BROKERS SUSPECT PATTEN SELLING

Appearance of Long Wheat in Pit Said to Be Effort of Bull to Unload.

SCHEME TO BREAK CORNER

Leading Bears Said to Be Combined in Plan to Flood Market With Grain in Near Future-Reserve Report Disturbing.

CHICAGO, March 4.—(Special.)—There was every indication today that long wheat was being fed into the market on all strong spots, and Patten is strongly suspected of being the seller. The market was greatly influenced by the report of B. W. Snow, the crop expert, who gives information each month to the Bartlett-Patten house; and those in the trade who believe that Patten himself was a seller cite this report as adding weight to their arguments.

Show's figures on farm reserves of wheat are 18.3 per cent of last year's crop, or a total of 123,000,000 bushels. This is 15,000,000 bushels below Snow's figures is 15,000,000 bushels below Snow's figures on reserves a year ago and 25,000,000 bushels below the Government figures in March, 1908. While the reserves are the smallest indicated for many years, the figures were construed as beartsh simply because numerous private reports had created a feeling in the trade that wheat in farmers' hands might be reduced to about 100,000,000 bushels. Only yesterday James A. Patten predicted that the reserves would be under that figure.

Suspect Patten Selling.

There is a rapidly growing conviction in the wheat pit that the Patten holdings

There is a rapidly growing conviction in the wheat pit that the Patten holdings of May are being liquidated as rapidly as the market will allow. Certain it is, that offerings of May wheat have been more liberal in the pit in the last week or ten days than during the early portions of the campaign, and this loosening up of offerings appears to be growing more pronounced daily.

Quite a number of traders affect to believe that the counter-demonstrations in July wheat, as well as in corn and oats, are for the purpose of facilitating the May wheat liquidation. Some increase in offerings of May delivery, however, is undoubtedly due to the putting out of hedges by elevator people. Northwest and West, who have heretofore been carrying a part of their wheat unhedged. In addition there is much selling of long wheat by conservative holders who are willing to clinch some very handsome profits. There were rumors on the curb tonight that private settlements had been made on quite a line of short wheat. made on quite a line of short wheat.

Plan to Break Corner.

The stubborn bears and shorts in the wheat pit, it is said, are making arrange-ments to flood the big bull with an aval-anche of wheat, such as was poured in upon Joseph Leiter when P. S. Armour turned upon him in his moment of tri-umph and burled him and his wheat corner beneath a flood of the cereal. Such firms as Fulley Regreat Chester

Such firms as Finley Barrell, Shearson & Hammil, James Norris, Chapin & Company, and the Brosseau house are believed to be behind the move. These big traders, it is said, are all short, and will fight Patten's corner to a finish. It is expected, however, that the elevator men who are short will buy up the wheat, pocket their losses and get out. The Armour Grain Company is also believed to be short a big line of wheat.

A round lot of wheat variously estie to four million bushels is waiting at various Northwestern points to be rushed to Chicago when the psy-chological moment arrives. The bears have been quietly working along this line for some time and have started wheat for Chicago from every point at which the cereal could be obtained.

SEABOARD BURIED IN SNOW

Wires Crippled, Roads Blocked, Three Sailors Lose Lives.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The Middle Atlantic seaboard, from New York to Norfolk, was burled today in an avalanche of snow and swept by destructive winds. For a time conditions seemed to threaten a repetition of the great blizzard of March 12, 1888, but tonight the storm had sunk to less alarming proportions, and there was a promise of mild weather tomorrow. Telephone and telegraph wires in all directions went down. For eight hours

Washington was completely isolated, and late tonight the only means of communication between the capital and the outside world was over three crippled telegraph wires—one to New York, one to Atlanta and a third to

tion of territory which included Washington and Baltimore.

In New York City, where the storm was severe, three lives were lost in the sinking of six Baltimore & Ohio coal barges at St. George, Staten Island. The dead were Captain A. Mankey, of the barge Joseph Stiney, and Captain William H. Ferguson and his wife, of the barge George H. Bates. The gale descended on New York harbor with the fury of an ocean hurricane. Barges that were under tow were blown ashore, while tugs and small boats weere sent scurrying for cover. Several of them suffered heavy damage before reaching safe anchorage.

MOORE IS FALSE PROPHET

Shivering Throngs Yearn for Sunshine He Promised.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Today's storm—the worst Washington has known in ten years—followed weather which for a time yesterday was suggestive of late April. Fog was followed by heavy showers and rising temperatures. Thunder and lightning played about the city during the afternoon and then at night snow began to fall. The Weather Bureau had sent out a definite promise of fair weather for today, however, and as the wind had shifted from the east to the north and west, Washingtonians were inclined to smile at the snow as calculated simply to send cold shivers down the backs of to send cold shivers down the backs of the Government's optimistic prophets. At midnight, last night, in spite of the continuous fall of snow and the white covering of streets, the Weather Bureau adhered to its prediction and proclaimed anew that the day of Mr. Taft's inauguration would be ideal.

Professor Willis L. Moore, in charge of the Weather Service, sent a message to Mr. Taft at the White House last night, assuring him through the gale of blinding snow that he would take office under cloudless skies, with a flood of sunshine and a temperature of about 40 degrees.

The mariner charged also that his second mate, Jacob Nelson, reported soundings incorrectly, which, he said, partially caused the loss of the vessel. The accusations were made during the investigation of the wrecking of the steamer, which was begun before the Federal inspectors today. Captain Schillinsky declared that the night was very hazy and that he was led astray by the station light at Surf, which he mistook for the Point Arguello signal because no fog signals were being sounded at the lighthouse to set him right. Engineer McDonald corroborated his captain's story and said that the operator at Surf had told him that no fog sig-nals had been sounded during the night. The hearing was continued until Nel-son, who is now at sea, shall return and give evidence.

ROMANCE.

Westinghouse-Brocklebank Wedding Culminates Long and Unique Courtship.

LONDON, March 4.—George Westingnouse, Jr., the son of the noted Pittsburg | higher. air-brake inventor, and Miss Evelyn Violet Brocklebank, daughter of Sir Thomas Brocklebank, were married today at the village church of Ireton, Cumberland, where the Brocklebank estate is located. The ceremony was sofemnized by an uncle of the bride and both the parents of the bride and groom were present, as FIVE MEN FROZEN TO DEATH well as many other relatives of the young pair,

The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Sylvia and Miss Katherine, and by Miss Sybyi Needham and Miss Edith Parker, while the groom's best man was Charles Roger Williams, of Derby, Conn.

The marriage was the culmination of a romance that started in the Westinghouse shops at Pittsburg. While on a visit there the young English girl no iced a workman at one of the benches, clad in greasy overalls and apparently busy at his task. She asked him a few questions and the conversation lengthened into several minutes, ending with a bashful invitation for the young man to call, This he did and in a short time won the love of his fair visitor. After she had promised to be his bride he told her that he was the son of the millionaire owner of the plant.

This news almost spoiled the romanes, but matters were arranged and all seemed settled, when the panic came on, and for a time the Westinghouse on, and for a time the Westinghouse fortunes seemed to be in danger of a disastrous shrinkage. The ceremony was postponed, as the young American did not want to hold his bride to her promise in case he should become poor. After the panic passed another date was set for the wedding, but this, too, was postponed, owing to young Westinghouse's illness. After his recovery a third date was set, and today's wedding saw the final happiness of the lovers

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM

Nothing better demonstrates that rheumatism is a disease of the blood than the fact that it is hereditary in certain families. It may not develop until conditions of cold and dampness favor it because nature is always fighting to keep the body in health. When disease does get the upper hand and rheumatism is seated in the blood, a remedy that will revitalize and renew the blood is the simplest and best means of relief.

A remarkable instance of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in this disease is shown by the cure they effected in the case of Mrs. O. E. Taylor, whose address is R. F. D. No. 6, Columbus, Ohio,

"I suffered severely with inflamma-tory rheumatism for three years and was helpless in bed for weeks at a time. The attack followed exposure to damp-ness. Every bone in my body seemed to ache and my joints were swollen to twice their normal size. During the first attack I had to be fed as I could not raise my arms and was so perfectly helpless that I couldn't turn over in bed.

helpless that I couldn't turn over in bed. The least bit of a jar would hurt me and on damp days the sharp pains were worse and almost unbearable. I was not able to work for months, could not sleep and had no appetite.

"I was treated by different doctors at London, Ohio, who gave me only temporary relief. Upon the advice of a cousin, who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit, I decided to give them a trial. I soon had an appetite and could see that the pills were helping me. I took several boxes and was cured as I have not been troubled was cured as I have not been troubled with the pains since and am a healthy woman in every way."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make rich, new blood and have cured such diseases as rheumatism, nervous and general debility, indigestion, ner-vous headache, neuralgia, and even par-tial paralysis and locomotor ataxia. As a tonic for the blood and nerves they are unequalled.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
