and propoling and dein trespassing and poaching and de-stroying decoys and were convicted.

Owners of other duck preserves have joined the crusade and other arrests are

VICTORY FOR 80-CENT GAS

Supreme Court Upholds New York's Law and Reverses Lower Court.

today reversed the decision of the United States Court for the southern district of New York granting an injunction against the chiforcoment of the So-cent gas law. The decision of the court did not deal with the constitutionality of the law, but left the inference that that question would depend upon the fact as to whether the law was confiscatory, which it was intimated has been sufficiently determined. Justice Peckham said that a bons note test should be made under the operation of the law before appealing to the courts for its nullification.

tion of the law before appealing to the courts for its nullification.

The action was begun by the gas company in the shape of a prayer for an injunction against the enforcement of the law, and the injunction was granted by that court, on the ground that the terms of the law make it confiscatory of the property of the gas company the rate fixed being below a reasonable price, in the opinion of that court. The decision of the United States Circuit Court of New York was against the 80-cent gas law and sustained the Camolidated Gas Company in its refusal to deliver gas for 80 cents per 1000 reet. From this decision appeal fisa. to deliver gas for 80 cents per 1990 teet. From this decision appeal was taken to the United States Su-

Anti-Statement Element Continues in Control of Organization, Banquet Plans.

In the choice of Sylvester C. Pier, as president, and the re-election of Max G. Cohen, as secretary, in the biennial election of officers of the Union Republican club last night, the anti-Statement element retained con-trol of that organization. Mr. Pler, who is manager for the Marshall-Wells Hardware Company, is said to be opposed to that system which makes possible the election of a Democratic Senator by a Republican Legislature. The re-election of Mr. Coben was op-posed vigorously by those members of the club who would make him for bla the club who would punish him for his activity in fighting the Statement docactivity in fighting the Statement doc-trine. Question of Secession of Eastern and American Leagues Is Not Yet Decided, Needing Further Consideration.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.- The question whether the American Association and Eastern League will be put into a spe-cial classification among the baseball clubs of the country is not yet decided by the National baseball commission. The commission worked for six hours on the case today, and adjourned late to-night to meet again tomorrow, when a decision probably will be rendered. decision probably will be randered.

The commission transacted much other business today. The most prominent case decided was the reinstatement of Player Jim Sebring. He was fined $200 outright and the club that purchased him must pay $650 to the Cincinnati baseball club, in settlement of a dobt due from Sebring.

It is stated by a man who is very close to Jeffries that about a year ago Jeffries tried three weeks of systematic training at the Los Angeles Athletic Club in this city, and the results were not satisfactory to him and that it was this failure to get himself into condition which impelled him to refuse the offer of $50,000 offered by McIntosh, the Australian promoter. Since the refusal of this offer, Jeffries' friends here have been persistent in their attempts to make him change his mind, and it is said tonight that the announcement that he has decided to fight the new champion may come at any time. MULTNOMAH AND SPOKANE TO MEET JANUARY 15.

Inland Empire's Good Boxers and Wrestlers Assure Portland of # Good Matches in Contest.

The Spokane Amateur Athletic Club will send its boxing and wrestling stars to Portland on Friday, January 15. when the next inter-club boxing and wrestling tournament is to be held at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club. Since the tourney originally sched-iled for New Year's eve fell through, the clubmen have been looking forward to the date with the Spokane man with more than added interest. They are more than added interest. They are hungry for the good bouts seen when Multnomah is pitted against either Spo-kane or Scattle. The Spokane club has many excellent youngsters capable of doing things in the ring or on the mat, and next Thursday night will occur an exhibition at Spokane. The Spokane club is awaiting the results of this before it announces the names of the men who are to meet the winged-M per-

Chairman Frank, of the indoor athletic committee of the club, has so far received only one positive entry from the Spokane club. This is G. H. Gezek, a 145-pound wrestler, who will be matched against E. D. Smith, of Mult-nomab. Other entries from Spokane are: One 125-pound boxer

Olmar Dranga, and one 125-pound boxer to meet Gene West. Another wrestler is also expected from the Spokane club, and the pre-liminaries to be arranged by the club committee will be selected from among Instructors O'Connell and Rennick,

FACTS ABOUT THE CROUP

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS AND TREATMENT.

Some Interesting Information for Young Mothers --- How to Guard Against the Disease.

The great danger from croup is fully realized by most mothers of young children. There are many, however, who do not know that an attack of croup may be prevented by that an attack of croup may be prevented by proper treatment as soon as the first symptoms appear. The first indication of an attack of croup is hoarseness. The child becomes quite hoarse; this is followed by a rough cough that has something of a metallic sound and has been compared to the crowing of a cock. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to the printed directions with each bottle as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, and it will prevent It is, in fact, a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail, but it is better and safer to give the remedy before the attack of croup is fully developed. It then saves suffering for the child and anxlety for its parents. There is no danger in giving this remedy freely, as it contains no opium or other narcotic. It is the standby and sole reliance in many thousands of homes and never disappoints those who depend upon it. There are women who took this remedy in childhood, now giving it to their grandchildren, and with the cess. It always cures and is pleas-beautiful Lester planos that were just received yesterday.

There are hundreds of families who really need a piano, who have felt here-tofore that their means would not permit the possession of a really good one. A cheap or poorly-made instrument, such as is frequently offered, they would not care to own. We put you in a position now to purchase a really fine instrument of unquestioned quality at a saying of from 25 to 50 percent from the lowest cash price obtainable ordinarily on same grade and quality of plano, and besides, we make arrangements for you to pay for the instrument at this reduced price at virtually your own convenience.

UNED BRANDS, TOO.

USED BRANDS, TOO.

In addition to the unusual piano sav-ngs offered above, we have decided to nclude in this sale a number of grand planos, which, with few exceptions, lave been taken in exchange as part

Brand new pianos, every one of the choicest that can be produced, the acme of perfection of each representative factory, are being sold this week at marked reductions. These pianos, which were carefully selected by our Eastern purchasing agents for our select holiday trade from the foremost American manufacturers, were received too late to be placed on display. Rather than carry these pianos over until next season, we have determined to close them out at great reductions.
