HELEN'S WED AGAIN

Maloney-Osborn Knot Tied by Roman Church This Time.

END OF SPIRITED ROMANCE

Philadelphia Society Bud Had Married Before, Then Elope; Later Had Marriage Annulled. Now Remarried.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—Miss Helen Maloney, of this city, and Arthur Herbert Osborn, of New York, were married today by Rev. Stephen M. Lyons at St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church, Spring Lake, N. J.; where Martin Maloney, father of the bride, has a summer home. The above action on the part of Miss Maloney and Osborn is taken with the full sanction of the church.

The marriage marks the culmination of an international romance. It began in October, 1897, when the social world was startled by the announcement that Helen Maloney had eloped from her father's beautiful summer home at Springlake, N. J., with Samuel P. Clarkson, of London, who had been a guest at the Maloney home.

For a time after the elopement, the young couple were missing, but Mr. Maloney finally located them in Europe and brought his daughter back home. In the meantime the discovery was made that Miss Maloney had gone through a marriage ceremony with Arthur Herbert Osborn, of New York, who was then a student at Princeton University. The ceremony uniting Miss Maloney and Mr. Osborn was performed by Justice of the Peace Boyd, at Mamaroneck, N. Y., on December 23, 1896.

All of this made a newspaper sensation when it became known, but the Maloney family maintained silence. It was known, however, that Mr. Maloney, who had been highly honored by Pope Leo XIII, who conferred upon him the title of Marquis, took up the question of the annulment of the marriage, both at Rome and at the archdiocese of the Catholic Church in this city. Finally action was begun in the New York courts looking to the annulment of Miss Maloney's marriage to Osborn. The annulment was granted on the ground that they had never lived together. Miss Ma-

CALLS CASE SPITE

Mrs. Dunphy Says Giles Suit Is One of Pique.

REFUSED TO MARRY HIM

Defendant Takes Stand and Says Money-Lender Made Advances to Her and Threatened to Tell Her Husband.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Martha Maybelle Dunphy, wife of a prominent Boston physician, on trial charged with stealing $5000 worth of diamonds and securities from Charles B. Giles, well-known broker of Boston, today took the witness stand in her own behalf. The defendant denied having stolen the property, which is alleged to have disappeared while she was staying at the Great Northern Hotel with Giles last October, and asserted that the prosecution was the result of her refusal to marry him.

Mrs. Dunphy said she had once assumed the name of Mamie Jireaux, when she had occasion to pawn a bracelet and did not want her real name on the ticket. She said that Giles stole the ticket from her and returned the bracelet to her when they were in Montana.

Mrs. Dunphy said she went to Buffalo from San Francisco, where her father owned a mill and a hotel. She said she first met Giles last April, when she answered an advertisement in a Boston paper.

She went to his office to borrow $50, she testified. She secured this amount and gave as security a mortgage on her household furniture. She left with him 40 shares of stock in her husband's business. She was to pay Giles $3 a week until she had paid up $100, she asserted. Some payments were made to Giles. Other small loans for which jewelry was given as security were made.

"Did Giles ever make any advances to you?"

"Yes. He attempted to force his attentions on me several times. He told me that unless I would do as he said I would tell my husband of the loans I had made."

Mrs. Dunphy testified that she told Mr. Giles that she was going to Butte, Mont.,

ALLOWS COPPER COMBINE

Federal Court Declares Calumet Can Control Osceola Mine.

PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY BUD HAD MARRIED BEFORE, THEN ELOPE; LATER HAD MARRIAGE ANNULLED. NOW REMARRIED.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 2.—The charges of Alfred S. Bigelow that the attempt of the Calumet & Hecla Company to vote a large block of stock in the Osceola Consolidated Mining Company a year ago was an act in restraint of trade, denied by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today, the decision of the lower court in dismissing his suit being affirmed. Mr. Bigelow, who is a resident of Boston and a stockholder in both companies, brought two suits, but they had been dismissed by Judge Peckham of the Western District of Michigan and his decision to that effect was today sustained.

Justice Horace H. Lurton read the decision of the Court of Appeals. It was held that no unlawful act or intent had been shown; that the proposed voting of Osceola stock, legally held by the Calumet & Hecla, was strictly according to the laws of Michigan; and that neither the Michigan anti-monopoly law nor the Sherman anti-trust law had any bearing on the case. In brief, the act complained of was an attempt to handle two contiguous mines for mutual benefit and in no sense had it been shown that there was any restraint of commerce between the states or any act tending to a monopoly in the product of the mines. The Court declared that there had been produced no evidence of unlawful act or unlawful intent.

BOSTON, Feb. 2.—Today's decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati in the Osceola-Calumet & Hecla litigation leaves the control of the Osceola Company in the hands of the Calumet & Hecla. The contest in over the possession of 22,571 shares of Osceola, bought by the Calumet & Hecla Company about two years ago. The case will probably be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. If this is done, the adjudication may not be reached for two years.

PIANO LOGIC

If we advertise to sell you a piano today for $223.00 that was $446.00 yesterday, would you not think the man who paid $446 was wronged?

We have no reason for offering a $400.00 piano for $200.00. Values do not fluctuate in this way. Our $400.00 values are worth $400.00. Our $200.00 piano is worth $200.00. Why should you pay twice as much as your neighbor pays for the same article?

Visit our store—every piano marked in plain figures. Every figure is right. Every piano worth what the figures say. It is worth something to know the value is right. It is no mistake to buy where you get "An Honest Piano at an Honest Price."
