Admiral Sperry, after considering the report of the Rear-Admiral, decided upon a court-martial and appointed the members. The head of the court is Rear-Admiral Seaton schroeder and Major Dion Williams, of the Marine Corps, is Judge Advocate. The court will meet on board one of the battleships tomorrow.

Captain Tualtrough denies the charge. Captain Tualtrough denies the charge.

His defense will be that fatigue was responsible for his appearance; that he was under a heavy strain during the last rin of his vessel on account of rough weather; that on the day of the reception he had been on the bridge since 4 a clock in the morning; that he did not dealer another during the day and para clock in the morning; that he did not drink anything during the day, and partook sparingly of the wine served at the dinner, which preceded the reception.

This affair has been kept quiet, but none the less it has created a painful impression, as it is the first charge preferred against an officer of high rank since the beginning of the cruise. It is expected that the court will render a decision tomorrow, as only a few witnesses are to be examined.

The cost of these breakwaters will be $10,000,000, the amount estimated in the old plan for a breakwater protecting the channel.

READY FOR STATE CONTROL

Offer to Put Business in Hands of Trustees May Be Accepted if Fine Increased-Waters-

Pierce May Object.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 2.-There was a long conference at the executive mansion tonight between Governor Hadley and Elliott W. Major, the new Attorney-General, to discuss the unique proposition filed by the Corapany with the Supreme Court yester-

Ordinarily, the Attorney-General would file a reply brief, but in this case the company does not attack the law, so the only thing that will be done will be to notify the court that, if it takes up the question of modifying the decree of ouster, the Attorney-General will ask to be heard with suggestions.

New Demands of State.

If the court is disposed to consider the plea for a modification of the judgment of ouster, the Attorney-General, or possibly the Governor, acting for him, will insist upon two things:

First-There must be a substantial increase in the fine inflicted upon the Standard Oil Company and its constituent convenies.

Second—There must be provision for an effective plan of state supervision of the business of the Standard Oil Company. whether along the line suggested by the company or otherwise.

The suggestions of the Standard's attorney to the court comprise 25,000 words, the principal point being the proposal that in lieu of the ouster decision against the company, a new Missouri corporation be formed to succeed to the business of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana in this state.

The stock of the new company, less enough shares for the qualification of directors, is to be issued to two trustees, one named by the state and the other by the company, but both approved by the Supreme Court. These proved by the Supreme Court. These trustees are to act as officers of the court, and as such vote and control the stock of the new company. The stock of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, now owned by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, is to be turned over to the new company also.

These are grave and serious charges, and they are true. You say the Board and they are true. You say the Board if there was any incompetency or wrong, you must share in the responsibility. If you have personally inspected the building, you should certainly share in the censure."
