NORMALS' LOBBY

Unless Senate's One-School Bill Is Blocked, Hope of Three Schools Lost.

FRIENDS NOW LUKEWARM

Members Whose Pet Bills Have Passed Are Losing Heart-Carter Arrives to Brace Up Fight for Three Normals.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Feb. 16.— (Special.)—For once in the history of normal school grabs in Oregon, the normal logrollers find themselves "up against it" and at their wits' end. Such is the predicament of the normal county legis-lators and of the normal lobbles. Neither the friends nor the foes of the normal nulsance can see the finish, but the one-normal plan is now stronger than ever before. Among the possible outcomes are Many Schemes Presented.

Deadlock between the Senate bill for House bills appropriating $166,000 each for Ashiand, Weston and Monmouth: this would leave all three schools in the predicament of Monmouth during the last two years or.

two years, or: Compremise in favor of Monmouth or perhaps Edgene; or: Compromise for two normals, one in Eastern Oregon and one in Western.

Ways and Means of One Mind.

The three-normal plan is strong in the Biouse and weak in the Senate; the one-normal idea is strong in the Senate, but, on account of trades, weak in the House. The ways and means committee of each house wants one normal.

The Senate ways and means committee holds three bills for the three normals, as passed by the House. The House ways and means committee helds the Senate bill for one normal at or near Portland.

Carter Again Heads Lobby.

In the lobby, the Southern Oregon delegation, that boosts the Crater Lake road appropriation, is also boosting the Ashland normal bill. In this delegation are the old-timers, E. V. Carter, of Ashland, and Dr. J. M. Keene, of Medford. H. Hirschberg, of Independence, was here today lending a hand for Monmouth. In the Legislature of 1907 Mr. Carter was the head and front of the normal lobby, arriving then, as now, at the critical time.

Three Normals Lose Ground.

It is altogether likely that the House ways and means committee will report amendment of the Senate bill, locat-ing the one normal at Monmouth, and it is probable that attempts will be made on the floor of the House to tack on Ashland and Weston as riders. But that the three normals will be as strong in the House as they were last week is doubted, because when the normals then carried things their way, they had the logrolling aid of members whose bills have since been disposed of in the House. The Southern Openin delegation is in

The Southern Oregon delegation Somewhat of a dilemma, over the Ash-land school and the Crater Lake road. Its members assert that each appropria-tion can stand on its own merits. If nec-essary to trade the one for the other, they are at a loss to make up their minds which should be let go.

PLEADS FOR NEW TAX LAW

F. W. Mulkey Appears Before Senate Judiciary Committee.

Resolutions proposing such amendments have been introduced in both houses and some of them have been indefinitely postponed, but Senator Kay in-troduced a new resolution upon the subfor the special purpose of giving Mr. Mulkey and the Grange rep-resentatives a chance to be heard.

Their plan is to assess and tax railroads and franchises for state purposes, leaving all other classes of property for county taxation, thus separating state and county taxation and removing the facentive to unequal assessment. Mr. Mulkey asserted that this plan of taxa-tion has worked very satisfactorily in Wisconsin and Michigan for several years. The committee has taken no action, but the members are known to be inclined toward the propo

COUNTY JUDGE GETS LESS

Senator Brooke Carries Out Campaign Pledge Given to People of Malheur County-Six Months' School Measure Carries.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Feb. 16 .-(Special)—The unusual spectacle of a salary reduction was witnessed in the Senate today when Brooke's H. B. 170 was passed. The bill reduces the salary of the County Judge of Malheur County from $1800 to $1200. Discussion brought out the fact that two years ago the indre's salary was releast to ago the judge's salary was raised to $1800, and that in the last campaign the candidate elected promised the people that he would take a salary of $1200, so that this bill was passed by his consent. The bill also raises the salary of the County Clerk from $1000 to $1200.

For Six Months' School.

By unanilmous vote the Senate today passed the House bill requiring that ach school district shall have at least six months' school each year and that each district must have a maintenance each district must have a maintenance fund of not less than $300 a year. The oill provides that if the county apportionment does not reach $300, the district must levy a special tax of not more than five mills for that purpose, and then if the amount does not reach $300, the County Court must help out the small districts by completing the $300 from the general fund.

County Records Made Free.

When Brooke's House bill 224, for the free inspection of all public records, came up for final action in the Senate, there was some discussion of its purpose. Senator Hart, Senator Barrett and others said that they have been informed that in some counties the County Clerks refuse to let abstractors have access to the records, and that in some other counties the clerks charge abstractors for the privilege. They be-lieved that all citizens should have free access to all public records. Senator Parrish opposed the bill because he thought that safety of the records requires a restriction of the privilege, especially in counties where the looseleaf system of records is used. The bill passed by a vote of 22 to 8, those voting no being Senators Bailey, Caldwell, Hedges, Merryman, Mulit, Nottingham, Parrish and President Bow

Before its passage, however, the bill was amended so as to provide that before such a tax cap be levied there must be a petition signed by 20 per cent of the voters of the county, which signers must be taxpayers, and that then the question of levying the tax be placed upon the ballot at the next election. If a majority of the voters favor the tax levy, it must be made, but not otherwise. The fund raised must be expended in the publication and distribution of advertising cation and distribution of advertising material. The bill was opposed in the Senate by Senators Hedges, Miller of Linn, Sinnott, Smith of Umatilla, Selling, Wood Mulit and Parrish.
