

RUSE SAVES RICH MAN FROM CHAINS

Highwayman Had Planned to Rob and Imprison Kansas City Millionaire.

CAPTURED BY BRAVE TRICK

Disregarding Dynamite Bomb, Jones Throws Robber to Street and Holds Him Until Wife Summons Police.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 16.—Carrying a revolver in one hand, and with a dynamite bomb concealed in the pocket of his coat, a man giving the name of C. H. Garnett called at the home of Lawrence M. Jones, president of one of the largest dry goods firms in the state, today, and demanded to see Mr. Jones.

Mr. Jones permitted the man to enter the room, and as he covered by the highwayman. After some further talk Jones told the man he did not have the money in the house, and suggested that Garnett go with him to the bank, and he would get it.

Ruse Leads to Arrest.

While the trio were about to enter the Jones motor car to be whisked downtown Mr. Jones threw himself upon the man from behind and seized him around the chest in such a fashion as to pinion his arms. At the same time, by a trick he learned when a boy he kicked the man's feet from under him.

With his arms folded and his slouch hat pulled down over his eyes, Garnett stood surly and defiant in his cell at the Flora-avenue station this afternoon.

"Am I sorry for what I've done?" he said. "No, I'm not. I did not feel myself sorry for it that I did not kill myself before the officers got me."

Three months ago I quit my job in Omaha and decided as soon as my money ran out I'd kill myself in Kansas City, January 23. Yes, I've had family troubles and business troubles, too."

Garnett acknowledges that the name given to the police was fictitious. He said he had no intention of telling his real name, even at his trial. Garnett continued:

"I was not ashamed of my name," he said. "I wasn't going out to stog a poor man over the head in a dark alley. I made up my mind to go out to some mansion in broad daylight and make my demands."

A maid at the Jones home corroborated Garnett's statement that he called there last Saturday. Garnett told an interviewer that he planned to make the late T. K. Burham, also a wealthy business man, his victim. As the Burham home he learned that Mr. Burham had been dead two years. "I saw the obituary notice of Mr. Burham," he said. "I saw the Jones Brothers sign and decided to go after Mr. Jones. I looked his address up in the telephone directory, and you know the rest."

Had Planned to Hold Victim.

Following Garnett's statement the police this afternoon found the house where Garnett proposed to imprison Mr. Jones after getting the money. It is a small frame affair in Independence, Mo., a suburb. A closet on the second floor of the house was rigged up as a prison. A large screw ring was set into the wall about four feet from the floor.

While the charges of Mrs. Tucker and her mother, who is named Mrs. Myrtle Platt, ex-secretary and later the nurse of Colonel Tucker, purport to bear directly on the doctor's physical breakdown, it is concluded that the instructions from Washington will have the effect of curtailing this evidence in so far as it tends merely to show moral turpitude.

WIDEN PENINSULA STREETS

Great Increase in Population of District Expected.

In anticipation of a great increase in population on the Peninsula, the University Park Board of Trade, at its meeting Monday night, took action looking to the widening of eight streets to 70 and 80 feet, from their present width of 60 feet.

It was moved that the name of Dawson street be changed to Lombard street. One is a continuation of the other under different names. When changed the new street will extend from St. John to Woodlawn near the name of Lombard, which is the name of the longest street in London.

TOUGH SPINE SAVES LIFE CHINAMAN SHOT BY JAPANESE IN JEALOUS RAGE.

Jim Sing Fired At by Daniel Rives, Who Has White Wife That Looked Upon Sing.

Jim Sing, a Chinese cannery employe and a member of the walking tip Sing team, which has been involved in many highbinder wars along the Pacific Coast, was shot in the back last night on the stairway of the house on the northwest corner of Fourth and Flanders streets, where he rooms. His assailant was a Japanese.

The shooting occurred shortly before 9 o'clock. Sergeants Kay and Goetz and Detective Howell worked diligently on the case and a few minutes before midnight they arrested Daniel Rives in a rooming-house at Third and Jefferson streets. Rives was identified by all the witnesses as the man who did the shooting, but he coolly denies all knowledge of the affair.

She complained to the officers that her husband was in the habit of losing all the money he earned by gambling in New Chinatown. From this the police have evolved the theory that the shooting is not the result of a tong difficulty, but merely a personal one. It is believed that the wounded man had attempted to alienate the affections of Rives' white wife. Rives belongs to the Suey Sing tong. He was locked up in the City Jail.

LIMITED ENGINE IN DITCH

No Passengers Hurt in Peculiar Accident to N. P. Crack Train.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 16.—(Special.)—What other might have proved to be a very serious accident occurred this morning at Latah, when the engine pulling the Northern Pacific's North Coast Limited jumped the track and rolled into the ditch, necessitating the sending of trains around by Renton. The train carried a large number of passengers. No one was injured.

MAJOR TUCKER SPARED

The first of these excerpts declares that "the provision in the revised statute giving to the retiring Board such powers as it may deem necessary and proper as may be necessary to enable it to inquire into and determine a question of alleged incompetency does not authorize such Board to entertain a charge of military offenses as such, or to try an officer."

Being "Deadbeat" No Offense.

The reference is to a precedent where an officer was charged with the moral offense of not paying his debts. On this point the rule is laid down that "a discharge for being 'deadbeat' was a physical cause; that moral obliquity was not had in view, and that the matter of the financial integrity of an officer was beyond the jurisdiction of the Board. The Board was not authorized to recommend the retirement of an officer because he did not pay his debts."

Police Capture Suspect

DENVER MAY HAVE TRAINROBBER IN JAIL.

Prisoner Boasted That He Was Trainrobber and Flashed Roll of "Easy Money."

DENVER, Feb. 16.—Suspected of being one of the men who held up the Denver & Rio Grande passenger train near Military Junction early Saturday morning, Cooper Lyman, who says he is a cowboy and lives in New Mexico, was arrested today and is being held pending an investigation of his record.
