Sues Haggin for $250,000 for Buying Peruvian Mines.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15 .- Suit was brought in the State Supreme Court here today by Athele B. Reader, husband of Ella Rawles Beader, against James B. Haggin, the wealthy mine-owner and racing man to recover $259,000, a 10 per cent commission claimed by Mr. Reader on the purchase price of several mines in the district of Cerro de Pasco, Peru, bought by the defendant for $2,500,000. der

Mr. Reader contends that he has options on many parcels of land included in the Peruvian properties bought by Mr. Haggin and that he had an agreement with Mr. Haggin for the payment of the amount sought to be recovered when the purchase was made. A similar suit in the Federal courts was dismissed.

Payment of the fine was made by the tender of a certified check for $50,000. The acceptance is silent so far as showreorganization independent of the Standard Oil Company is concerned, and there is no showing that the New Jersey corporation does not still own 60 per cent of the Waters-Pierce stock.

Accuse Bad Faith.

On the grounds that the Waters-Pierce Oil Company has not complied with the ouster decree of the Supreme Court of the state in its answer filed today, Attorney-General Major this afternoon will file with the court a suggestion that the ouser be made effective against the concern. This course was agreed upon after confer-ences between the Attorney-General, Gov-ernor Hadley and former Assistant Attorney-General John Kennish. The action of the Attorney-General will be based on the fact that the company has not furnished satisfactory evidence that it has severed relations with the Standard Oil Company.
