JOHNSON LEARNS OF'SEATTLE SPIRIT

Fighter "Touched" in Poker Game by Pullman Porters From Sound City.

READY TO FIGHT JEFFRIES

While Being Photographed for Moving Pictures, Black Champion Says Nothing Will Stand in

Way of Fight.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 10 .- One of the first things Champlon Johnson met after coming ashere here yesterday was the Seattle Spirit. During the evening the big fighter became honorary presi dent of the Rallway Porters' Club, which is composed of the dusky gentlemen who officiate over the Fullman cars that arrive and depart from this city. Part of his entertainment consisted of participating in a poker game, and at this the black was hardly what could be called expert

Most of the members of the club re-frained from hitting the fighter any fraised from hitting the fighter any knock-out blows in the region of his bankroll; but two members of the club who hall from Scattle left the game with the major portion of the change that had been on the table. Johnson made no comment on the outcome of the game. Thereafter, they all visited a few resorts and went home at something be Noon today found Jack keeping an en-Noon today found Jack keeping an engagement with a moving picture man at the dock where he landed from the Makura yesterday. The champion wore a look of ennul when he went through the performance of being welcomed all over again, and going through phony hand-clasps with George Paris and the other big men of the colored ring. The schedule then took them to Paris' house, which was reached by automobiles in droves. They were late for lunch too.

"Mrs. Paris is preparing some powerful paraphernalia for dinner," said one of the dusky followers of the champion as they started for the feast.

I will fight this year or any other This statement was made at noon to-This statement was made at noon to-day by Jack Johnson in reply to queries by the Associated Press. The black champion went further. He said: "I have read what Jeffries had to say in New York last night. When Jeffries and John Johnson get in the ring you can bet it will be a great event. People will come from everywhere." and his will come from everywhere," and his eyes glistened as if he was already counting the gate receipts. He continued:

Fight the Most Important.

"I won't let a little thing like a theatrical engagement interfere with the match with Jeffries. I am ready any time. It takes two to make a bargain. When he says he is willing I will be there. If he said this afternoon that he would fight now I will engage to fight him three weeks after I can get to the place where we meet. I will fight him one month from now, two months, three months—any time at all. They can go ahead making the arrangements for this Summer or this Fall as fast as they like. The British theatrical engagement can wait." won't let a little thing like a thea-Johnson likes to picture himself as the Mayor of the city and all the Aldermen sitting around the lesser lights in the ring puddle. The Mayor is the leader, ain't he?"

"Well, it is up to him to meet every-body. I am just the same as the Mayor."

HOTELS BAR BLACK CHAMPION

Johnson Refuses to Be Pinned Down About Fighting Jeffries.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 10 .- Van-VANCOUVER, B. C., Marier the color couver Hotel proprietors drew the color line very strictly last night when Jack Johnson, the black heavyweight chamcoming uptown from the steamer, the colored man, with his wife and friends went first to the St. Francis Hotel. Johnwent first to the St. Francis Hotel. John-son was politely fold that the hotel was filled to overflowing. The clerk was very sorry, but, "really, Mr. Johnson, it cannot be helped." They didn't have any room and that was all there was to it.

The fighter took the turndown with good grace the first time, but when it was repeated in five other hotels, espewas repeated in live other noters, espe-eially $2 a day houses, he was abusive. Mrs. Johnson eaid very little, but was plainly very much disgusted at the turn plainty very much disgusted at the turn of affairs. Late in the evening they ob-tained accommodations at the Dominion, a downtown house. Johnson spent part of the night at the home of George Paris, a boxing instructor.

"They didn't understand my method of training," said Johnson, in explaining the difficulties he had in getting on with the Australians. "I used to get up at 6 o'clock in the morning, eat an orange or some other fruit and then go on the road. By 9 o'clock I had done all my work and the rest of the time I would spend driven. rest of the time I would spend driving about in my car. As the people didn't see me do my training, they thought I wasn't doing any. Then a couple of days before the fight I went out with a party of triands and had a glass of triands. before the fight I went out with a party of friends and had a glass of wine and the report was circulated that I was drunk. Why, I never drink to excess at any time, and least of all when training, but it just goes to show how I got in had."

Fitzpatrick, Johnson's former manager, read in detail the interview given the Associated Press in New York by Jeffries last night. When he had finished he suggested that the big bollermaker was underrating Johnson and added:

"There is only one white man who has any right in the ring with Johnson, and that is Jeffries. But Jefries.

son, and that is Jeffries. But I don't think that even Jeffries could beat the think that even Jeffries could beat the black. Jeffries is a long way from being in shape, and even if he got in good condition I sincerely believe, knowing both well, that the black man would have the better of it. For Corbett to fight Johnson would be ridiculous. Ketchel is altogether too small. It would be a shape to metals them. It would be a shame to match them. for second choice after Jeffries I would select Jim Barry, of Chicago, but really he wouldn't have a chance. Johnson is destined to hold the championship for some time, to my way of thinking."

BIG PLANS FOR SOCCER GAME

Englishmen and Scotchmen Meet on Multnomah Field Saturday.

A generally revised line-up will be pronted by the committee selecting the last of the annual intermitionals, on Multnomah Field, Saturday. Four men who did not figure in the game against Ali-America will be brought out, two of whom have not appeared before in local uniforms. A gingery, well-rounded eleven has seen chosen, but soccer experts think it will have hard work to beat the crack Scotch team, which will be practically the same as the one playing last Satur day against the Americans.

The English will be without Sid. Mills, Multnomah's center, and the best man in that position in town. He has been injured and cannot play for several weeks. In his place will be Billington, a new-comer. The wings will be Quar-terman and Art Mills (captain) on the left and William Dean, the Lancashire crack, and his brother, Thomas Dean, on the right. The halves will be Fenwick, of the Cricketers; Coxon, of the Rangers, and Simons, another new man. Jago, of the Cricketers, and Clarke, of the Col das, will be fullbacks, and Hutchinson will be in goal.

The referee has not been agreed on. ASHLAND WELCOMES VICTORS

Gives Reception and Banquet to Returning Dallas Team.

ASHLAND, Or., March 10.—(Special.)— The Oregon basketball team, of Dallas, Polk County, was given a genuine Ore-gon welcome at its first stop in the state on its victorious home-coming trip, after having defeated some of the best basket-hall teams in the county. ball teams in the country. The Oregons defeated the Ashland team in a lively game Monday evening before a most en-thusiastic crowd at the opera-house. After the game the visitors and the home team were invited to a reception and banquet at Elks' Hall by the Ladles and banquet at Elks' Hall by the Lames Civic Improvement Club, where they were entertained by a bevy of Ashland's beautiful and popular young ladies. The ladies of the club served a supper, at the conclusion of which E. T. Staples, presi-dent of the Commercial Club, formally and facetiously extended greeting on be-balt of Ashland not only to the visiting half of Ashland not only to the visiting basketball boys, but also to the local team, which out of 24 games played during the season has only lost four games. Spring blossoms were festooned into floral decorations particularly appropriate to the occasion and the banquet hall presented a most attractive appearance, crowded with the brain and brawn and beauty of the city. beauty of the city.

Dallas Defeats Albany.

ALBANY, Or., March 10.—(Special.)— The Oregon basketball team, of Dallas, returning from its triumphant tour of the Middle West, played in Albany last night and swamped the Albany High School by a score of 53 to 10. The Albany lads put up a game fight against the big champions, who far outclassed them in size, and at times held them well, but the Dallas players tossed baskets with wonderful skill.

SALEM TO OPEN RACETRACK

Horsemen May Exercise at Fair Grounds After April 1.

SALEM, Or., March 10 .- (Special.) --

The State Fair Board this evening announced that on April 1 the Fair Grounds racettrack will be opened for use of horsemen who desire to train their horses. The track was closed last Fall, notwithstanding a strong protest. Examination shows that because it was not used while wet, the track is now in the best condition it has ever been. The Fair Board has received informa-tion that post of the Eastern livestock coming West for exhibition at the Seatle fair will be entered for exhibit at he State Fair and the Portland Country Club Fair before proceeding to the A-Y-P exposition. This means that the the State Fair will have the biggest live-stock emilit in its history. In preparation for a record-breaking fair the Board will begin soon on numerous improvements for which the Legislature recently appropriated $25,000.

ARE SADLY BUNGLED

How Statutes Stand Since Legislature Finished Tinkering Them.

ALEM, Or., March 10.-(Special.)-As , usual, the enactment of a law relating to the killing of elk in Oregon, was bungled by the recent Legislature until there is doubt as to the real intention of the body. The new game law forbids killing elk between the date of the passage of the act and the first day of August, 1919, but somewhere in the process of enactment there was a period placed after the word "August," and the date "1919" stands as the beginning of a new sentence. Then the remainder of the section permits the killing of elk at any ime in any year except during the month of August. One portion of the section authorizes the sale of elk and another portion forbids the sale of elk meat. The limit of clk killing is one in a season. The section of the game law upon this subject is number 8. The wording and punctuation are as follows: It shall be unlawful to hunt, pursue, take, kill, injure or dearloy or have in possession or to sell, offer for sale, barter or exchange any elk at any time between the date of the passage of this act, and the first day of August, 1919, and from and after first said day of August, 1909, it will be lawful to hunt, pursue, take, kill, injure or offer for sale, barrer or exchange, any elk or elk meat, at any time between the first day of August of the following year. From and after the first day of August, 1909, it shall be unlawful for any person to take, kill, capture or destroy, or have in possession more than one elk in the open season of any year, and it shall be unlawful at any time to sell or offer for sale, barter or exchange, or have in possession for sale, barter or exchange any elk meat. It shall be unlawful at any time, in the State of Oregon, to hunt, pursue, take, kill, injure, destroy or have in possession any female elk.
