California Senate Committee Says Bill Should Not Pass After Hearing Defense of Sport by Jockey Club Men.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 28.—The Senate public morals committee decided in executive session late tonight to report back to the Senate without amendment tomorrow the Walker-Otis anti-racetrack bill with the recommendation that it do not pass.

Thomas H. Williams, president of the New California Jockey Club, which operates the racetrack at Emeryville, in addressing the committee on public morals tonight, started the assembled legislators and the auditors who crowded the galleries of the Senate chamber by declaring that in the last 25 years more crimes had been committed in the United States and Canada by ministers of the gospel than by any other class. As he spoke he waved a paper-bound book.

"I have the record here," he cried. "There are 4000 of them, and they have committed crimes of every description, including murder and train robbery."

Criminal Influence of Races.

Prior to making the foregoing declaration, Mr. Williams' anger had been aroused by several questions put by advocates of the bill in dispute, who asked him what he had to say in regard to the "criminal influence of the racetrack."

Among the questioners was Arthur Letts, a Los Angeles miller, fire man, and president of the Anti-Racetrack Gambling League of Southern California.

"Would you be in this business if it were not for the profits in it?" asked Mr. Letts.

"That's none of your business," replied Mr. Williams.

Chairman Weed gave Senator Hartman the floor.

"I am for racing," said Mr. Hartman. "If this is to be my political death knell, toll your bells. I don't want to come here any more."

No Gambling, No Racing.

The speech of Mr. Williams occupied a half hour. In part he said:

"Without gambling racing will cease. It won't work without the element of chance any more than the real estate or any other business. It is the love of gain that supports every business. If you curb that, you ruin the trade of the world. If you stop the racetrack, you will have prohibition the next trip and the Sunday-rest law the next trip, and so on ad lib.

"Are we going to say that England, Russia, Germany, France and other great nations know nothing? They have decided that racing was one of the greatest features of their national life—I mean the improvement of the breed of thoroughbreds.

Only Increases Handbooks.

"Close the racetracks in California and tomorrow you will increase the number of poolrooms and handbooks. That has been the case in Chicago and New York and many other cities where gambling is prohibited. You can't control gambling in Canada and you can't stop the telegraph wires."

Senator Leavitt interrupted to ask regarding the operation of the Hughes law in New York. Mr. Williams handed Mr. Leavitt the affidavit of a citizen of New York to the effect that there were over 50 handbooks there and many more book shops than ever before. Mr. Williams then concluded:

Challenge to Spreckels.

"I wish to make an announcement here in public about a gentleman who has declared he is against racetrack gambling. Rudolph Spreckels has stated that he favors restricted gambling. If he thinks he can get along without gambling, I am willing to give him one of my tracks. I defy him to restrict gambling any more than I have done and am doing."

Barney Schreiber, who called himself the second largest breeder of thoroughbred horses in the world and has raced horses and made books on racetracks all over the United States for 20 years, defended the racing game.

He said there were 200 persons employed at Emeryville and Arcadia and asked:

"If you legislate us out of business, what will become of these people?"

Speakers in support of the bill argued that betting on horse races was corrupting the public and responsible for thousands of cases of embezzlement.

Accident on Western Pacific Is Hushed Up Though General Manager Is Injured.

TRUCKEE, Cal., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Word has been received here of a serious collision between two trains on the Boca Loyalton branch of the Western Pacific Railway, several days ago. Orders issued by higher officials to train crews for secrecy regarding the affair have kept the story from becoming public sooner. On account of heavy snows trains were being run over the road between Loyalton and Boca frequently to keep the track clear. One train, with Superintendent Stansbury at the throttle, he having desired to inspect the road during the heavy snow, was backing down to Loyalton. Two heavy locomotives with a snowplow ahead were also bound for Loyalton, and on rounding a sharp curve crashed into Stansbury's engine, 1000 feet from town.

The engine crews jumped into the snow beside the track and were saved, but General Manager Otis sustained injuries that will confine him to his room. The snowplow was wrecked, one locomotive capsized, and the other was badly damaged, the road being blocked for some time. Conflicting orders are blamed for the accident.

WILL NOT RIDE WITH TAFT

Roosevelt Not to Usher Successor Into White House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—President Roosevelt will not follow the custom and ride back to the White House, March 4, with his successor in office. He told a New York congressman today that he would go direct from the Capitol, after President-elect Taft takes the oath of office, to the Union Station and take a train for New York. The President's purpose was made known in accepting an invitation of the New York County Committee to be allowed to act as his personal escort on the train from the Capitol to the depot. This invitation was presented by Representatives Parsons, Bennett and Olcott, of New York.

The County Committee will have 500 members in line. They will form a part of the great parade to the Capitol, will go with the ex-President to the train and return to their places in line on the return march.

Charles Powell Kills Homer Roper Near Brownsville.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—As the result of a quarrel that arose at a country dance three miles west of Brownsville, Charles Powell shot and killed Homer Roper at midnight last night. The dance was held at the Leach farm and it is thought the young men quarreled over a girl.

After a dispute in the dance hall the young men went outside and Powell shot Roper, who died within a few minutes. News of the crime was received in Albany early this morning and Sheriff Smith and Coroner Miller left for the scene. It is not known whether or not Powell surrendered.

BREAKWATER IS DISABLED

Hits Dock to Avoid Collision and Breaks Steering Gear.

In tow of the steamer Harvest Queen, the steamship Breakwater, which sailed for Coos Bay ports Wednesday night, arrived back at the Almsworth dock last night in a crippled condition. The Breakwater will be placed on the drydock today. Her steering gear is so badly disabled that the craft is unmanageable.

At 2 o'clock yesterday morning, while opposite Brookfield, the pilot of the Breakwater discovered the French bark Rochambeau at anchor in the channel. He ordered the anchor let go in order to avoid a collision. The Breakwater swung around with the tide and her stern collided with the Brookfield dock. The rudder post was smashed and the steamship rendered unmanageable.

Details of the capture are lacking, owing to the distance inland at which the captures took place. The older men were evidently heading up Willow Creek toward Baker City. The Sheriff and his prisoners are expected to reach Ontario or Vale tomorrow.

Throttling of Competition by Trust Was Reported by Earle to President and Bonaparte Made Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Responding to Senator Culberston's resolution calling on Attorney-General Bonaparte for correspondence relating to the alleged violation of the Sherman law by the sugar trust, in connection with the failure of the Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia, President Roosevelt sent to the Senate today a special message and correspondence relating to the case. The President said:

Freeze-Out by Sugar Trust.

"In accordance with my direction the Attorney-General has forwarded to me the enclosed papers in response to the resolution of the Senate of January 22, 1909, in reference to sending to the Senate copies of all correspondence in the Department of Justice relating to an alleged violation of the act of July 2, 1890, by the American Sugar Refining Company, in connection with an alleged loan by that company to one Segal, in which was pledged as security thereof a majority of the capital stock of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company, with voting power thereon, and under which, it is alleged, an agreement was entered into that the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company should not engage in business, and I herewith transmit them to the Senate."

The message was ordered printed and to lie on the table. It is said Mr. Culberston will call it up later.

In his letter to the President, transmitting the correspondence, Mr. Bonaparte wrote:

"I am aware of no reason why the papers should not be made public."

Many Letters From Earle.

The correspondence includes a large number of letters passing between G. H. Earle, Jr., receiver for the Real Estate Trust Company, which failed in 1906, and the President; between Mr. Earle and Attorney-General Moody and between Mr. Earle and Mr. Bonaparte. Mr. Earle first wrote Mr. Roosevelt, under date of September 21, 1906, and suggested that he may have been misled as to the most potent cause for the company's failure.

Motion to Make Carter's Brother-in-Law Refund Salary.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 28.—A sensation was caused in the Legislature today when Representative Hall introduced a resolution setting forth that a brother-in-law of Senator Carter, had illegally drawn $12,000 from the State Treasury for salary and expenses when he was not entitled to take the oath of office because he was under 30 years of age, the constitutional limit for that office. The resolution demands the return of the money.

ROOSEVELT WANTS IDEAS CONFIRMED

REASON FOR TAFT'S TRIP TO PANAMA GIVEN.

President Would Be Sure Lock-Level Construction Is Best Before Term Expires.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Word has come from Washington to the office here of James D. Schuyler, one of the engineers bound for Panama with President-elect Taft, explaining President Roosevelt's much-discussed purpose in having the trip of inspection made.

The adoption of lock level construction in place of sea level construction took place during the Roosevelt administration. Recently there has been much adverse criticism of the lock level plan, many engineers alleging that the foundation for the monster Gatun dam is insecure, some even asserting that the present plan of canal construction is one immense engineering blunder.

The President, by sending a board of eight of the foremost engineers in the United States to report upon the respective merits of the lock and sea level types, will receive a final competent opinion before he retires from office. Should the board report in favor of the lock level, criticism will be silenced. On the other hand, should they agree with some critics in pronouncing the sea level plan the only practicable one, Roosevelt will have ample opportunity to correct the error before he becomes powerless.

WIFE HIS PUNCHING BAG

Louisiana Cotton Man Accused of Fiehellish Acts of Cruelty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—In granting a divorce to Mrs. Alice E. Hall, wife of W. R. Hall, a Louisiana cotton broker, Judge Graham said today that the tale of the husband's cruelties as recited by Mrs. Hall was the most shocking he had heard in many years of divorce-court work.

Mrs. Hall said that, while she was living with Hall in a cottage at the edge of a swamp two miles out of Alexandria, La., her husband repeatedly fastened her to a ceiling beam with a rope and, as she swung thus, head downward, beat her face and head unmercifully, as a boxer in training rains blows on a punching-bag. He wore gloves during the process in order to protect his hands from injury.

Not content with this, Hall, his wife declared, took her out on the swamp in a small boat at night and, after compelling her to disrobe, forced her to jump into the water and swim to a tree, where she clung, naked and shivering, until he chose to return for her.

The Hills were married two years ago in Oakland, where Mrs. Hall's mother lives. Hall is in Louisiana and allowed the proceedings to go by default.

MINISTER ON SHEET ROPE

Locked in With Bridal Couple, Makes Spectacular Escape.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Pedestrians in the neighborhood of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Lawrence in the suburb of Green Lake last evening might have been astonished to see a man descend hand-over-hand from the third story on a rope made of bed sheets.

It was Rev. M. A. Matthews, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and the leading minister of the city. He had invited United States Attorney and Miss Dora Gunn in the holy bonds of matrimony a few minutes before. The ceremony over, it was found that the doors of the house were locked. A crowd of charivariers had crept up, and with wire and rope fastened every door and even fastened the windows on the lower floor, compelling the minister to adopt the undignified means of escape.

Weider, establishing the fact that the child died from the effects of eating candy from a box of sweets-meats which the father found at his gatepost, addressed to his home, but lacking the name of the sender. The candy tasted bitter and none but the little child would eat it, she dying almost immediately.

Strychnine was found in the candy also. Weider lost another child in a similar manner a year ago.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—A vigorous fight against the indorsement of Gifford Pinchot's administration of the Forest Service culminated in the final session of the American National Livestock Association. It was waged by half a dozen delegates who were members of the Colorado Cattle & Horse-growers' Association, led by ex-Senate Senator E. M. Ammons, of Littleton, Colo., and Congressman-elect Frank M. Taylor, of that state, and resulted in their defeat.

Colorado Men on Warpath.

The fight of Mr. Ammons to represent the sentiment of his state as opposed to Federal land control was championed by Vice-President Mackenzie, of Trinidad, Colo., but he showed that the Colorado Cattle & Horse-growers' Association had so voted. He was asked by Mr. Mackenzie if a number of Colorado organizations of stockmen of Colorado had not withdrawn from the parent organization on account of that stand, but he replied that but three had withdrawn and four others had since joined. Mr. Taylor declared that Mr. Ammons correctly represented the sentiment of the state and asserted with explicit that "the policies of Mr. Pinchot had brought irreparable injury to the industries of Colorado."

Federal land control was favored by several delegates led by ex-United States Senator Joseph M. Carey, of Wyoming, who maintained that the policy of the present National administration had proved of inestimable advantage to the whole Western country. The substitute resolution offered by Mr. Ammons was overwhelmingly voted down.

The resolutions as reported from committee by Mr. Carey, the chairman, were adopted by a practically unanimous vote.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE AGAIN REBUFFED

CALIFORNIA HOUSE VOTES AFTER STUBBORN FIGHT.

Amendment Lost by Close Margin After Vigorous Struggle and Many Personalities.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 28.—The amendment to the constitution enfranchising women, which Representative Groves L. Johnson proposed for submission to the people at the next election, was defeated in the Assembly today by a vote of 29 to 37, after the most stubborn struggle of the session. Roll was called shortly before 4 o'clock this afternoon. From 11 o'clock until that hour, with the exception of a short recess at the champions of the fair sex used every argument in their power to sway the necessary two-thirds vote to carry the measure, and their opponents presented equally vigorous arguments.

Many personalities were indulged in by both sides and the women who crowded the galleries hung over the fallings in the breathless interest, the debate developed into a whirlwind of contention. George M. Perkins, of San Francisco, one of the spokesmen for the opposition, said:

"I am against this measure because I do not believe that our wives, our mothers and our sisters wish, nor should they, the privilege of rubbing elbows at the polls with depraved women and dope fiends. It is the duty of all men to protect their women from such influences. Manly men will not make it possible for their daughters to stand shoulder to shoulder at the ballot box with fallen women."

CHILE AND PERU QUARREL

Relations Ruptured and Memories of Last War Revived.

VALPARAISO, Chile, Jan. 28.—The rupture of diplomatic relations between Chile and Peru, signified by the withdrawal of Senor J. M. Echiquie, the Chilean Minister at Lima, has aroused more or less excitement here, and the old animosity between the two countries, dating back to the war of 1879 and the consequent acquisition of the Peruvian Provinces of Tacna and Arica by Chile, have, to a certain measure, been revived.

It is declared here today that the Chilean squadron under Admiral Wilson, now in the Strait of Magellan, has been ordered north.

The difficulty between Chile and Peru came to general notice when the Peruvian government, a few months ago, refused to permit Chile, represented by Senor Echiquie, to place a tablet on the monument erected by Peru to the memory of her soldiers who lost their lives in the war of 1879. Senor Echiquie was then recalled. The controversy is entirely diplomatic and has not yet assumed a serious character.
