CITY NEWS IN BRIEF appearance yesterday, and is up to the former high standard established early in the life of the paper. "The Silent De-tective," by the "Quillers," the Writers' Club, is the opening story, and is sure to hold the attention of the reader from start to close. Credit is given the Writers' Club for the story. Several other contributions from the "Quillers" indicate that the new High School club is doing some work. It is noted that a school orchestra has been organized. Editorially the loss of Hawthorne Park to the city is deplored. The usual notices of the Eukrineon and Phrenodikens so-cieties are given, showing the activity of the school. It is noted that Harry Abbott, former business manager for the Lens, has received an appointment to Ann-apolis. Naval Academy, and has left for Washington. D. C. His place has been taken by Delbert Standard. The next number of the Lens will be given up to the February graduating class of the East Side High School, and will be a large edition, with Illustrations. Dimocarm Financasy 22-Orient Lodge, C. E. results will be gratifying. Locally the sale was somewhat of a disappointment as it had been hoped that a larger sum would be neited. It had been planned to establish an open air camp for tubercular patients. The amount derived, however, will be in-sufficient for this purpose and that por-tion of the plan will have to be aban-doned. The money will be used to re-lleve the sufferers from the white plague who are unable to provide funds for who are unable to provide funds for proper care and treatment.

A portion of the money will also be used to conduct a campaign of educa-tion as to ways and means of preventing inoculation and as to the proper course to be pursued in caring for tuberculosis cases. Meetings will be held later at which a final disposition of the fund will
