FOUND LOST JEWELS

Greek Sidewalk-Cleaner Kept Pearls Four Months.

GOT NECKLACE IN REFUSE

Not Knowing Value, Laborer Carried $50,000 Worth of Gems in His Trunk From New York West to Omaha.

OMAHA, March 4.—The police today arrested a Greek named John Savis, who came here from New York, in whose possession they found a $50,000 pearl necklace, which was lost near the Knickerbocker Hotel in that city November 28.

Savis says he was employed as a street cleaner and swept up the jewels with a bunch of refuse.

MRS. HEINZE LOST JEWELS

Gotham Police Were Seeking for Necklace Since November. NEW YORK, March 4.—The police here, when notified tonight of the arrest of Savis, said the jewels probably were those lost by Mrs. Otto C. Heinze, in or near the Knickerbocker on the night of November 28. The necklace of Mrs. Heinze consisted of 68 matched pearls with a gold, diamond-studded clasp. The value of the necklace has been variously put at from $500 to $50,000. The Hotel Knickerbocker house detective said he believed the Greek under arrest was employed by the city's street-cleaning department.

BANKER TAKES OWN LIFE

ALL HIS SCHEMES FAILING, HOLLINS INHALES GAS. He Quits Banking for Promotion, Loses Money and Health, Then Becomes Suicide.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Made despondent by ill-health and the collapse of a number of financial and industrial undertakings he had launched, Frank C. Hollins, 50 years of age, the well known Wall-street banker, committed suicide today by inhaling illuminating gas.

The banker was the lessee of a pretentious residence in East sixty-eighth street, but this he suited six months ago when his health compelled his removal to a sanitarium.

Hollins at one time held an important position with his brother's firm, H. B. Hollins & Company, but in 1886, after some disagreement, he left to engage in company promoting, particularly of straw pulp manufacturing schemes. Among the companies in which he was interested and in connection with which he was involved last year in litigation amounting to more than $1,000,000, were the Union Railway, Power & Electric Company, the Federal Manufacturing & Specialty Company, Electric Pulp & Paper Company, Consolidated Paper & Mills Company and the Consolidated Railway Industrial Straw Paper Company.

LOS ANGELES, March 4.—Een this men have committed burglaries and been caught, but probably never before did a man purloin a live boa constrictor and land in the toils of the law.

Sylvester White, a beardless young man, was brought down from Visalia last night and looked up, charged with having stolen a 45-foot boa constrictor, the property of William Leroy, a collector of reptiles. Leroy's residence on Wall street was robbed about a week ago. It is believed that the snake was carried from Leroy's house in a suitcase.

DEPRIVE WIFE OF SHARE

TUCKER TAKES STEPS TO FIGHT MAINTENANCE CLAIM. Having Won Retired Officers' Pay, Colonel Prepares to Resist Wife's Lawsuit.

CHICAGO, March 4.—(Special)—With the news from Washington that Colonel William F. Tucker had been vindicated by the Army Retiring Board and would draw, in retirement, a yearly salary of $2,500 for the remainder of his life, efforts were begun today to prevent Mrs. Mary Logan Tucker from securing a portion of his income through her separate maintenance suit, now before the Circuit Court in Chicago.

Leo J. Doyle, the attorney who is acting for Colonel Tucker while the latter is recuperating at Hot Springs, Ark., is preparing the answer Colonel Tucker will make to the bill filed by Mrs. Tucker for separation and alimony. In addition to the answer, which in all probability will be filed on March 28, it is known that Colonel Tucker will later file a cross-bill.
