See the Spring Suits Some Clever Coats for Spring A Thousand New Style Waists

There's a wider choice of shades shown in this Spring's smart suits than for many seasons past. The soft hues, such as wistaria, taupe and other rich, mellow-toned shades, are decidedly in favor.

There are severely plain tailored models or cleverly decorated affairs, and the latter models are suitable for either street or reception wear.

The late models in coats have many admirers among Portland's smart folk, new styles with a dash and difference that entitle them to highest praise.

Every day sees the waist stock increase in selection, and we enthusiastically declare that styles were never so beautiful or values so great as now.
