

CHANGING NAMES OF HIGH SCHOOLS

West Side Is Lincoln, East Side Washington and Albina to Be Jefferson.

TO BE CHRISTENED FEB. 12

Board Is Unanimous in Moving Parental Displeasure Thwarted Proposed Transfer of Holman Pupils to Falling Schoolhouse.

Hereafter the West Side High School is to be known as the Lincoln High School; the East Side High School has been changed to the Washington High School and the new Albina High School will be named after Thomas Jefferson.

The matter was brought up in connection with the propriety of naming one of the city schools after President Lincoln, the name to be given at a ceremony to be held on Lincoln's centenary, on Friday.

Whether or not the high school building will be christened on Lincoln's birthday was not determined yesterday.

Parental Protest Made.

Some little stir was caused at the meeting yesterday when a deputation of residents of the Holman School District appeared before the Board and protested against the transfer of the ninth B grade from the Holman to the Falling School.

Several women in the party resented the criticism made by Superintendent Rigger of Principal Steele, of the Holman School, in making the matter Mr. Rigger's attitude toward Mr. Steele was perhaps responsible for the action in transferring pupils to the Falling School.

Request is Granted.

In making their request, the people from the Holman district pointed out that their building is much more desirable than the Falling School building, and that the accommodations at the other school are such that it is necessary to use a small building on the opposite side of the street, which they described as a menace to the health of the pupils housed there.

Mount Tabor Wants Plumbing.

A deputation from the South Mount Tabor School District also appeared before the Board and requested that the plumbing in the South Mount Tabor School be overhauled at once.

Mr. Campbell reported that he had recently visited the Peninsula School and found various matters requiring attention. The roof trusses were defective in some part of the building and damage to the walls had resulted, while the ends of the rain pipes were so far from the ground that the water from the eaves splashed against the walls and foundations, and would, Mr. Campbell thought, damage the structure.

FUNERAL OF ANTONIO MOE

Many Friends Attend Obsèques of Man Killed by Hans Goodager.

The funeral of Antonio Moe was held yesterday from Dunning, McEntee & Gilbaugh's chapel, and the interment was made in Rose City Cemetery.

by his fellow-countrymen, but by his employers, employees and co-laborers in the lumber and logging camps from Astoria to Portland, was strikingly manifested by the attendance at his funeral, which was one of the largest Scandinavian funerals ever held in this city.

"The deceased was recognized by his friends as a man of integrity, of sobriety and especially of civility. Gifted with a magnificent physique—born and reared in the historical City of Tromsø, Antonio Moe was a man of splendid physique, and possessed of indomitable courage, he was popular not only among his fellow-countrymen, but among all nationalities over whom and with whom he labored.

Rev. Mr. Lawson conducted the funeral services and a eulogy was delivered by Mr. MacMahon.

ABANDONS EMPLOYMENT SAYS DISCHARGED OFFICERS ARE "NUISANCES GENERALLY" AND VETOS THEIR PAY.

Declares Only Court Mandate Will Compel Him to Put Pen to Paper. Wants Leave to Hire Special Counsel to Fight Case.

WILL NEVER SIGN WARRANT

Declaring that he will never sign a warrant drawn in favor of Joe Day or any of the four ex-detectives who were discharged in August, 1906, and denouncing them as "nuisances," and intimating that they were dangerous enemies of the municipal government, Mayor Lane yesterday sent to the City Council a veto message of unusual proportions.

Text of Mayor's Veto.

To the Honorable City Council—Gentlemen: I return to you my veto of the ordinance which directs the Mayor to draw a warrant to pay Joseph Day the sum of $4172.64 and to pay the salaries of the other four ex-detectives during a time in which they were not performing any duty.

It was the duty of these detectives to discover infractions of the law, and to report them to the Mayor, and it was the duty of the Mayor to see that the law was enforced.

some others. It is comforting to know that at least the Council stands ready, at least that Mr. Willis does, to help in this great work of reform. So this is a good time to take up a number of licenses and things that need attention and get them straightened out; among the first of course, will be that of Mr. Blazier, who Councilman Willis caught a poker game in full blast Saturday night. After that is resolved, there will be others to which the attention of the Council will be called.

Chief of Police Gritzmacher was a caller at the Mayor's office yesterday morning. He was discussed with the executive for a brief time, but long enough to explain that the police, although trying with might and main, have been unable to secure convictions in gambling cases in the Municipal Court, and to add that it is not the fault of the police that people congregate in saloons and play cards.

After the Chief left, Mayor Lane said that the police have been instructed ever since the Mayor took office to enforce all the laws; to close gambling and to permit no "understandings."

Some "understandings" exist between me and any one to the effect that they can gamble or break any law," said the Mayor. "The orders have always been given to the police to enforce the law, and if any one can show at any time that any member of the police force, from top to bottom, has any understanding with any one that any law is broken, I will immediately discharge such officer or officers. The only understanding that exists is that the laws must be enforced, and I welcome any help from any source looking to that end."

INSTALL WEATHER STATION

New Meteorological Observatory for North Yakima Ordered.

Willis L. Moore, Chief of the Weather Bureau at Washington, has ordered that a special meteorological station be established at North Yakima, Wash., and has appointed Albert L. Bend as observer.

This station will be equipped with thermometers, barometer, etc., and will furnish two reports daily to the Portland office, the service from this station being similar to that received from Blaine, Wash., and Marshfield and Siskiyou, Or.

The establishment of the station at North Yakima will make four of this class established within the last 18 months. E. A. Deak, forecaster in charge of the Portland office of the service, will go to the apparatus as received there from Washington and install it and, at the same time will instruct the observer in the use of the instruments and the compilation of reports.

In addition to the fuller reports at the local office on weather conditions to the north, shippers of perishable products or those affected by weather conditions, will be benefited by the reports received and may govern themselves accordingly.
