Wheat Advances in Spite of Government Figures.

BLUESTEM SOLD AT $1.25

eats and Barley Strong With an Upward Tendency-Hay Steadier Because of Light Arrivals. Country Produce Active.

Wheat continues to advance steadily in the local market in spite of the remarkable ers' holdings in this section of the country. That there is nothing like the quantity represented, but instead, an actual hortage is plainly indicated by the tactics of millers in all the Coast states who are continually bidding up prices to get needed

Bluestern, the supply of which is almost one, has in the past few days sold at $1.20, and one small lot is reported to have day at $1.10 and $1.05 was offered for abated a particle, notwithstanding the enormous supply the Government says exists on the Coast. The local demand is strong enough, with the scanty offerings, to keep the market firm at $39 a ton. Barley is likewise strong at $30 a ton.

There is a steadler feeling in the hay marset, as receipts in the last week have been musually light. Dealers do not think there a much opportunity to do business with San Francisco, although prices are exceedingly high there. Timothy could be laid down at San Francisco at a good profit under the prevailing quotations, but con-sumers there are not used to this variety f forage, preferring grain hay, of which but little is to be had here.

Bid and asked prices were posted at the Board of Trade as follows:

CALIFORNIA PRODUCE CLEANS UP. ily Two Curs of Bananas Coming Next

teccipts of California produce were light-yesterday and the market cleaned up well. Two cars of fancy celery and one car of mixed vegetables came in. Except for Mexican tomatoes there was no oversupply of anything and prices in general were firm.

Two cars of oranges were due last night Only two cars of bananas will be in the next shipment.

There were no new developments in the state market, which was moderately firm a normal California inquiry. Onlone are ving at former prices.

The California prune market is difficult to quote, according to the California Fruit Grower. It says: "In view of the absence of Grower it says: "In view of the absence of large inquiry and the instability of prices that has been in evidence recently, quota-tions in this line are low with the exception of the large sizes. Forties are being held at increased premiums over figures that have been ruling, and specifications calling for any large proportion of 40s in an order are in most cases only accepted at a stiff Color Fuel & Iron.

The end market was slow and weak. Shipping orders were not heavy and local retailers were cautious in their buying. Front-street dealers quoted 22 and 22½ cents.

The supply of poultry was small and the market was firm, chickens especially being in good demand.

Butter holds firm at the old price. The supply is better than it was last week, but will have to increase considerably before the market is affected.

Slack Demand for Wheat in the Southwest.

CROP WEATHER FAVORABLE

These Factors Combine to Induce Liberal Realizing at Chicago, Which Results in a Weak Market.

CHICAGO, March 18 - Slack demand for spired liberal realising in the wheat market today, which resulted in a weak close. During the day May sold between $1.14% and $1.15½ and July ranged between $1.25% and $1.84. During the final hour realizing sales predominated and the market closed weak at almost the bottom, final quotations on May showing a loss of $6 to $4.01c. May closing at $1.14% and July at $1.02% $1.00. May closing at $1.14% and July at $1.02% $1.02.

Much of the ground gained by corn prices during yesterday's sharp bulge was lost today on selling led by several of the prominent holders. The market closed at almost the low point, with May at 05% and July at 67%.

The oats market was weak all day. At the close prices were 1/c to 5.0% to below yesterday's final quotations. May being at 55% and July at 45%.

Provisions prices broke sharply as a result of liberal realizing sales. Shall quotations showing losses of 171/c to 25c compared with the previous close.
