

FOUR TIMES DOWN, ATTELL WINS OUT

Twenty-Round Go Filled With Exciting Moments for Fight Fans.

DECISION CLOSES MILL

Jimmy Regan Puts Monte to Mat Four Times, but Not for the Count, and Attell Recovers, at Finish.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—Is a ring battle filled with exciting moments and after having been knocked down four times by his sturdy opponent, Monte Attell of this city today won from Jimmy Regan of Oakland, by Referee Ty Krelling's decision at the end of the 20-round go.

The fight was a good one all the way. Both the bantamweights were in good shape and full of fighting spirit. Regan was clearly outpointed as a boxer from the start, but his gameness and strength made Attell's chances look slim at one time.

It was in the sixth round that the Oaklander showed his hitting power. Just before the gong sounded he slipped a right swing like the kick of a mule to Attell's jaw, and the San Franciscan dropped. The gong saved him, however, and he was carried to his corner in bad condition.

Attell's seventh knockdown his man to his knees three times, but could not make a good job of it.

In the eighth Monte came up strong and floored Regan with a straight left to the chin. Regan never fully recovered, and Attell could have knocked him out had he been willing to risk it. He was content to maintain his lead and wait for a decision, however, but finished the fight a very tired boy. He bore many marks of Regan's gloves. Regan's inability to take punishment was the feature of the fight.

BRITT LOSES TO SUMMERS

Holds in Clinches Too Long and Has Two Bad Falls.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—Johnny Summers, the English pugilist, tonight received a defeat in his fight with Britt in a 20-round bout. The fight was held before the National Sporting Club, and a big crowd was present, there being great interest in the contest.

Both Summers and Britt had trained hard for this meeting and were in far better condition than when they met before. During the early stages Britt did most of the leading, apparently starting out with a view to securing a knockout. He made the mistake, however, of holding in clinches more than is usual in English boxing, and for much adverse criticism and several warnings from Eugene Corri, who officiated as referee. Britt also had the misfortune to slip and fall on the floor when engaged in lively mixups, and the falls were almost as effective in taking the speed out of him as though they had resulted from a swing.

Up to the sixth or seventh round Britt had the better of the bout, but from that on Summers improved and honors were even at the close of the tenth. After that, although Britt was always strong, the Englishman had somewhat the better of him, and the decision in Summers' favor was popular.

Before leaving the ring, Britt said he accepted the award of the referee and he had no complaint to make, but he still thought he was the better fighter.

CALLER BRINGS YEN-SHI

Kidnaped Chinese Girl's Obliging Friend Lends in Jail.

Mrs. Chan How, who was calling upon Little Lung Su, the Chinese belle arrested Saturday night at Astoria in male attire, at the City Jail yesterday, was detected by Matron Isabelle Simmons in the act of passing yen-shi or opium to the prisoner. She was promptly arrested.

Mrs. How had the stuff concealed in her stocking. On a flimsy pretext which aroused the suspicion of Mrs. Simmons she caused her little daughter, who accompanied her, to be exceedingly curious. The child asked many questions of Mrs. Simmons, who apparently paid no attention to the caller.

As she listened to the child, while surreptitiously watching the caller, she saw Mrs. How reach into her stocking and produce several carefully prepared pills which she was passing to the prisoner when intercepted by Mrs. Simmons. The caller was immediately placed under arrest.

A few moments after she had been locked in a cell, members of the tong with which Lung Su is connected secured the latter's release by depositing $1000 cash. Her caller is still confined in the City Jail.

AT THE VADEVILLE THEATERS.

Indians at the Orpheum.

It is not often the people have the opportunity of seeing an act in vaudeville played by real Indians, but the little playlet called "A Modern Pocahontas," which is on the programme at the Orpheum this week, is presented by full-blooded Indians and two white men. There are two dances, smoking the pipe of peace and other Indian ceremonials and customs.

"The Man of the People."

Melbourne Macdonell and Virginia Drew Trecoit were cordially greeted with packed houses at all three performances at the Park Theatre yesterday, with their new sketch, "The Man of the People," which was written by Mrs. Trecoit. It demonstrates that the trend of the times is away from the classical.

"Two Men and a Bottle."

"Two Men and a Bottle" is the significant title of a lively little comedy on the Grand's vaudeville programme. It is presented by Harry Truesdale and company, and made one of the distinct successes at the opening performance yesterday. The present bill is an entertainment containing an abundance of comedy and singing.

experience trouble in inducing Mullin to come to the Coast for the salary of a Northwestern player. Mullin did balk at the first contract sent him, but when he submitted his own terms, Manager Mac was agreeably surprised at the moderate demands and closed with the player immediately. Mullin writes McCredie that he has heard so much of the Northwest he is pleased to get a chance to play here.

Doc Moskman, the former Oakland pitcher, who has been an outlaw for several years, intends to remain so, for he is content to present all the means of a pitcher. He became inflated with the idea that he was a better man than Bill Essick, who was taken by Cincinnati, and was sore because he was not sold instead. The next Spring he took a mean advantage of us by accepting something over $200 in advance money, signed a contract and then jumped to the outlaw league because I would not raise his salary with all that goes to make a successful pitcher.

"Larry McLean was catching for Portland that year. He took a liking to Henderson and made him something of a pitcher. He became inflated with the idea that he was a better man than Bill Essick, who was taken by Cincinnati, and was sore because he was not sold instead. The next Spring he took a mean advantage of us by accepting something over $200 in advance money, signed a contract and then jumped to the outlaw league because I would not raise his salary with all that goes to make a successful pitcher.

San Francisco has annexed outfielder Jimmy Williams and First Baseman Charles Tennant, from the Chicago American League club. Both are rated as coming players and are expected to help the Seals considerably. Nick Williams and Shortstop Mundorf have also signed their contracts with San Francisco, which pleased Danny Long immensely, for Danny imagines the Seals cannot be headed this season. Will some one kindly remind him of his fears of a "runaway race" last April?

CHASE WON BY HERDMAN

FINE TURN-OUT OF RIDERS FOR HUNT CLUB RUN.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY EVENT IS HOTLY

Contested, Coffman Trophy Being Prize.

The Washington birthday open paper chase over which the trophy cup donated by A. J. Coffman, was won in a hotly-contested ride yesterday by Hugh H. Herdman, riding Bob Crawford. William Albion, who rode the second, and Eugene Oppenheimer on Gym was third.

The course was an ideal one, and the eight miles of more or less broken country over which the horses sprang the trail proved a most exhilarating ride for the competitors. One of the features was the riding through of Mrs. Chipman and Mrs. W. L. Wood, who were the first ladies to ride through in a Hunt Club chase for some time. Both enjoyed the sport immensely and succeeded in finishing well up with the leaders, although not gaining a place.

The start was made at East Fourteenth and Thompson streets promptly at 10:30 o'clock, for Master of Hounds Dave Mullin, who he drafted from schedule and sent the riders off at the appointed hour. The course lay over a rough country with over 20 stiff jumps for a distance of eight miles, ending at the home City Park on the Sandy road. As they crossed the finish line all the riders showed that they had enjoyed the sport immensely and while some were disappointed not winning the coveted trophy, they congratulated the successful rider enthusiastically, and all admired the handsome outfit which the winner carried off at the finish line when the riders came galloping in after their enjoyable ride. The following rode through: H. H. Herdman, on Rocket; Eugene Oppenheimer, on Gym; W. M. Davis, on J. H. Bennett; James Alexander, on Call Bond; James Alexander, on Call Bond; James Alexander, on Call Bond; James Alexander, on Call Bond.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—Cheered on by the salute of a great crowd which thronged the Golden Gate Parkway and the discordant hooting of countless automobile horns, Otto Boeddiker, of the Olympic Club, ran the last 800 yards of the long Marathon course today, winning in the remarkable time of 2:40:21.5—nearly 15 minutes faster than the time made over the classic course by "Johnny" Hayes, Marathon winner at the Olympics at London last year. Boeddiker's time is but a shade more than four minutes over the fastest time ever recorded for the race.
