REPORT DEALS WITH CASE

Fairness to Shippers Made Keynote of Recommendation for Bill Providing for Freight

Advances.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash ington, Jan. 27 - The Interstate Commerce Commission, notwithstanding the adverse attitude of the Senate committee on interstate commerce, stands by the Fulton bill prohibiting the advance in any freight rate without the consent of the Commission. In its annual report a year ago the Commission, for the first time, recommended legislation of this character, and in its latest annual report, made public a few days ago, the old recommendation is renewed. "In our last annual report," says the ission, "attention was called to the fact that this Commission had no au-thority to restrain an advance in rates or a change in rule or regulation which imposes an additional burden. Railways may establish whatever interstate rates they choose. No proceeding can be be-gun before this Commission until the gun before this Commission until the schedule establishing the rate has been filed. The order of the Commission, when made, can not take effect in less than 10 days. If the investigation is to be one in reality as well as in name, if all parties are to be fully heard as they should be, several weeks, and usually several months must elapse before a conclusion resulting in an order can be reached. Meantime the rate established by the carrier remains in eftablished by the carrier remains in ef-"No carrier should be required to reduce its rates without a fair hearing; ing a f neither, in our opinion, should the pub-lie be required to pay advanced rates without opportunity for a fair hearing. "We renew our recommendation of one year ago that the Commission be given authority to restrain the advance of a rate or change of a rule, regulation or practice pending proceedings before it to determine the reasonableness of the advance or change, and we carnestly call attention to the necessity for immediate action.

mediate action.

There can be no question as to the earnestness of the recommendation of the Commission, nor can there be any question as to the application of the foregoing language to the Fulton bill, recently reported adversely through the trickery of Senator Elkins, Nevertheless, when a big committee like that on in-terstate commerce will publicly resort to dishonest and unfair means to blacken n bit of legislation of the character of the Fulion bill in question, there is little doubt but what the same committee, dominated by the influence of the great railroad corporations of the country, will utterly disregard the recommendations of the Interstate Commerce Commission and sidetrack the Fulton bill or any similar measure that may be proposed.

ERUPTION CHANGES MOUNT

Volcano of Lagnas Now Totally Different in Form.

MANILA, Jan. 22.-The reconnaissance parties of the constabulary sent out to investigate the effects of the recent crup-tion of the crater of Lagnas report that the resulting flood was so great that the entire side of the mountain has been ren-dered so precipitous that they were un-able to approach the top to ascertain the cause of the outburst. In cutting away the sides of the mountain the flood which accompanied the eruption carried im-mense boulders down the ravines. The Governor estimates the loss in damage to property, bridges and roads to be under $50,000. The volcano is again quiet.

Special Agents Must Help Honest Entrymen.

SENATOR BORAH ACTIVE

Under Hitchcock Regime Entrymen Were Harassed, but Garfield Gives Them Benefit of Doubt.

All Aid Possible Given Them.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washngton, Jan. 22.-Secretary Garfield has received many complaints from Western Senators and Congressmen about the manner in which land office special agents have harassed entrymen who have been endeavoring honestly to acquire title to public lands. One of the most vigorous protestants has been Senator Borah, of Idaho, who has cited specific instances in which special agents have not only failed to carry out instructions with ref-erence to assisting honest settlers, but have gone to the extreme of undertaking to dispossess settlers, without authority of the interior Department. He also cited instances where special agents, continuing along the lines in vogue under Scoretary Hitchcock, had done their utmost to discredit honest settlers who were making every endeavor to comply with the law.

Illinois Has Seen Other Notable

Struggles in Past. CHICAGO, Jan. 22.-(Special.)-Illinois is the home of Senatorial deadlock. The Legislative blockade that now impedes Senator Hopkins' desire to make his little journey from Washington a round trip, adds but another to the state's record of endurance contests. The deadlock which takes historic pr dence is that which fied the 34th Gen-eral Assembly into a sailor's knot and kept the strands taunt from February 10 until May 19, 1885, then yielding only to the hand of death, abetted by unpar-alleled political strategy.

When the break finally came, John A. Logan was returned to the capital to, serve a third Senatorial term.

For all that, more than three months retary Hitchcock, had done their utmost to discredit honest settlers who were making every endeavor to comply with the law.

Secretary Garfield has specifically stated that special agents are not to place obstacles in the path of honest entry-men but must render them all recommendations. The first months are months and 188 ballots were taken by the houses of the Legislature, in joint session. In this respect its record was broken in the Palmer-Oglesby Senatorial fight of 1891. That class hasted only until March II, but it was the 184th hallot that award. II, but it was the listh ballot that awarded the prize to John M. Palmer. Perhaps the former Governor of Illinois merited that fortuitious cast of the die, for in 1877 he was a principal in a similar struggle and lost out. So was Logan, for that matter. Only 40 hallots were taken then, but the severely dealt with as he would have been under Secretary Hitchcook. The latter, however, instructed his special agents to proceed on the theory that Nevertheless, it is framed along lines popular with believers in the conservation policy, and if reintroduced, may be pressed to passage at the next Congress. Because of his position as chairman of the public lands committee Senator Nelson is able to press his bill to an early consideration, and perhaps to an early report, but he will not be able to get it to a vote in the Senate before March 4.
