H. J. COCHRAN ON EXCURSION RUN

San Francisco Boat Will Go Into Tourist Business Out of Seattle.

CAPT. BEERS IN PORTLAND

Manager of Steamer Passes Through City on Way to Seattle-Boat Is of Stern-Wheel Type, Equipped With Compound Engines.

Captain G. W. Beers, representing a number of San Francisco capitalists, has purchased the steamer H. J. Cochran, and during the coming Summer will operate the vessel on Puget Sound as an excursion boat. Captain Beers passed through Portland yesterday en route to Seattle from San Francisco. The boat is now in his possession and all that remains to be done is to fix the route and bring the boat north.

It is the intention of the new owners of the Cochran to operate her out of Se-attle during the months of the Exposi-tion and to handle only the tourist trade. She will probably make three trips daily on a short run, giving visitors an opportunity to view the sights in and around e exposition city.

The H. J. Cochran was built at Sacramento in 1898 and is considered the most palatial inland water boat ever built in California. She is of the stern-wheel type and was built at a cost of $105,000. She is equipped with cross-compound engines, 28 and 60-inch cylinders, and develops 1200-horse power. New boilers were placed in the vessel in 1905. Since that time she has made but a few trips and is now tied up at Antioch, Cal.

For a daylight run the Cochran has been allowed 800 passengers. She has developed a speed of 17 miles an hour and since her construction has operated. developed a speed of 17 miles an hour and since her construction has operated under the house fing of the Piper, Aden, Goodall Company. On the excursion run on Puget Sound, she will have as competitors the new steamship H. B. Kennedy and the steamer Telegraph. While the latter craft is much smaller than the Cochran, she has developed a speed of more than 20 land miles an hour and is popular with the travefing public. Some interesting speed contests may be looked interesting speed contests may be looked for during the coming Summer.

George D. Gray Visits City.

George D. Gray, senior member of the firm of Gray & Holt, steamship owners of San Francisco, is in Portland on busi-ness connected with the steamships Alliance and Nome City. On arrival in Portland this morning, the Alliance will be taken to the drydock for inspection and repairs. Mr. Gray will remain here for at least a week. During the time that the Alliance is off the run, the Nome City will take her place.

Warrant Out for Captain Scammon.

At the request of Captain J. Speler, harbormaster, a warrant for the arrest of Captain S. H. Scammon, master of the steamer Dalles City, was issued yesterday. Captain Scammon was served with the papers on arrival of the boat from The Dalles yesterday afternoon. The charge on which the master of the Dalles City was arrested is that of exceeding the speed limit within the Port-

Argument on Demurrer in Land-Grant Suit Near Close.

BECKER FINISHES ADDRESS

Supplements Argument of Townsend and Urges That Terms of Grant Are Not Only Contract, but Law as Well.

Argument on the demurrer in the cele-brated Oregon & California land-grant suit is nearing an end. Tracy C. Becker, special assistant to the Attorney-Gen-eral, is concluding the case for the Government and probably will conclude his address some time today when P. F. Dunne, of San Francisco, will close the discussion for the railroad company. The argument can hardly be finished and the case submitted to United States Judge Welverton before Saturday.

Welverton before Saturday.

Mr. Becker supplemented the able argument of B. D. Townsend, who opened the discussion for the Government in its opposition to the demurrer to its bill of complaint, by urging that the grant was complaint, by urging that the grant was not only a contract between the Government and the railroad but was a law as well. He referred to the fact that at the time the grant was made in 1866, the country had just emerged from a long and costly war and that the policy of the Administration was for the development of the more remote sections of the country. In order to promote that development is a contract that development is the country. try. In order to promote that develop-ment, counsel averred, the construction of railroads was an essential factor and it was for that purpose, he said, that the grant to the lands now held by the Oreon & California Railroad Company was

Mr. Becker ineisted that Congress had the right to expect that the lands should be disposed of by the railroad company under the terms imposed by the Govern ment, amendatory of the original grant, during the time the railroad was in pro-cess of construction. Since the railroad cess of construction. Since the railrond company had not so disposed of the lands, coursel maintained that Congress had the right under the terms of the grant, which was in itself a statute, to enforce compliance therewith by the corporation receiving the land from the Government. Mr. Becker contended that the actual settlers and the applicants for the purchase of tracts included in the grant were not properly parties to the pending suit, except to the extent that their rights were not properly parties to the pending sult, except to the extent that their rights were involved as claimants.

William H. Flett, of Sentile, advocate for the applicants for the purchase of the granted lands, concluded his presentment of their contentions during the morning session. Mr. Flett argued that the pending suit instituted by the Government was only a proceeding to require specific performance of a contract. He urged that the grant was a trust and held that apthe grant was a trust and held that ap-plicants for the purchase of the granted lands had the same rights as did those who had settled on the lands and sought possession on the grounds that they were actual settlers.

Mr. Flett was followed briefly by John M. Day, also of Seattle, who spoke for

Dangerous Relief

Many people believe that when a drug gives relief it is doing good. That's a big mistake. Drugs can only give temporary relief, and it is always at the expense of the nerves and vital organs.

If you have a pain or an allment of any kind, you don't want to fool yourself into the belief that you are getting well when you are not. That's all you do when you dose yourself with drugs.

It is easy enough to stop a pain

not. That's ail you do when you dose yourself with drugs.

It is easy enough to stop a pain by stupefying the nerves with poisonous dope, but the pain will return as soon as the stupor passes off. You can force a weak organito act by giving it a powerfusilmulant, but you can't restore its natural strength that way, and it will be weaker than ever when the drug stops working.

That is why temporary relief I dangerous. Drugs do not removate cause of disease, and every minute that they give relief to disease is getting a firmer how there are the cause of disease. As long as the cause remains the trouble stay there, and the only way to get ris of it is to assist nature. Nature wants strength, vitality, power to fight disease and drive it out, not poisons, which only make it worse. Electricity is nature's medicine, and the proper use of it will restore you to perfect health.

Why I Cure Men

A great many people do not seem to understand the difference between the regular practitioner and the medical expert who has devoted his life study to, say, three or four complicated diseases. They seem to be under the impression that any physician cures any disease with equal success. It is an every-day experience to have a patient say: "I have tried nearly every remedy sold by druggists for my trouble," and the invariable verdict is "No benefit." Another will say: "I have been treated by several family physicians in my neighborhood who thought they could cure me, but the results proved otherwise."

More Men Might Be Well

There are scores and hundreds of afflicted men who believe their cases incurable because treatment of the past has resulted in failure, and who through this belief are being deprived of the full and complete health that might be theirs. I do not claim that there are no incurable cases, but I do claim that many cases absolutely ineurable by such treatment as has been given them will yield promptly to the correct and scientific methods that I exclusively employ. I offer free consultation and will accept for treatment nocases unless I am confident of my ability to effect a complete cure. This is meant emphatically.

My Treatment for Weakness

Bosing the system with powerful stimulants and tonics in an effort to restore functional vigor can have but one final result. The condition is rendered worse than before. "Weakness" is merely an indication of a low form of inflammation in the prostate gland, and the inflammation is but aggravated by stimulating remedies that excite temporary activity. I employ the only scientific and fully effective treatment for "weakness" which effects a permanent cure by restoring the prostate gland to a sound and healthy state. I obtain complete results in every case I treat. Interesting literature and a beautifully engraved chart free if you will call. Varicocele Cured

Under my treatment the most aggravated cases of varicocele are cured in a few days' time. There is no pain, and it is seldom necessary that the patient be detained from his occupation. Normal circulation is at once restored throughout all the organs, and the natural processes of waste and repair are again established. If you are afficied with Varicocele consult me at once. Delay can but bring on aggravated conditions and nervous complications that will impair the vital functions and involve the general health.

Contracted Disorders

Every case of contracted disease I trent is cured thoroughly. My patients have no relapses. When I pronounce a case cured there is not a particle of in fection or inflammation remaining, and there but the slightest danger that the disease will return in its original form or work its way into the general sys-tem. Some contracted diseases are less serious than others, but none are so trivial as to warrant uncer-tain methods of treatment. I especially solicit those cases that other doctors have been unable to cure.
