U'CONNELL POSTS $500 FOR MATCH

Case of "Put Up or Shut Up" for Dan Sullivan, Montana Wrestler.

TEN DAYS TO COVER BET

Multnomah Instructor Says He Is Ready to Make It $2000 or $3000 and Includes Host of

BY W. J. PETRAIN.

Wrestler Dan Sullivan's cherished desire to mest Edite O'Conneil, the Muitnomah Club's grappling instructor, who has won every match he has so far en-tered in Portland, is shout to be gratified. That is, it will be gratified if Sullivan can make good his statement that he can cover O'Connell's money in a few

Just to show Sullivan that he was Just to show Sullivan that he was ready to meet any man from the middle-weight limit down, Eiddle O'Conneil yesterday posted 1500 to bind a match with Sullivan, and if Montana Daniel can post a similar sum, and he says he can, the next bout before a Portland audience will be between these two rival chalmants for the title of middleweight champion

'I'll give Sullivan ten days to cover my $500," said O Connell yesterday after-noon, "Still I reserve the right to make a match with any other wrestler who covers the bet before he does, and this offer goes for 'Strangler' Smith or any of the many who are claiming I cannot throw them. If they are slocere, let them cover this money, and if they want a higher sum I am ready to post $2000 or $3000 at any time."

success of O'Connell in drawing good houses at the old game seems to have brought a veritable deluge of wrestlers of good, bad and indifferent reputation to the Northwest. "Kid" Parker, "Kid" Davis, "Strangler" Smith, W. H. West, Dan Sullivan, Joe Heinrich, Joe La Salle, Frank Riley, John Berg, Charles Franklin, B. F. Roller, several of whom O'Conneil has already met, and others, are anxious to meet the Multinomah Club man. good houses at the old game seems to nomah Club man.

Joe Heinrich, who wrestled O'Connell here in December, is giving out daily interviews at his home town, Spekane, to the effect that he can defeat O'Connell several times in one hour, providing he will be allowed to wreetle at his own weight. Joe wants the match to take place in Spokane, and professes to have written to O'Connell on the subject. However, the Portland wrestling fans were not very much impressed with Heinrich's wrestling ability when he met O'Connell the last time, and if they are matched for a return contest it would be just as well to have the bout sake place in Spekane, for the fans here want give him a good battle.

"Strangler" Smith's Plaint.

'Strangler" Smith is crying about not receiving fair consideration at the hands of O'Conneil. Smith had one chance at the Mulinomah instructor and did not show any great promise as being half as ood a man as O'Connell, except that he ossesses greater physical strength, but in latter day wrestling a man must have much more of science than Smith is believed to possess. As a strong, husky fellow he has few equals of his weight in the country, and if he really thinks he has a chance with his recent, conqueror, all that remains for him to do is to post the sum of $500 to cover the money deposited by O'Connell with Eddie Deitrich at Schiller's cigar store. John Berg, the light heavyweight wrestler, who claims to have O'Connell's consent to a handleap match to take place some time in March or April, is also negotiating for a match with Franklin, of Seattle, and as they are about the same weight, they should furnish a good bout. Whether the match shall take place in Portland or Seattle is immaterial to Berg, although he has offered to meet the Seattle man here. As Dr. Roller in Franklin's manager, and has a prejudice against Portland, he will probably insist on the bout being held in

HALEY WANTS RETURN MATCH

Chicago Wrestler Says He Was Not in Condition When He Met Frank.

Johnny Haley, the clever little wrestler from the Illinois Athletic Club of Chiwith Edgar Frank, the champion of the Multinomah Citib and the Pacific Coast, who defeated him recently.

Haley believes that if he secures a return match with Frank he will be able to vindicate himself, for he says he was unable to get himself into good condi-tion at the time he met Frank before, as he arrived in Portland only the day before the match.

Haley is one of the squarest little fellows who ever appeared in Portland, and is anxious to show the people what he can do when he has had the benefit of proper training. He declares that when he went against Edgar Frank the last time he was overweight, and proes to make 130 pounds or less in the event that he secures a return match.

Edgar Frank expressed himself as agreeable to a return match with Haley. As he is the best little man who ever went on a mat on the Pacific Coast, his many friends would like to see him meet Haley sgain, for the match could not be otherwise than a most interesting

WANTS FIGHT WITH JOHNSON

"Soldier" Tom Wilson, Actor and ex-Pug, Will Post $1000.

"Soldier" Tom Wilson is a name not very familiar now to the fistle fans, for only those who have followed the game closely recognize it at first hearing. Probably his greatest bid for pugillatic fame was his record as sparring partner with Robert Fizzimmons when the famous Australian was preparing for his battles with James J. Jeffries.

Aside from his ring experience, Wilson will be more readily remembered by the theater-going public as "Silent" Murphy, the great center of the football team in the "College Wildow." As the big, burly backerith who was preparable upon to COLUMBIAS AND MULTNOMARS MEET NEXT SATURDAY.

Contest at Opening of Season Resulted in 3-to-9 Victory for Winged M. Clubmen.

After being bottled up for three months, waiting the proper time when they could be turned loose on the Multnomah Club soccer team, the strong Columbias face their chance next Saturday on Multnomah field, when the rival It will have been over four season. It will have been over four months since there teams came together. On October 3, the opening game of the city league season, Multnomah beat the Columbias, 3 to 0, but that match is no criterion of the probable result next Saturday, because the Columbias had scarcely organized at that early period. Since then Multnomah has won all its games, but so have the Columbias, and the two clash Saturday with a clean record on the clubmen's side and a clean one since the first game for the Columbias.

The Columbias have had only eight goals scored on them in their seven fixtures since September, including the three Multnomah secured at the outset. Against opposing teams this dangarous eleven has plied up 20 tallies, an unusually good showing in the soccer way of counting things. Several of its crack men, such as Hayfling, Dr. Short, the captain, Chaills, Mckay, Alex Toung, J. K. Mackle, Burns and one or two others have made good local reputations.

There is great interest at Multnomah over the game because if the club team chances to win, it will have gone through its first league season without dropping a match, having won seven straight
