Rabbi Wige has been in-vited to deliver an address on Sunday, January 17, from the pulpit of Dr. Joseph Krauskoff on the sims and accomplish-ments of the union. Thursday, January 21, a memorial window will be unveiled in memory of his father, the late Isaac M. Wise. The Union of American Hebrew Congregations is the largest organization of its kind in the world, comprising practically all the reform Jewish synagogues in America, most of whom will send delegates, those from Portland being M. Schol and Rabbi Wise. This year's M. Stohel and Rabb! Wise. This year's meeting is looked upon as the most im-portant in the history of the union. Rabbi Wise will speak in Cincinnati on his way back to Portland.

DEATH OF L. L. GOUDY.—The death of L. L. Goudy occurred at his home in Waverly yesterday morning, after a short waveriy generous morning, after a snort and painful illness. A pathetic incident of his last days was the sudden death of his wife three weeks ago. Debilitated by age, the shock attending her death, from apoplery, further weakened his powers of resistance and he succumbed after five lays' illness to an acute attack of Bright's disease. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon from Finley's Chapel. Surviving members of his family in this city are a daughter, Mrs. Eva Mead; a son, R. C. Goudy, and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Chenoweta. He was 78 years old at the time of his death and had resided in this city for two years. The interment will be in Rose City Cemetery.

"ROOKIES" FROM THE EAST.—Unless ome unforeseen delay provents, there ill arrive in Portland tomorrow two tourist-cars conveying @ recruits for Van-couver Barracks. The recruits come from Columbus, O., recruiting station and on arrival will be apportioned to the different commands now stationed at the barracks. When the train left Colorado Springs two of the recruits were left be springs two of the Ferrins were left be-bind, but massages informed the officer in charge of the "rookies" that the missing men would follow on a later train. The recruits will arrive in Port-land over the O. R. & N. and be trans-ferred to Vancouver over whatever line may be in commission at that time.

STREET WORK MAKES BIG GAIN—Figures compiled by Chief Deputy City Auditor Gruins show an enormous increase in the amount of street improvement work in Portland for the year 1908. ment work in Portland for the year 1908, over all other years. Warrants drawn for the purpose of payment of claims for street improvements of various kinds to December El, 1908, aggregated the larges sum of $1,03,18096, as against $510,314.80 for the preceding year, a gain over 1907 of $1,30,385.16. The work of handling these improvements, drawing warrants and negotiating payment of the claims, in the Auditor's office alone, was immense.

OFFICERS ELECTED. - Officers of the unior Reservens, of the Dominican Church, Grand avenue, were elected as follows at the last meeting: President, Miss Grace Dowd: vice-president, Miss Grace Sweeney; secretary, Miss Celoniso de Grandepre; treasurer, Miss Blanche de Grandepre; treasurer, Miss Blanche Kennedy; marshal, Miss Mabel Hughes. In addition to this splendid display of musical art, Mr. Riley has arranged with the various vaudeville houses to donate to the concert their top-liners from the new bills of the week. There will also be a number of people, with splendid talent added to the programme. One distinctive and amusing feature will be Leo tinctive and amusing feature will be Leo Shapirer, a brilliant and eccentric piano player. Mr. Shapiror is a toller in the First National Bank, but if just for once on two planes at once would make a hit. What the Press Agents Say.

Twice Today-Tomorrow Night, There will be two performances at the Heilig Theater, Pourteenth and Washington streets, today; a special marines at 2:15 o'clock and tonight at 8:15, and the closing performance tomorrow (Sunday) night by Florence Roberts and her splendid compary in 'The House of Bondage' Seats are selling at the theater. This is one of the high-class attractions of the season.

"Zaza" Last Two Times. The closing performances of the splendid production of "Zaza," as even this week by the Baker stock company at the Bungalow, will be given this afternoon and tonight. This latense emotional risy, with its superb scenery and imisual plot, never fails to fascinate Miss Jewel's acting of the title role is a revelation.

"The Devil's Auction" at Boker. The children should see the famous spec-tacle, "The Devil's Auction," at the Baker matines today, for it is one piece in which they find the keenest delight. Twenty-eight years before the public and still drawing packed houses everywhers is a record to years before packed hous be proud of.

"Jane Eyre" at the Star. The last performance of "Jane Eyrs" at the Star will be given tonight. It is a play that reaches the heart and touches the soul It holds an appeal to the men as well as the women, and its strength lies in the directness with which the whole thems is treated.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS. Jossella Trio at Orpheum One of the most sensational aerial acts on the vaudeville stage is being presented at the Orpheum this week. The Joselin trio, consisting of two ladles and one gentleman, after doing several beautiful trapeze stunts, make their descent to the stage by means of a web strap, forming several beautiful groupings.

Grand's Pleasing Show, Nothing but pleasing features are on this week's bill at the Grand. It is a vaudecille entertainment such as is rarely surpassed in this popular house. The wonder of the bill is Cree, an illusion in which a woman is apparently created from a few sticka, a wig and some garments. The Traveling Man" is a screamingly funny comedy.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"Great Divide" Next Monday. Beginning next Monday night, January 11, and continuing the following two nights, with a special matines Wednesday afternoon, the attraction at the Heilig Theater, Fourteenth and Wushington afternoon, the attraction at the Theater, Fourteenth and Watresta will be Hepry Miller's minpany in the famous American drama. The Great Divide." Seats are now selling at theater.

"Bakes in Toyland" will attract crowds to the Baker next week, for the beautiful production is one of the best-known and most popular of all the Victor Herbert musical extravaganess. It atili maintains its high standard in every particular. It will open with tomorrow's mattures.

The initial performance of the strong acting play, "Masters of Men," will be given in this city by the Bakes stock company at the Bungalow tomorrow afternoon, and it will continue all next week. It is a play of modern politics and deals with the great fight between honesty and graft and corruption.

"Thorns and Orange Blossoms." "Thorn's and Orange Blossoms" is the stor's offering for next week. The story appeals to all classes; it has a vital interest for everyone, the working girl or the petted society belie, the young man-abouttown or the head of the family—to each there is a pointed lesson a moral, a suggestion.

NEW ATTORNEY FOR FINCH,

John A. Jeffrey Appointed to Case of Convicted Slayer.

John A. Jeffrey was appointed by Judge Bronaugh yesterday morning as attorney for James A. Pinch, the convicted murderer of Ralph B. Fisher. The appointment was made in open court at Finch's request. The time allowed by the court for filing a motion for a new trial would have expired today, but an extension of five days was allowed that Attorney Jefrey may have an opportunity to examine the records in the case. Finch has intimated that one of the grounds for a new trial will be the alleged mismanagement of his case by his attorneys. He said that Charles F. Lord, who made the opening statement to the jury, had not studied the case sufficiently to tell what Finch's teatlmony would be, although Finch says he took the pains to write out what he intended to say on the witness stand. Lord John A. Jeffrey was appointed by tended to say on the witness stand. Lord has said that he gave his best endeavor in behalf of Finch, notwithstanding that he was compelled to act without remun-

Wives Plaintiffs in Other Cases. Mrs. Joseph W. Dean Tells of Husband's Brutality; Freed. Desertion Common Charge.

Joseph W. Dean's frequent and violent fits of passion, during which Mrs. B. E. W. Dean testified yesterday that she was shamefully abused, were made the ground for a divorce, which was granted by Judge Gantenbein in the Circuit Court yesterday morning., Mrs. Dean said that her husband pushed her against a stump last January, injuring her back, and threatening to kill her. Two months later, she said, he pushed her over, so that she fell and struck her head violently on the floor. Her husband's fits of rage, she said, were accompanied by a superfluity of curses. Although Dean had filed in the Circuit Conrt an answer to his wife's complaint, he did not appear yesterday to contest her suit, and it went by default. She was permitted to resume fault. She was permitted to resume her maiden name—Bessie E. Winter. She married Dean January 6, 1997.

Judge Gantenbein granted nine di-vorces yesterday, only two of which were to husbands. The most frequent charge was desertion, although cruelty, drunkenness and non-support figured in the trials.

Nathan Fullerton said that Ethel Fullerton left him for no other reason than that she could not live happily than that she could not live happily with him any longer. He said she left in July, 1907. They were married September 30, 1899. W. E. Wren said he had provided Cora E. Wren with a comfortable home ever since their wedding, but that she deserted him and would not return. They married at Niellsville, Wis., December 24, 1904. Pearl Keegan said that Alex Keegan has accoulded a habit of drinking since.

has acquired a habit of drinking since their marriage, and that he now becomes intoxicated three times a week on an average. She said she had not only been abused, but had suffered for the necessaries of life. Upon her state-ment that her husband carns $80 s month, the court ordered that he pay her $20 a month for the support of their child, of which she was awarded the custody. The couple were married July 17, 1905

Nellie E. Wenig also told of the indignities heaped upon her by a drunken husband. She said he at last deserted her. They were married at Astoria, March 25, 1896. She was given the cus-tody of their child, and $25 a month

Bertha M. Smith said R. B.
