

PROPOSED CODE TO FORBID TIPPING

Olympia Senate Also Puts Ban on Sale of Blended Spirituous Liquors.

DEBATE AROUSES ANGER

Presly Calls Opponents of Boxing Game Molliedoles—Nichols Reports by Saying All Professional Sports Are Crooked.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 1.—(Special.)—The perquisites of the bell-hop and the Pullman porter are in positive danger in this state. The Senate today after adopting anti-tipping sections passed the criminal code with its 446 sections by a vote of 22 to 1.

In addition to tacking on the anti-tipping features, the Senate did other things to the code. It refused to sanction the provision permitting prize boxing contests and added several sections which are designed to abolish the manufacture or sale of rectified, blended or improperly aged spirituous liquors. It reconsidered its action of Saturday, when it placed an amendment in the code that would have made it unlawful for women to change at restaurants where liquors are sold and changed the prohibition so it applies only to drinking saloons and concert or dance halls where liquors are sold.

FRENCH'S REMARKS SPIRITED

Clark County Solon Objects to Yakima Fair Deficiency. OLYMPIA, Wash., March 1.—(Special.)—The State Fair deficiency appropriation again raised the local option storm in the House when it was brought up for final action today. In spite of a bitter attack by French, of Clark County, the bill passed, 67 to 13, the absent members numbering 25.

O. A. C. TEAM RUNS AWAY

CLUBMEN WIN LADYLIKE BASKETBALL CONTEST. Farmers Go Down Before Doughty Multnomah Five by Score of 26 to 13.

He who fights and runs away Shall live to fight another day. Because they played with a belief in this adage, the Oregon Agricultural College basketball players were defeated last night by Multnomah Club quint, 26 to 13. Whenever the ball was in the hands of the "gym" floor it could be depended on that at least four of the "Agrics" were out of reach, at the other end, indeed they handled the ball so little that they scored only two field goals.

The first half was played in a pretty, ladylike manner, neither team exerting itself, for fear of hurting the feelings of its opponents, and although the half ended 11 to 4 in favor of the clubmen, the O. A. C. boys could have had the game had they thrown a little spirit into it. They did not.

There should be congratulations passed to Jim Mackie, who did almost the cleanest work with the whistle seen on any floor this season. The line-up follows:

M.A.A.C. Position. O. A. C. Position. Dent, F. Forward. Horton, Morris, E. Forward. Pugh, G. Forward. Allen, Spivey, G. Forward. Mackie, J. Center. The best basketball game of the season is yet to come at the Multnomah Club. Manager McCord arranged yesterday to play a series of games with

University of Oregon, one of which is to be at Portland and the other two at Eugene. The play shown by the U. of O. five will make the games probably the toughest the clubmen have yet handled.

WHITE SOX REACH COAST

First Team Met by Delegation at Sacramento.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—The first team of the White Sox, as the Chicago American League baseball squad is known, arrived tonight on its special train to the coast. It was met near Sacramento by a delegation from the Coast League composed of J. Cal Ewing, Danny Long, Frank Ish and others, and the rest of the trip was in the nature of a reception to the big leaguers.

The second team separated from the first at Sacramento and proceeded to Southern California. Four recruits for the San Francisco team arrived with the Chicago American.

Dorris, Italian Marathon Runner Who is Said to Have Beaten Dorando.

The Senate again sanctioned the social game of dice, when played in private residences or apartments between the host and invited guests. To allay the alarm of some of the puritans of the Senate the bill was amended so that such games although played for stakes, must be for "amusement." But still it did not satisfy the majority of the Senators and the exemption caused six of them to vote against the code on final passage.

O'CONNELL PUTS UP $500

Agrees to Throw Smith, Parker, Davis and Riley in One Night. Last night Eddie O'Connell posted $500 to bind his part of an agreement to throw "Strangler" Smith, Kid Parker, Kid Davis, Frank Riley and the other alleged wrestlers, as he terms them, in one night. O'Connell says Parker, Davis and others have been disgruntled because he has refused to give them a public match, and in order to demonstrate to the public his opinion of them he agrees to toss the entire bunch in one night. His deal is that he will take them on one at a time and agree to demonstrate to the public that none of them are entitled to any consideration as wrestlers.

MATCH WITH JOHNSON HANGS ON GETTING IN CONDITION. Ready to Fight if Can do Himself Justice—In Excellent Condition, but Heavy. CHICAGO, March 1.—"I will fight Jack Johnson for the heavyweight championship of the world, if I am able to get into condition to do myself justice," said James J. Jeffries, who stopped off on his way to New York today.

CHALLENGE FOR AUSTRALIANS

American Tennisplayers Want the Islanders to Show Their Skill. NEW YORK, March 1.—President James Dwight, of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, today called a challenge for the Dwight F. Davis International Cup to the secretary of the Australian Lawn Tennis Association, the present holders of the trophy. By sending the American challenge on or before March 1, the United States Association retains its right to send a team to Australia next November, when the international matches are played there.

TWO TEAMS HERE ARE BATTLEING

Reply to San Francisco Sporting Writer Who Sounds Alleged "Warning."

PORTLAND GOOD BALL CITY.

Will Not Be Lost to Coasters, Although All-Pacific Coast League Is Impossibility Until Outside Can Be at Head.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. A few days ago Hyland L. Baggerly, sporting editor of a San Francisco evening newspaper, volunteered the information to the readers of his paper that the Pacific Coast League was making a serious mistake by allowing Portland to enter the Northwestern League and sound the warning that it meant the loss of this city to the Coasters in the future. A few days later he came out with another story to the effect that the outlaw California State League was becoming exceedingly dangerous. Unfortunately for fandom along the Pacific Coast there are too many people who take Mr. Baggerly seriously on these topics. In the first place, he is closely related to the president of the California (outlaw) State League and would naturally claim all he could for that organization. In the second place he can see no further than San Francisco in becoming an authority on what is going to happen, yet at that he is not on record as having predicted the recent earthquake. But that has nothing to do with baseball.

If the Pacific Coast League has made a mistake in allowing the McCredes to place a Northwestern team in Portland, it has also repeatedly made the same mistake in allowing San Francisco to acquire the control of the Oakland club, and thus enjoy continuous baseball. In addition, it has further aggravated this mistake by allowing Henry Berry and his associates to acquire an additional baseball club for Los Angeles in order that Los Angeles may also enjoy continuous baseball. Yet Mr. Baggerly, who is a baseball lore is cited as an authority in some quarters, does not think continuous ball for San Francisco and Los Angeles harmful. Why? Simply because J. Cal Ewing and the other crowd owns and controls practically the entire set of California clubs comprising the Pacific Coast League, and he himself is directly interested in the California State League.

Portland Believes in McCredes.

Here in Portland the baseball fans have confidence in the McCredes. Furthermore, the McCredes have proved themselves amply able to uphold their own in contest with the Californians, and by having two leagues represented in Portland, the fans here are accorded the opportunity of seeing 12 clubs in action instead of six, as is the case in California. Because Judge W. W. McCredie was so bold enough to outgeneral the Californians in this respect, Brother Baggerly wishes to throw cold water on the proposition by predicting the loss of Portland to the Coast organization. He knows better than to predict that continuous baseball will prove a failure in Portland, because Portland is as good if not a better baseball town than is San Francisco.

O'Connell Picks College Men to Meet Pullman Saturday.

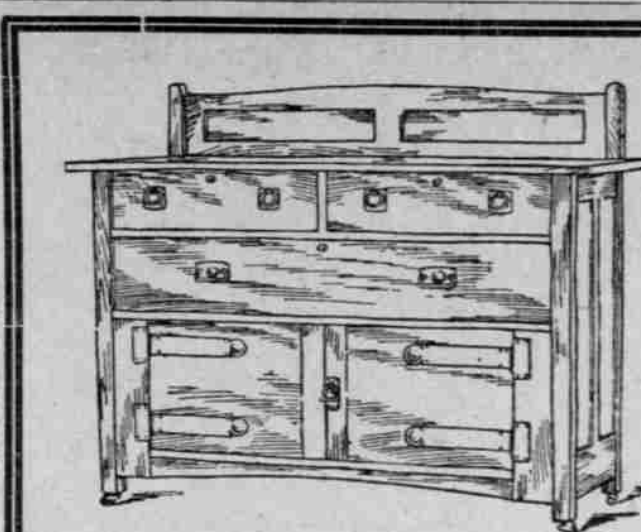

CORVALLIS, Or., March 1.—(Special.)—Coach O'Connell has selected the following wrestlers to meet Washington State College in the tourney in the local gymnasium Saturday night: Damouth, 115 pounds; Keady, 125; McHenry, 135; Thompson, 145; Leady, 158; Sifton, 175; Smith, heavyweight. With the exception of Leady and Smith, this is the same team that which went against Multnomah last week. The men have improved since the last contest and are confident of winning from Pullman on Saturday. O'Connell, of the Multnomah Athletic Club, Portland, comes here every Saturday to train the Oregon men.

Chies Back Walking Race.

CHICAGO, March 1.—Citizens of Milwaukee are to meet representatives of Chicago in an inter-city walking match. Mayor David S. Rose, of the Wisconsin city, has issued a challenge to Chicago, which reads: "I hereby challenge the winners of the walking race Saturday night, Albert J. Moore, the broker, and Dr. L. Blake Baldwin, city physician, to match race between Louis W. Hamilton and Charles E. Gavin, of Milwaukee, time and place to be determined this week, for a purse of $200 a side." Dr. Baldwin said that the match would be welcomed, and details quickly arranged.

Outsider Needed to Head League.

That Dugdale is right as to his contentions was satisfactorily proven to the writer last Summer when two of J. Cal Ewing's umpires, who were appointed to handle the latter part of the season, anxiously inquired whether or not "Kid" Mohler's protests were listened to at "headquarters," meaning Ewing. As a matter of fact, whatever "Kid" Mohler or anyone connected with the San Francisco club says or whispers into Ewing's ear carries more weight than the testimony of all the umpires of the league. The reason for this is plainly apparent, in the fact that the president of the league is heavily interested financially in the San Francisco and Oakland clubs. Unless new tactics are shown decisively by Mr. Ewing, he and his umpires can be prepared for some red-hot receptions in Portland this Summer. In this city, where fairness predominates, we do not want any umpires who, through their lack of con-piece will find offered in this sale the opportunity for both satisfactory and economical selection. Sale ends tomorrow.

decide in their "boss" are afraid to enforce the baseball rules against Kid Meier and his team as was the case last Summer. To say the least, the umpires selected by J. Cal this season, with the exception of McCredie, about whom we know nothing, are pliable in the extreme.

When the Pacific Coast League gets the idea of allowing the McCredes to head it, then it will become a baseball league in which all teams have a chance. Until then it will be a constant struggle for Walter McCredie to secure even 25 per cent of an even break in matters baseball, whether on the diamond or off. Mr. Baggerly realizes this as well as anyone else, but he would rather have the other impression sent broadcast.
