SALARY INCREASE CAUSES DEBATE

Many Senators Oppose Higher Pay for President, Vice-President and Speaker.

SEPARATE BILL PROPOSED

Borah Starts Debate With Point of Order—Many Objections to Extensive Increase—Judges' Salaries Are Involved.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—An amendment to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill increasing the salary of the President to $100,000, of the Vice-President and Speaker of the House of Representatives to $50,000 additional allowance for carriages and coaches for the Vice-President and Speaker, and increases for the judiciary aggregating $23,500, precipitated a lively discussion in the Senate today.

CAN LILLEY RETAIN HIS SEAT

House Warmly Debates Question of Dual Office-Holding.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Private bills had their inning in the House of Representatives today, almost the whole session being given up to their consideration. Many were passed.

National Grading of Grains.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The Senate committee on agriculture today authorized a favorable report of the McCumber bill providing for the inspection and grading of grains. Under this bill, national inspection and grading of grains is provided for and the Department of Agriculture is authorized to fix definite grades. In addition to the present laboratories, others are to be established at Seattle, Tacoma and San Francisco and other points.

RATTLE DRY BONES

Conference on Navy Department Reform Opens.

MAY ABOLISH BUREAUS

Criticism of Armchair Admirals Brings Together Men of Wide Experience—Newberry's Action Approved.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Another conference on the management of naval matters by the Navy Department, which may result in the reorganization of the system at present in vogue in that department, was held today. Criticism of the present bureau system has resulted in the bringing together today of ten men of wide experience in Navy Department matters. Those in attendance at the meeting in the offices of the Secretary of the Navy are: Supreme Court Justice William H. Moody and Paul Morton, of New York, ex-Secretaries of the Navy; United States Judge A. F. Dayton, of West Virginia, ex-chairman of the House committee on naval affairs; Herbert L. Satterlee, the present Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans, retired, ex-commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet; Rear-Admiral Alfred T. Mahan, retired; Rear-Admiral Stephen B. Luce, retired, both on special duty at the Naval War College, Newport, R. I.; Rear-Admiral William M. Fejler, retired, ex-Naval Chief of Ordnance; Rear-Admiral W. S. Cowles, Chief of the Bureau of Equipment, and Commander William M. Fulton, of the naval training station at Newport, R. I., who will act as recorder. Paul Morton presided.

DEWEY SUPPORTS PRESIDENT

Says 5000 Marines Could Have Prevented Philippine Rebellion.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Admiral Dewey, president of the General Board of the Navy, has sent to Secretary Newberry a letter in which he cordially approves the withdrawal of the marines from the ships of the Navy recently ordered by the President. He says it is the policy of the department to employ these men as an integral part of the Navy, and war plans are worked out accordingly, but when embarked they would be on ships and especially fitted to

NO TRAINS RUNNING

Overland Traffic on Central Pacific Stops.

GOULD LINE BRIDGE GONE

Gravel-Train Falls With It Into American River and Engineer Drowns—River-Dams Burst and Flood Threatens.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Beyond the destruction of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company's bridges at Sacramento and the Western Pacific crossing near there, the damage resulting from the great rain storm which has deluged the central part of California for the last week is slight. The danger is not over, however, if the rain continues, though apparently the storm is ceasing.

ATTACKS EMPLOYER'S WIFE

German Farm Hand Wanted by Oregon City Police for Assault.
OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 15.—(Special.)—The authorities here have been unable to apprehend Otto Miller, who is wanted on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. Miller has been employed for the last six weeks by David Scheff, a farmer, of Redland, and last night while Mr. Scheff was away from home, Miller brutally assaulted Mrs. Scheff with a stick of wood, inflicting scalp wounds on her head. The woman was unconscious for more than an hour, and her assailant fled.

TRAIN GOES WITH BRIDGE

At Southern Pacific headquarters here it is reported that four overland trains are stalled across the American River from Sacramento, owing to the loss of the bridge yesterday.

TWO POWER-DAMS BURST

At the offices of the Southern Pacific Company, in this city, it is stated that the big dam of the Oroville Power & Water Company in Fall River Valley and the dam of the Stanley Power & Water Company, in the same region, have both given way and released a great quantity of water, which is threatening the town of Oroville.

CREST OF FLOOD PASSES

The high water at Bakersfield, in Kern County, reached its crest during the night, and is subsiding. Although portions of Visalia and Porterville were flooded, there was no loss of life, and the property loss was not large.

Many families in Porterville were carried from their homes in boats on rafts. One woman, who was ill in bed, was rescued before the water had reached her home. Considerable damage was done in Fresno by the flooding of basements.

MELTING SNOW SWELLS FLOOD.

The Santa Clara Valley suffered practically no damage, and the rain has been of great benefit to fruitgrowers and farmers.

EIGHT TRAINS ARE STALLED

Blocked by Wreck of Bridge, Snow and Landslides.
RENO, Nev., Jan. 15.—Eight overland passenger trains are blocked between Reno and Sacramento. Nos. 6 and 10, eastbound, are at Sacramento, and Nos. 2 and 4, eastbound, are at Yuba Pass; Nos. 23 and 3, westbound, are held at Truckee, while Nos. 1 and 5, westbound, are on the way from Sparks to Truckee and will be held up there.

NO TRAINS WEST OF OGDEN

OGDEN, Utah, Jan. 15.—For the first time in the history of the Southern Pacific, through passenger trains are not running west from Ogden, but are being diverted at this point and sent south and west over the Oregon Short Line and San Pedro line to Mojave, Southern California, and thence north to San Francisco. The washout to the west has caused the Southern Pacific to issue orders that trains arriving this afternoon shall be sent out by the circuitous route via Salt Lake and the first trains to be affected are Nos. 9 and 1, the westbound fast mail and the overland limited.

CHINOOK THAWS OUT BUTTE

Butte, Mont., Jan. 15.—Exceptionally warm weather for this season in Butte was experienced today, a Chinook wind from the west causing a heavy thaw of snow. Warner weather is predicted for tonight and tomorrow. The breaking of the cold snap is rapidly removing the difficulties of railroad operation in Montana and the service is expected to be about normal within the next 24 hours.

RAILROAD SERVICE EXPECTED TO BE NORMAL IN ANOTHER DAY.
