SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Graduation Exercises at High School Next Week. EXAMINATIONS ABOUT OVER Today Will See Last of Tests, and Teachers Are Already at Work Marking Papers—About 600 Finish Grammar Grade.

Today will see the last of the term's final examinations in the city high schools. Teachers are already busy correcting examination papers.

The graduation exercises at the West Side High School will be held next Wednesday evening. Owing to the arrangement of courses of the first four-year basis, the graduation class is a comparatively small one—33 in number.

The graduates will be addressed by Dr. Benjamin Young of the First Methodist Episcopal Church; and the diplomas will be presented by H. Wittenberg, chairman of the School Board.

At the East Side High School there is a class of 12 to receive diplomas on Thursday evening, February 4. This is the last of the classes taken in when the school was first organized.

The programme for Thursday evening is as follows: Vocal solo, Stuart McGuire; address, by Dr. Luther R. Dyott, of the First Congregational Church; music by the Girls' Chorus Club of 150 voices, conducted by Mrs. Rose Cousins Reed; presentation of diplomas by H. Wittenberg.

addition to this, Gadske's enunciation of English is remarkably good. Her famous Brunnhilde number, "Gottterdammerung," will be given, besides love-songs from all nations by those who have just won for themselves an enduring place on the heights of music as an expression of that divinest of all passions—Brahms, Schubert, Grieg, Haydn, Arne, Reichardt, Young, and youngest of all the love-composers, Frank La Forge, the gifted young American, whose presence at the piano adds fascinating novelty to the scene. Several of his songs will be sung by Gadske.
