Mrs. Sunday May Address Overflow Meeting.

Baseball Evangelist Will Have the Assistance of Other Well-Known Speakers in His Meeting at the White Temple.

SPOKANE BIDS GOODBY TO SUNDAY WITH DONATION

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 7 .- (Special.)—Evangelist "Billy" Sunday said goodby to Spokane last night, his congregation sending him on his than $10,000. It is a National record, for white Sunday has received one larger offering, it was in a city where the cost of conducting meetings was not half that borne by the people of tributed beside the thank-offering, $15,000 for the expenses of the revival including the building of the Interest in the arrival of the noted evangelist, William A. Sunday; colloquially known as "Billy," or "Bill," continues to be maintained without the least degree of falling off.

degree of falling off.

Sunday's "nine" arrives Tuesday. By the term "nine," is meant, of course, Mr.
and Mrs. Sunday and their four children, making six. Mr. and Mrs. "Mel" Trotter, and Miss Muirhouse, three more, making nine in all. Count 'em. Mrs.
Sunday, be it known, is also a power as a speaker, and if there should be an "overflow" meeting necessary on Tuesday night at the White Temple it is more than probable that Mrs. Sunday will have her talents called into play. will have her talents called into play. That is one thing which keeps the base-hall evangelist always keyed up to concert pitch in his pulpit oratory—his better half and faithful comrade in the work Mr. Sunday, as to denomination, is a Presbyterian. A regularly ordained and licensed minister, of that church. When

In the event of Mrs. Sunday's delivering an address it will be the first time that Portland has ever heard her, as well as her gifted husband. Prominent church women in this city have expressed a keen desire to hear one of their sex who has reaped such fame as a publit talker, and should the overflow

"Mel" Trotter, who speaks Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the White Temple, has also been conferred with as to a possible noon-day meeting Tuesday, to be held at the assembly room of the Y. M. C. talk to the business men of Portiand, and if he does, he will "talk right out in meeting." His experience as a business man, before entering the ministry via the rum route, makes him a tart and snappy exposer of the foibles of modern commerce; and his remarks will be peppered with the pungency of untamed eloquence, and salted with the savor of practical wisdom. Altogether, the Sunday aggregation is a company of "all-stars," as it were, in the way of oratory. They will be prepared for any emergency in the way of overflows or undertows, and there will be no scarcity of eloquence in Portland or Tuesday nover 19811". on Tuesday next. Don't forget "Bill."
The unique, the positive, the annihilating, the scorching, the only "Bill." Services will begin at 8 o'clock P. M. at the White Temple, and if you're not in your seat then you lose out on hearing "Bill."

MORE RAIDS ARE PLANNED

City Father Declares It Looks as Though Gambling Is Protected-Will Take Up Rooming-House Evil.

In the Municipal Court this morning there will appear for trial 35 men who were apprehended in Councilman A. N. Wills' personally conducted raid up-North End Saturday night. They are charged with gambling, and those who do not forfeit their bonds by failing to appear will be vigorously prosecuted.

However, the proprietors of the places where these men were arrested will not be tried, for they were not included in the list captured in the police dragnet. Councilman Wills says he will cause warrants to be issued for their arrest, but yester-day no effort was made to apprehend

But the strangest feature of the case positively refused to talk last night co cerning the raid, and it is said to be the first time during his official career that he has maintained silence when such charges as "wide-open gambling," "pro-tection" and "understanding" are made in connection with his administration.

Will Continue His Inquiry.

Such charges are numerous. Councilman Wills does not hesitate to stand sponsor for them, but declines to specify
