NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT.

Writer Would Keep Latter at Salem, Instead of Portland.

PORTLAND, Jan. 24.—(To the Editor.)—
Notleting a communication in The Oragentan in which chims are made that the proper place for the State Pair is at Portlend, I should like to ask on what grounds such claims are, or can be made? It is my understanding that the Oregon State Pair is for the benefit of the farmers and the farming district in general. That is, the exhibits are mostly made by the farming classes of their agricultural, stock, poulity and dairy products, at least from the exhibition of grains, grasses, vegetables, cattle, sheep, hous, horses, poulity, butter, etc. Now such being the case, where do the majority of exhibitors "hall" from? Are they from Portland or vicinity? Or geographically, is Portland centrally located? According to the map, it does not so show up. True, Eastern Muinomah can "put up" a presty fine exhibit in this class, but that does not signify that all the other districts should come to it.

It would be an injustice to the greatest number of Oregon people and to the farmers wives and children in particular, to move the State Pair from Salem to Portland. As it is, and in its present location at Salem, the Fair is located where hundreds of farmers can go and spend two or times dars with their families, and others PORTLAND, Jan. 24 - (To the Editor.)- at salem, the Fair is located where hundreds of farmers can go and spend two or three days with their families, and others even camp there for a week. It also makes a break in the monotonous farm life of the wives and daughters.

Let the whole State of Oregon act as a purity and work for the Minte Pair at Sale.

unit and work for the State Pair at Salem, and go on with the fine start already made and go on with the fine start already made in improvements and enlargements of building, during the past two years. Let it not be forn assuder and injured by disfaution and strife by trying to move it to a quarter of the state that is anything but central suff practically local, so far as an agricultural fair is considered. Let Portland be satisfied with the fine fair of the Grangers of Mulnomah County at Gresham, and take pride in it, but let the State Fair remain where it is at present.
