YOUNG GIRL ADMITS GUILT

—Claire Curtis, daughter of a prominent Portland family, who, while living with friends in San Francisco and posing as a bookkeeper with employment in Oakland, pleaded guilty before Judge Brown to grand larceny. The crime to which she admits guilt is the theft of a diamond pin and $60 from Alex McLeer. The case was referred to Probation Officer Russ.

NO STOP FOR LEMP CASE

had talked with him with reference to getting a divorce from his daughter. "He told me he did not think my daughter could get a divorce, because she was a Roman Catholic, but he was willing for her to have it," said Mr. Handlan, who was on the stand only a few minutes. G. G. Pabst, of Milwaukee, a brother-in-law of the defendant, preceded Mr. Handlan. He was one of the witnesses to the alleged antenuptial agreement between Mr. Lemp and Miss Handlan that, if children were born, the mother would not attempt to influence them in a religious way. He identified the document presented in court, but did not state whether Miss Handlan read it before attaching her signature thereto.

FIRST CRASH ON NEW LINE

One Man Killed on Billings & Northern Road. GREAT FALLS, Mont., Feb. 11.—The first wreck on the new Billings & Northern Railroad occurred today at Splonkop, about 60 miles southeast of Great Falls. One man, an assistant fireman, was killed. The locomotive of an eastbound freight, followed by the first five cars of the train, left the rails and went into the ditch. The engineer and regular fireman were not hurt, but the assistant, John Beasley, jumped and was caught beneath the tender and crushed to death. The body being horribly mangled. Beasley came here only recently from Breckenridge, Minn.

JUDGE WILL NOT PERMIT EARLY CLOSE

Attorneys for Defendant May Try, However, to Prevent Lemp's Testifying. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11.—Before the trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Lillian Handlan Lemp adjourned today until Saturday, Mrs. Lemp's attorneys announced they will file a motion Saturday asking that a decree be entered in her favor as the case now stands. This would bar out the testimony of W. J. Lemp, Jr., and all of his witnesses if granted. Judge Hitchcock told the lawyers he would overrule the motion and would hear the case to the end. At the trial of the Lemp divorce case today in Judge Hitchcock's court the reading of the deposition of Mr. Lemp was continued. Specific details of most of Mrs. Lemp's allegations make up the deposition.

DISCUSS ALL QUESTIONS

GERMANY AND BRITAIN ON WAY TO AGREEMENT. Conference of Hardinge and Von Buelow Brings Result—King at Sister's Tomb. BERLIN, Feb. 11.—Intense curiosity is being displayed by the German people concerning Sir Charles Hardinge's conference with Chancellor von Buelow last night. The authorities, however, maintain the strictest reticence except to state that every subject was touched upon in which the policy of both nations is interested and that the result was most satisfactory. The indisposition of the King from a mild attack of bronchial catarrh is so slight that he was able to carry out the greater part of the prearranged programme without inconvenience. Accompanied by the Queen and the Emperor and Empress, the King paid a lengthy visit to the tomb of the Empress Frederick this morning. The royal party afterwards dined with the Crown Prince

ARREST 150 NEGRO HOBOES

Pittsburg Police Make Clean-Up of Suspicious Characters. PITTSBURG, Feb. 11.—In a raid early today the police of Brownsville, Pa., arrested 150 negroes who have been loafing about the coke ovens. All were discharged at a hearing later and ordered to leave town except six, who are being held, pending an investigation of their records in Pittsburg and elsewhere. According to the Brownsville authorities, most of the negroes are from Pittsburg, and left there when the police made wholesale arrests of negroes on account of the many assaults against white women.

Children's EYES

Leave Trail Unmarked. LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 11.—The House of Representatives of the Nebraska Legislature today indefinitely postponed a bill appropriating funds to mark the Oregon trail in Nebraska. Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution championed the bill.

NEW TRIAL FOR SANTA FE. CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—The United States Court of Appeals today reversed the decision of the United States District Court in the case of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company, which recently was convicted of violating the safety-appliance law, and directed the lower court to grant a new trial.

SENATE WILL FIGHT BILL. Upper House in Colorado No Friend of Direct Primary. DENVER, Colo., Feb. 11.—The first section of the Hicks direct primary bill, which provides for the nomination of state, county and city officers by direct vote, yesterday passed the House by a vote of 37 to 23. The Senate accepted the report of the committee on judiciary on the bill which will come before the Senate today. A desperate fight on the bill is expected in the Senate.

Blanche Walsh May Retire. KANSAS CITY, Feb. 11.—In all probability, Blanche Walsh, who is confined at the University Hospital in this city, suffering with a severe attack of stomach trouble, will not be seen on the stage again this season. Physicians at the hospital today reported Miss Walsh's condition as still alarming. The members of Miss Walsh's company left for New York today. Miss Walsh's St. Louis and Kan-
