

DEBRIS REMOVED; TRACK AGAIN OPEN

Railroad Men Carefully Sorting Over Wreckage for Traces of Dead Bodies.

ONE MAN IS STILL MISSING

Injured at Glenwood Springs Reported to Be Recovering—Associated Press Reporter Helps to Identify Wreck Victims.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Jan. 17.—The confusion following the wreck at Deersay is gradually being straightened out. The track has been entirely cleared and traffic resumed without interruption.

The debris resulting from the wreck, thrown to one side while searching for bodies and clearing the track, is to be picked up carefully and nothing will be burned on the ground save the broken splinters, and those not until they have been carefully gone through a second time lest a body might still be lying therein.

The situation is being directed by General Manager Ridgway, of the Denver & Rio Grande, who remains here until tomorrow. Working with him are General Surgeon O'Connor and Claims Agent Rennie and a corps of assistants. Dr. O'Connor is personally supervising the care of the injured and assisting in the identification of the dead, while Rennie is preserving all property and possible claims to identification.

There have been no deaths among the injured since yesterday and more hope is entertained for the recovery of those whose condition is serious. There were 136 passengers on the train, and most of these are accounted for. It is known that a number proceeded on their journey without being reported.

Some of the unknown dead have been identified today. All the men have been identified in nearly every case positively. The railway was greatly assisted in this by the Associated Press report. George Mahan, of Princeton, Ind., is missing, and it is possible that he may be one of the men concerning whose identification there is no positive proof.

His wife is one of the seriously injured, and in no condition to give a description. She insists that her husband and father were on the train. The father, Henry Dunn, of St. Louis, has been found among the dead. In many instances the railway people are able to give addresses where the persons can be found, but there are a number of names which do not appear among the list of passengers.

Engineer Unable to Talk.

No statement has yet been obtained from Engineer Olsen, of the passenger train. He will not be well enough to talk for several days, and until then the investigation as to the blame is at a standstill. The members of the Oregonian staff who were visiting the bodies, returned home last night.

Coroner Gilpin will hold the inquest when Engineer Olsen is able to give his evidence. The body of B. H. Davis was taken to Denver this morning by his partner, Lester Brinkman. The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kettle were claimed this morning by Fred Kettle, a brother, from Grand Junction.

SCENE OF HORROR GREETE EYE

Survivor Dotsero Wreck Tells Pitiful Story of Disaster.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 17.—A number of survivors of the Dotsero wreck on the Rio Grande Railroad, reached Salt Lake City today. Those who were not too dumbed by the scene of horror through which they had passed, related pitiful stories of the disaster.

"The car sitting in a Pullman," said George H. Harris, a Salt Lake man, "when I felt a jar. It was nothing much so far as the shock was concerned, but out of curiosity I went into the form to learn the cause of the stop. Only then did I suspect that we had been in a collision. It seemed as though the passengers from every immediate car were upon the scene instantly and every man and a majority of the women set to work to aid the unfortunates under the debris.

"When we had completed our work it was found that 19 were dead, three others died in the hospital and a hobo who was riding in the blind baggage was crushed to death. That made a total of 22 dead.

"The chaircoach was completely demolished and there was hardly enough of it left to fill a cigar box. Where the accident occurred there is a river on one side of the embankment and a sheet descent on the other. The impact drove the tourist sleeper through the chair car ahead, one side falling down the embankment and the other into the water.

"While a party of us were at work we came upon a family of five—father, mother, two little boys and a little girl. As we reached the father he cried out: 'For God's sake help my children; I am dying.' We had been working hard, but we put more energy, if possible, into our labors, and soon had the little girl freed from the wreckage. She was badly hurt, but we knew it would help the dying parents if we told them the child was safe. When we reached them our consoling messages were too late. The father, mother and two boys had passed to the great beyond.

"A little further on our attention was called to a little girl about 6 years old. She was lying dead upon the second locomotive of the freight train. Evidently when the impact came she had been hurled from the chair-car over the baggage-car and two engines.

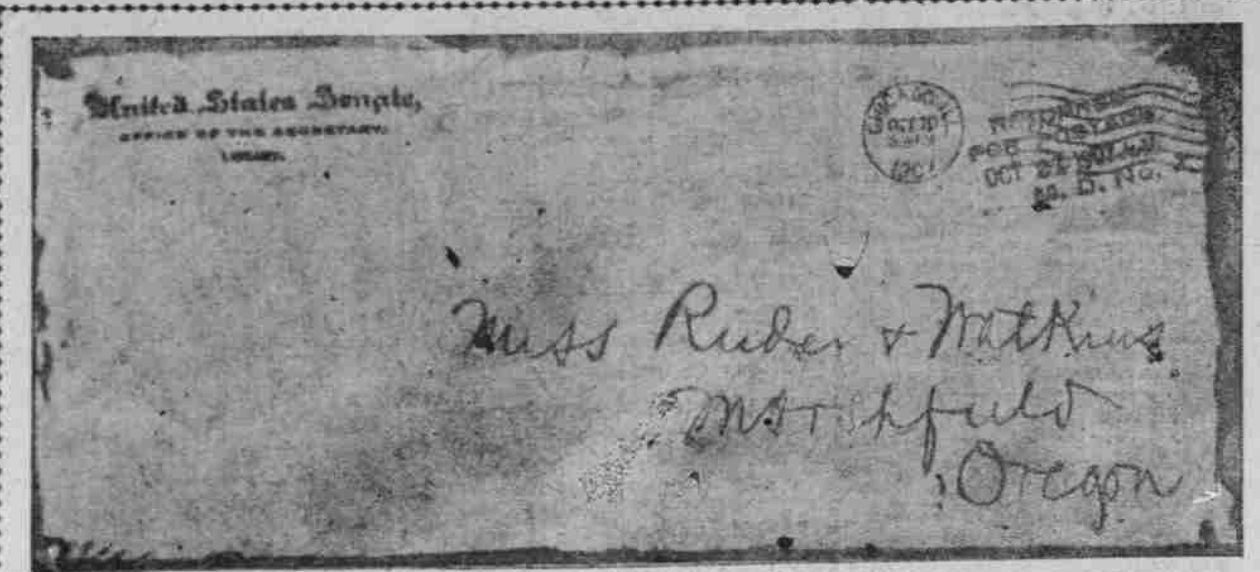

"The hobo on the blind baggage was pinned between the tender and the front of the baggage-car. It was impossible to remove him, and as he was dead, we allowed him to remain there."

RANCHER SHOT BY MISTAKE

Charivari Party May Have Fatal Ending.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Jan. 17.—Clinton Wilson, aged 71, son of a wealthy ranchman near this city, was shot and probably fatally wounded by John H. Vivian, a neighbor, last night. Wilson, with a party of merry-makers, had called at the home of Vivian, who was recently married, to charivari him. Vivian fired into the crowd before he was aware of their identity, thinking they were thieves.

PROOF OF TILLMAN'S PARTICIPATION IN OREGON LAND DEAL

TAFT PRAISES NEGRO Y. M. C. A.

Compliments Colored Race on Effort to Make Itself Indispensable to Whites.

DEFENDS PANAMA EXPENSE

Says Unless Money Is Spent to Take Care of Morals of Those in Canal Zone, Canal Will Never Be Built.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 17.—Introduced to a big audience of men comprising the negro Y. M. C. A. of this city, today President-elect Taft discussed the Christian uplift of the Y. M. C. A. work.

Dr. Walker, known as the "Black Spurgeon," who introduced Mr. Taft, said the negroes of Georgia owned 1,000,000 acres of land in the state and paid taxes on 200,000,000 worth of property.

This report Mr. Taft regarded as most encouraging. It gave him an illustration for the oft-expressed belief that the race question must be settled by the negroes themselves becoming indispensable to the community in which they live.

This meant industry, information and that acquired by constant individual effort. He dwelt at length on the advantage of Y. M. C. A. work to bring out this end.

Money in Good Cause. After he had described the Y. M. C. A. work on the Isthmus of Panama, where four clubs are running, each under the direction of an experienced Y. M. C. A. secretary, paid by the Government; where ten or a dozen ministers are also employed by the Government with a plan intended to establish two or three more clubs, Mr. Taft remarked:

"It is possible we will be charged with having filched that money from the public Treasury. If we have, we have accomplished a good work with it. I think also the expenditure could be defended on strictly legal grounds. We have entered the Isthmus of Panama and introduced there some 50,000 souls.

Must Look After Morals. "Unless we take special pains to have their morality looked after, unless we furnish ministers, churches and Christian clubs, we are going to have such a saturation of evils, such demoralization that we will never build the canal. Hence, if we are to be impeached for spending that money it would be in a good cause."

Mr. Taft arrived here from Atlanta at 9 o'clock today. Fred W. Carpenter, who will accompany Mr. Taft to the White House, Secretary to the President, arrived here today from a vacation in California.

Harrison Leaves for Augusta.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—E. H. Harrison passed four hours in Washington today, and returned to Augusta, Ga., for the purpose of his visit. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 20 1907
Mess Ruder & Matthews
Marshfield Ore.
Dear Sirs:
I received your letter dated 10th inst. and it only took me last night to answer you.
I would like to see you as follows: with a copy of the deed.
I will be in your office with one of my family members on Monday morning at 10 o'clock.
I will be glad to see you at any time.

Senator Tillman

When the matter reaches the day of departure the Controller for your process (the deed for the land) will be prepared to sign the deed. I will have them signed without delay. I will have them signed without delay. I will have them signed without delay.

Mass applications have been filed in the land office. The deed is in the hands of the Controller. The deed is in the hands of the Controller. The deed is in the hands of the Controller.

This is a photographic copy of the letter written by Senator Tillman arranging for entry in the names of members of his family of certain pieces of land in Oregon, title to which was to be secured through a suit by the Government, the machinery of which Tillman was to start with a resolution in the Senate.

CIRCUITS TO FILL CABINET

Talk of Appointments From Bench for Taft's Official Family.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 17.—A story has been put in circulation in Washington, based, no doubt, on the judicial training of the President-elect, to the effect that the next Cabinet will be composed of nine men, one chosen from each Judicial Circuit. It is true that most Presidents have regarded geographical lines in making up their Cabinets, and Mr. Taft, by taking one man from each circuit, could recognize every section of the country. The only fault with this plan is that it would compel the appointment of two Southern men to the Cabinet, something very unusual in a Republican regime.

It is known that the first and third circuits will be represented in the Cabinet by Messrs. Hitchcock and Knox, respectively. If a New Yorker is appointed, the second circuit would likewise be represented. If the fourth circuit should be represented, it would have to be a man from Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia or the Carolinas. No man from that circuit has yet been mentioned for Cabinet office, except Congressman Slomp, of Virginia. Nor has any man from the fifth circuit been mentioned, this being entirely a Southern circuit.

Should Secretary Luke Wright remain in the Cabinet, he would represent the sixth circuit, as would an Oklaan. Under the arrangement named, but one Cabinet member could be chosen from Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, and those states each have possibilities. A man from the eighth circuit would represent the Mississippi Valley and Rocky Mountain region, while a Pacific Coast man would represent the ninth circuit.

SHIP AND SIX LOST

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—During a driving snowstorm this morning, the schooner Swallow, of St. Johns, N. E., went ashore off Long Island, and it is believed her crew of five or six men are lost. The beach east of Fire Island for several miles today was strewn with wreckage from the vessel.

At 2 o'clock this morning a beach man from the Blue Point life-saving station saw some black objects bobbing about in the tumbling surf close to shore. He hauled some of them in and finding it was new wreckage, hurried back to his station to secure aid. Other beachmen and Germany has felt the competition of the United States in various iron and steel products in Great Britain and in the Orient.

O'CONNELL TO MEET RILEY

SECURES MATCH WITH MAN OF OWN WEIGHT.

Articles Signed for Bout to Take Place in Portland on January 29.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Frank Riley, the Tacoma middleweight wrestler, has signed articles of agreement to meet Ed O'Connell, of the Portland Multnomah Club, in a match to be staged at the Exposition Rink in Portland, January 29. The men will meet for a side bet of $50.

The conditions are catch-as-catch-can, the best two out of three falls, pin falls only to count, and the strange-hold barred. Joe Aton, the old-time wrestler, will probably referee the bout. According to the articles of agreement O'Connell must weigh in at 150 pounds. Riley will probably tip the beam at a little over 140 pounds.

O'Connell has finally secured a match with a man of his own weight, and on January 29 the Multnomah Club instructor will meet Frank Riley, of Tacoma. Riley has posted a side bet of $50 which is also to go forfeit in case he does not make the weight specified. He is rated as one of the fastest youngsters in the wrestling business, and believes that he can beat O'Connell.
