SUNDAY'S SERMON IS VERBAL CYCLONE

Citadel of Sin Stormed as Never Before.

AUDIENCE SWEEPT FROM FEET

Baseball Preacher Pitchles into Evil of Every Degree.

SPEAKS AT WHITE TEMPLE

Great Crown Shower Exhilarates "Boys." Cards and Whispers With John, Elizabeth and Unique Coal Committee.

CHARACTERISTIC SUNDAY APPEAL

"MELICAN GAMEEE. WHY NOT CHINLEEE?"

Washington Clubback Encouraged to Testify as Benefic of 25-Mile Bridge.

"SIX COMPANIES" ASK FOR JUSTICE

Chinese Sell President Favors Japs.

ASK CHANGE IN PRESENT LAW

New Complication Sprung in California Situation.

BLAME FEDERAL POLICE

In Long Memorial, Leading Eastern Association Denounces "Colored Girls Are Treated Worse Than Pagans That Pagans"

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17—In a typical appeal against the Federal Police, seven companies of the California State Guard volunteered for service in the current conflict in the Orient.

The companies, the first to volunteer under the new law, were the 1st, 6th, 8th, 11th, 13th and 15th regiments of the National Guard.

The companies were organized and equipped entirely by the companies, each company being supported by $2,000, which was raised by local organizations.

The companies were mustered into service by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State.

The companies were mustered into service by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State.

Lynch Law beats Court

Houston Citizens Try for Waiting for Negro Man in Kill.

HIDING, Tex., Feb. 17—Robert Brown, a Negro, was shot last night in a room in this town and was killed. Mrs. Brown and her sister, who were with him, were also shot, but are expected to recover.

Brown was arrested last week for the murder of William L. Allen, a white man, and was released on bail.

Brown had a gun and was shot after a scuffle with a man who was trying to enter the room.

Brown was convicted of murder in a trial this week, and was sentenced to death.

Brown was on parole for the murder of Allen.

Colima Sputting Lava

Earthquake Prefigures Eruption of Mexican Volcano.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 17—An eruption of the Colima volcano in Mexico is expected to occur within a week, it was reported today.

The volcano has been active for several days, and there are indications that it will erupt soon.

A week ago, the volcano erupted, and there were reports of earthquakes in the area.

The volcano is expected to erupt within a week.

Oil Well Turns Geysers

Natives of Mexico, Themselves Volcano In Steady Erupting.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 17—An oil well in Mexico is expected to erupt within a week, it was reported today.

The well is producing a large amount of gas, and there are indications that it will erupt soon.

The well is located in the state of Mexico.

It is expected to erupt within a week.

Rescuers Killed at Mine

State Vice President Involved in Effort to Save Injured Miners.

YUKON, Feb. 17—An explosion at a mine in Yukon, Alaska, killed a number of workers. It was reported that the explosion was caused by a gas leak, and that the miners were killed by the explosion.

The mine is located in the Yukon.

The explosion killed a number of workers.

Cancer Causes Two Deaths

Miners Suffered Deaths While Working in Underground Mine.

SUNDAY, Feb. 17—Two miners died at the mine in Yukon, Alaska, where the explosion occurred. It was reported that the miners were killed by the explosion.

The mine is located in the Yukon.

The miners were died by the explosion.