Ex-Judge Accused of Cashing Check.

BONDS PLAGED AT $20,000

Warrant Issued in Spokane by by Great Northern's Order.

ASSERTS HE IS INNOCENT

Accused Will Leave for Spokane Today in Company of Deputy Sheriff-Prisoner Allowed to Spend Night at Home Under Guard.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 20 - (Special.) Former Judge M. J. Gordon was ar rested late tonight at his home in this city by Deputy Sheriff Long, of Spokane, on a telegraphic bench warrant,

The charge is embessiement and the amount is presumably $10,000, as it is nderstood the ball required is $20,000 or double the amount of the alleged embezzlement. Gordon refuses to make any statement except to say that he is Innocent and will leave with Deputy Long for Spokane at 3 o'clock Thursday He will spend the night at his home in custody of the deputy shariff.

It is reported that the warrant was out by some official of the Great Northern Railway at Spokane, but claiming President Hill testified before the Bar Association that Gordon's accounts had been audited and balanced and that there was no charge against

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 20 .- (Special. -Warrant for the arrest of M. J. Gorion, whose alleged chortage while Spo kane counsel for the Great Northern Rallroad Company and connection with the irregularities of Judge Milo A. Root led to the investigation by the State Bar Association committee and Judge Root's resignation from the State Supreme Court, was issued this morning by Judge J. D. Hinkle, of the Spokane

The warrant charges Mr. Gordon with embezzlement of $9000 from the Great Northern. The charge is bared on in formation filed in the Superior Court. Deputy Sheriff Clarence Long went to Tacoma today to bring Mr. Gordon to this city.

The charge of embessiement grew out of the suit of James Sparrow against the Great Northern for damages for personal Judgment was given by the Superior Court for $300 against the railroad, and a draft was drawn on the company by Gordon, which was indorsed by Numum & Numum, attorneys for Sparrow, and cashed by Gordon, At the same time Gordon delivered to Sparrow's attorneys a stipulation that the 20200 would be paid before August 31, 1908.

Before that time Gordon's connection with the Great Northern was severed. and when the stipulation was filed in the Federal Court the sum was paid by N. C. Giliman, general counsel of the Great Northern in Seattle.

In an interview tonight N. E. Nuzum, of the firm of Nuzum & Nuzum, said: "I understand the warrant was served this morning and that bond was fixed at $10,000. While I do not know that bond was furnished, I think there is little question that Judge Gordon could get bond to that amount in Tacoma."

One Week's Respite Granted in Face of Agitator's Fierce Assault on Roosevelt-Move to Demand Information Fails.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 20 .- Con sideration of the bills denying to Japa nese to own American land or to b directors of corporations, was delayed for one week by the Assembly this morning at the request of President Roosevelt and Governor Gillett.

When these measures came up on s special order, Preston, of Mendocino offered a resolution request ing the President to furnish the Legislature with all documents and data in ossesion of the Federal authorities bearing upon the Japanese situation. This was declared to be out of order. Then Drew moved that his bill denying Japanese the right to own land be made a special order for a week from

Grove I. Johnson, author of the directors' bill, opposed postponement in an impassioned speech, declaring that the request of the President for delay neant nothing to the Legislature, as the Governor had not seen fit to transmit it to the Assembly through a special message and no such request was before the House. He said that the Japanese were increasing in numbers natead of decreasing, as stated by the President, and there was urgent de-He, for one, would not give up the fight against Washington's inter-

Working in Wooden Crib Mile Off Shore in Frozen Lake, Over 100 Men Are Burned, Stifled or Frozen to Death.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20 .- (Special.) -- Sixty nen were killed and 48 terribly injured in an explosion at the crib, one mile out in Lake Michigan, this morning. The men were isolated on a narrow ledge without boats, and the survivors had the choice of remaining and burning to death. leaping into the lake, which was thickly filled with ice hummocks, or smothering in the tunnel leading to shore and which mmediately filled with deadly gas.

Those who were not too hadly stunned prang into the lake and fought with the ice until tugs arrived. Some were saved, but others perished. Many men were thrown out of bed by the explosion and clung to blocks of ice, their only clothing being thin nightshirts. The resuers found them benumbed and insane and some of them fought their rescuers in their delirium. Some of the escapes were marvelous. Those who could not swim swung by ropes over the sides of the crib, but the flames ate through the ropes and they dropped to death. Many the explosion and burned to death inside the crib.

Burned, Frozen to Ice-Floes,

Horrible scenes were witnessed by the escuers. Stark naked, gibbering men, with their bodies fearfully burned, were found frozen to ice floes and, when they were lifted off, strips of their flesh tore off and remained on the lee.

One mile away on shore was assembled an immense crowd of people, including relatives of the unfortunates at the crib Helpless, shricking, hysterical or dumb with horror, were groups of women and children. News of the cutastrophe spread almost as quickly as the flames themselves and the shore for blocks was lined
