APPLE SALES IN NEW YORK. Latest Transactions Show No High Prices Were Paid.

The condition of the New York apple market is reported by the Fruitmen's Guide of January 9 as follows:

"The Western applies at the auction sales this week covered several carloads, but there were no high prices paid in any quarter. Some Newtown plypins sold in the range of $1.55 to $1.50 per box, and a few ots of Spitzenbergs brought up to $2 per bex. The inside figure on one of the best carloads offered was $1.70 per box. The ange on the Far Western Buldwins was given as from $1.40 to $1.60 per box. A few Russets sold out at $1.40 per box, and Jonathans sold at $1.40 per box. There were a few lots of Greenings that sold in small way up to $1.50 per box, and Ben Davis stock at $1.25 to $1.50 per box. "There is a general opinion in the local trade that conditions as to the supply warby the International Apple Shippers' Asso ciation has had a good deal to do with the stiffening up of the ideas of some of the helders on apples here and at the prin cipal points of supply. The stocks are said be a good deal less than was indicated obable in the December report."

Acting on the theory that an egg decomposes owing to the entrance of bacteria through the shell, the eggs by the now process of preservation are first disinfected and then immersed in a vessel of hot paraffin wax in a vacuum. The air in the shell is extracted by the vacuum, and atmospheric pressure is then allowed to enter the vessel, when the hat wax is pressed into the peres of the shell, which thus hermetically seals it. Evaporation of the contents of the egg, which has a harmful effect, is thereby prevented, and the egg is practically startle. The yolk of pickied eggs and others artificially presseved will frequently break es being possed, but the eggs preserved by this novel process are quite free from such fault. It is claimed for this process that the eggs will bring 45s ($11.60) per 1440 more than those preserved in lime water or by water glass, and 32s ($1.75) more than those kept in eold storage. Particulars of this new method might be obtained from a man whose address is forwarded (nams filed at Bureau of Manufacturee).

Wheat Market Weak All Day at Chicago.

SUPPORT IS GIVEN

Large Shipments From Australia and Argentina Are the Cause of the Unloading-Close Is Near Lowest Point.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—The liberal ship-ments from Australia and Argentina in-spired free selling of wheat, resulting in a weak market throughout the entire day. The exports for the week from Argentina were fully 500,000 bushels more than had The exports for the week from Argentina were fully 500,000 bushels more than had heen estimated yesterday, while the total movement from Australia was given as 1.880,000 bushels. As this is the first heavy movement of wheat from either of these countries from the present season's crop, the effect on the market here was decidedly bearish. The fact also that the bull leaders gave the market very poor support contributed to the weakness. Prices at the start were % to %c below the previous close and before the end of the day further declines of nearly ic had been effected. The close was weak and only a triffs above the lowest point with May at $1.05 % $1.05 %, and July, $8 % $100 %. Heavy sales by a leading long caused weakness in the corn market. The close was weak at the bottom, with May at $0.00 % $1.05 %. The weakness of wheat and corn was send July at $1.45 % $1.05 %.

and July at 614,0614c.

The weakness of wheat and corn was chiefly responsible for moderate declines in the prices of cats. The market closed casy, 14,004c to 14,0% lower than yesterday's close on May. July closed at 46c.
Frovisions were easy the entire day, owing to a 5c decline in the price of live hogs. The market closed easy, with prices a shade higher to 10c lower, compared with the previous close.
