

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES.
Counting-Room	Main 7079	A 6065
City Circulation	Main 7079	A 6065
Managing Editor	Main 7079	A 6065
Sunday Editor	Main 7079	A 6065
Composing-Room	Main 7079	A 6065
City Editor	Main 7079	A 6065
Supt. Buildings	Main 7079	A 6065

AMUSEMENTS.

HEILIG THEATER—(14th and Washington Streets)—Victor Herbert and Henry Russell's musical comedy, "The Red Mill," tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

O. N. G. (Fourth and Couch)—First Annual Automobile Show, under auspices Portland Automobile Club. Tonight at 7:30.

BUNGALOW THEATRE—(Twelfth and Morrison)—"The College Widow," tonight at 8:15.

BAKER THEATRE—(Third near Yamhill)—"The College Widow," tonight at 8:15.

ORFÈVRE THEATRE—(Morrison, between Sixth and Seventh)—Advancing vaudeville. Matinee at 2:15; tonight at 8:15.

GRAND THEATRE—(Twelfth and Morrison, between Seventh and Park)—Vaudeville de luxe, 2:30, 7:30 and 9 P. M.

PANTAGES THEATRE—(Fourth and Stark)—Continuous vaudeville, 2:30, 7:30 and 9:30 P. M.

DEATH OF DR. HENRY L. COFFIN—Dr. Henry L. Coffin, a pioneer dentist of this city, died at his home, 283 1/2 Eugene street, Alhambra, Wednesday night, from a stroke of paralysis Saturday night, March 8. His health had been failing for the past seven years so that he had retired from the practice of his profession, Saturday.

Dr. Coffin appeared in his usual health and that night he was stricken, the left side being affected. Dr. H. R. Alden and Dr. W. B. Hamilton were summoned, but they concluded that the attack would prove fatal. Dr. Coffin had been a resident of Portland 34 years, coming at that time from The Dalles to study dentistry in the office of Dr. C. H. Chance.

After completing his studies he opened an office on the East Side, over the drugstore of the Raffle Bros., continuing in active business until five years ago. His father was Captain Henry Coffin, who commanded the Flying Cloud, a famous vessel, and settled in early days in the Willamette Valley after moving to The Dalles.

Dr. Coffin was highly respected by all who knew him. He is survived by three brothers and one sister—Arthur, Stanley and Lester Coffin, of Yakima, who are now in the city, and Mrs. E. B. McFarland, of Portland. The funeral will be held this afternoon from Holman's chapel.

Art Society's New Home—The Danish Aid Society, which purchased the building of the Central Methodist Church, on Russell and Kerby streets, Alhambra, several months ago, having it remodeled at an expense of $3000. The lower floor of the building, which had been used as the Sunday school room, has been fixed up with anterooms. The auditorium has been changed into an assembly hall. A stage has been built where the pulpit stood, with scenery, while at the other end a gallery has been placed. As remodeled the building has entirely lost its identity as a church. The repairs will be completed this month. A public reception will be held Sunday from 2 to 6 P. M., at which District Attorney Cameron will speak. The Swedish, Danish and Norwegian singing societies will also take part in the programme. Refreshments will be served.

ENTERTAIN ON ST. PATRICK'S EVE—The United Garment Workers, Local 225, under the management of Mrs. Geo. have planned for Tuesday evening, March 14, St. Patrick's eve, an entertainment that will be a treat to all. It will be held at the Y. W. C. A., Seventh and Taylor streets. For the lovers of the old Irish melodies, Miss Lena Harwar will sing "Kathleen Mavourneen," "Killarney" and other old songs that touch the heart. The Tuxedo Quartet will be on hand with songs and also "Whistling Tommy," with his splendid imitation of bird songs. There will be a dancing club extravaganza, a short sketch called, "A Neighborly Call" and a cello solo by S. Hansen. The little ones will be represented by Gladys Kattum.

BURGULARY SUSPECTS CAUGHT—Clarence Hood, Arthur Hanks and Al Morgan, three alleged burglars and room workers, were arrested yesterday afternoon, by Detectives Price and Coleman. The three men are accused of having operated extensively in the city for several years past. They are said to have entered the home of B. F. Davey, 830 East Thirty-fifth street, several days ago, stealing $25. They also are said to have pilfered rooms at the Winchester House. The officers had been watching them for several days and are confident of convicting the trio.

COUNCIL TO MEET TUESDAY—The City Council will meet in adjourned session next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, to consider the blanket franchise, for which application has been made by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. The franchise covers 40 new lines and extensions, switches and spurs. A tentative draft was sent to the City Executive Board for appraisal, but the committee on valuation of franchises refused to place any estimate upon the franchise, because it was understood that further changes would be made by the Council.

WIDE BRIDGE MODERN BRICK—The Hill estate of Alhambra will erect a two-story modern brick on Russell street, between Vancouver and Williams avenues, with a four-foot frontage. The new building is wrecking the two-story frame building which stand on the site of the proposed brick structure. The buildings now being removed are landmarks, having been erected in the early days of Alhambra when it was an independent city. The new building will cost about $25,000.

TRINITY ILLUSTRATED by Rev. J. F. D. Lively, D. D., under the auspices of the Trinity Mission Guild, at Trinity parish-house, at 4 P. M. First—"The City of Peter the Great," March 12; second—"Moscow and the Kremlin," March 13; third—"A Visit to the Cathedrals of Whitberg," March 14. Admission 50 cents, course ticket $1.

PROPERTY CONVEYED TO COUNTY—The deed conveying to Multnomah County the Smith homestead tract, on 32nd and Hooker streets, has been filed in the County Clerk's office. The property was purchased from C. B. Smith for $50,000. It is assessed at $15,000, while the improvements are assessed at $3000. The old Smith residence will be used temporarily as a county hospital.

SERMON BY DR. WISE TOMORROW—"The Religion of the Old Testament: Prophecy," will be the topic of Rabbi Jonah B. Wise's sermon at Temple Beth Israel tonight. The service commences at 8 o'clock. Strangers welcome.

SEE US TODAY or tomorrow for special offering: 300 Fidelity Copper, 44 shares Campbell's Automatic Safety Gas Burner and 100 shares of Bonville Pub. Co. Ann. quickly. F. J. Catterlin & Co., Chamber of Commerce.

WILL WRESTLE to a finish, Albright and Sullivan, for the middleweight championship of the Pacific Coast, at Merrill's hall, Seventh and Oak streets, March 16, at 8:30 P. M. Don't fail to see this match.

JUVENILE RECEIVED, fresh from spring supply, of Wild Pigeon Springs mineral water; cures stomach troubles and constipation. Address: 265 Ash st. Phone 5 same number, Main or 262.

HENRY ROSE has been elected president and manager of the National Automatic Fire Alarm Company, Oregon, and at present will transact all business of the company at 388 Yamhill street.

$5,000 or any part to loan for term of years, West Side only. Jackson & Deering, 246 Stark street.

TEMPORARY offices of George Alnall & Co., 614 Corbett bldg.

Baker Farmers to Organize.

BAKER CITY, Or., March 11—(Special.)

cial.)—A call has been issued to the farmers of Baker County to meet in this city Saturday, March 12, to organize a Farmers' Union. Representatives of the Oregon Threshers' Association, with headquarters in Portland, will address the farmers. There are over 32 threshing outfits in Baker County, estimated to be worth $2000 each, or a total of $66,000.

Heller Concert Proves Musical Treat

AN INTERESTING musical event was the recital given last night in Temple Beth Israel by Herman Heller, violinist, assisted by Mrs. Elfrida Heller-Weinstein, soprano, and Dr. H. N. Heller, tenor, with Miss Paula Heller and Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer at the piano.

Mr. Heller's programme included several classic violin selections which served to show his thorough command over his instrument. In his opening number the "Garden of Remembrance," Max Bruch's demonstration of his ability to cope with the technical difficulties of the various movements with assurance and ease. The delicate harmonies in the Andante from the Second Viennese concert were brought out with fine effect. That Mr. Heller is a composer of exceptional talent the little "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Weinstein's numbers included Grieg's "Lieblich," "Rogers' "At Parting" and Beethoven's "Adelaide," all of which were effectively rendered. Mrs. Weinstein was at her best in the "Song Without Words" played last night clearly showed. It has a very pretty melody that made an instant appeal. A "Melodie," by Ole Bull, was another lyric bit that sang itself out feelingly to an appreciative audience.

The Man

Who lives within his means and systematically deposits a part of his earnings in a bank where it draws interest, has acquired a habit that means success.

The Oldest Trust Company in Oregon

Invites you to open an account today.

We Pay From 2% to 4%

Call for our statement and book of "ILLUSTRATIONS."

Portland Trust Company of Oregon

S. E. CORNER THIRD AND OAK STREETS

BENJ. L. COHEN, President
H. J. PITCOCK, Vice-President
W. S. RICHES, 2nd Vice-President
W. J. E. PAGE, Secretary
C. W. DEGRAFF, Cashier

later represented Horst in this section some years ago.

FAIR HOSTESSES CHOSEN

WOMEN'S CLUBS WILL PRESIDE AT A-Y-P-E.

Oregon Federation Matrons Selected From All Parts of State Plan Notable Social Festivities.

The Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs will have entire charge of the social events at the Oregon building during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, which opens at Seattle on the first of next June. Mrs. Sarah A. Burns, for four years has held the position of federation president, has appointed the following club members to act as hostesses during the time allotted to their particular county or city.

Pendleton—Mrs. C. J. Smith and Mrs. T. Starkweather.
Salem—Mrs. Claude Gatch.
Roseburg—Mrs. Frank Benson.
Union—Mrs. Cora Davis.
Hood River—Mrs. E. L. Smith.
The Dalles—Mrs. Elizabeth Lord.
Cottage Grove—Mrs. Henry H. Veatch.
Eugene—Mrs. J. Frazer.
La Grande—Mrs. Turner Oliver.
Oregon City—Mrs. Mary U'ren.
McMinnville—Mrs. Emma Galloway.
Astoria—Mrs. Samuel Elmore and Mrs. C. E. Gearhart.
Aurora—Mrs. J. W. Sadler.
Oswego—Mrs. Q. H. Sellinger.
Milwaukie—Mrs. M. L. E. Roberts.
Arleta—Mrs. J. A. Dunbar.
Brooklyn—Mrs. A. D. Dinnick.
Woodburn—Mrs. Frank Settemer.
Corvallis—Mrs. J. W. Kerr.
Klamath Falls—Mrs. F. A. Cozwell.
Grainland—Mrs. J. D. Dinnick.
Coquille—Miss Inez Luak.
Forest Grove—Miss Mary Farnham.
Baker City—Mrs. Samuel White.
Hood River—Mrs. Kaufman and Mrs. McCormac.
North Bend—Mrs. Louis Simpson.
Newberg—Mrs. C. J. Edwards.
Ontario—Mrs. Ethel Blackaby.
Silverton—Mrs. William A. Dinnick.
Tillamook—Mrs. Fred Harlow.
Weston—Mrs. E. C. French.
Ashland—Mrs. E. V. Carter and Mrs. E. C. Gard.

The Portland hostesses will be Mrs. J. C. Hare, Mrs. R. Neustadter, Mrs. William Amos, Mrs. A. H. Breyman, Miss Anne Shannon Monroe and Miss Zell McCarthy.

The executive committee is composed of Mrs. Frank Benson, Roseburg; Mrs. E. L. Smith, Hood River, and Mrs. A. H. Breyman, Mrs. R. Neustadter, Mrs. J. C. Hare, Mrs. Frederic Elbert and Mrs. P. J. Mann (chairman), of Portland.

Honorary members are Mrs. George E. Chamberlain and Mrs. Harry Lane; ex-officio members are Mrs. Sarah A. Burns, president of the Federation, and Mrs. J. D. Hays, corresponding secretary.

No definite plans have been made as yet regarding the entertainment or social events to be given at the Exposition, but after the meeting of the executive committee on Saturday further announcements will be made. Each federated club in the state, of which there are 42, will be represented, the present plan being to let the size of the club regulate the number of days its members will act as hostesses. In this event the Portland Women's Club and the Council of Jewish Women will serve several days, since they are among the largest organizations in the state.

Special effort will be made to represent the county and city of each club simultaneously, as more general interest will be evinced. An additional vote will be given to the extension of the exposition from the Oregon Federation to other prominent organizations.

Preparations are under way for a new materials, latest styles. Manufacturers' samples secured for 50 cents on each dollar will be placed on sale today. See Morrison-street windows for a few of the styles. You can save from $10 to $15 on one of these sample suits. McAllen-McDonnell, corner Third and Morrison.

Mr. Flora is survived by two sons, George R. and Fred D. Flora. The funeral will be held from Dunning's chapel at East Alder and East Fifth streets at 2 P. M. Saturday.

being the cause of his death. Mr. Flora was born in Canada in 1840. The family moved to New York, where he was a child. Mr. Flora came to Portland in 1896, where he has lived ever since. He was the organizer of the Oregon Distributing