CANNON SECURES REVENGEON CLARK

Appoints All Committeemen Himself and Honors Fitzgerald.

CUSHMAN GETS PROMOTION

Washington Member on Ways and Means-Clark Expresses Irritation at Slight-Democrats Hiss Fitzgerald.

WASHINGTON, March 16 .- Speaker Cannon used his power in pointing committees of the House today to take revenge on Clark, of Missourl, the Democratic leader, for his alliance with the Republican insurgents in the fight on rules and to reward Fitzgerald, of New York, for causing a split among the Democrats on that issue. He resumed the power to appoint both majority and minority committeemen, after having allowed Williams to name the Democrats in the last two Congresses, and thus struck a blow at Clark. He appointed Fitzgerald with Clark to the rules committee, and thus dealt a blow and rewarded Fitzgerald at the same time. gave additional recognition to the Parific Coast by placing Cushman, of Washington, on the ways and means committee and thus giving him a voice in the preparation of the tariff bill.

are steed the appointment of Fitzger-aid on the rules committee, which the Speaker each time squelched by sharp-ly bringing down his gavel and admon-ishing the galleries that they must ob-serve the propriettea. This novel way of rebuking the members who had en-gaged in the hissing brought from that side of the House only groans and guffaws.

Clark Criticises Cannon.

Discussing the personnel of the com-mittee, Mr. Clark said: mittee. Mr. Clark said:

Originally the Speaker had the power, and servised it to appoint all committees, both the majority and minority membera. Under Speaker Roed, when Balley of Texis was the minority leader, and under Speaker Roed, when Balley of Texis was the minority leader, and under Speaker Roed, when Balley of Texis was the minority leaders were consulted a good deal regarding the appointment of minority members. When Jannon was elected Speaker and Williams minority leader, the Speaker conferred on the minority leader the favor of appointing minority members on committees, with one or two reservations.

Now the Speaker resumes the power of appointing the majority and minority members on committees, for the purpose of punishing me, because I had the courage to light certain things he wanted done. He has a porfect right to appoint the majority and minority members and I am not complaining, but his efforts to punish me will be absolutely futile if his purpose is to swerve me from the line of conduct which I think it for the welfare of the Democratic party and therefore of the country.

Will Make His Own Pince.

Will Make His Own Pince.

Committee assignments don't make and unmake men in the House. I had nothing whatever to do with the appointment of the committee on ways and means and the committee on rules and I would not have cared a baubee if he had put me on the tail end of the committee on vertilette. tail end of the committee on ventilation and acoustics. Every man makes his own place in the House of Representatives. He did not give me my place and he can't take it away from me

Representative Underwood, of Ala-bama, would not discuss his appoint-ment on the ways and means committhe other than to say:

"If Mr. Clark asks me to resign from the committee on ways and means my resignation will be at the Speaker's desk within two minutes."

House in Good Humor Again.

In striking contrast to the scenes of confusion, disorder and acrimonious debate which marked the opening day of the House, the session today assumed its wonted air of benignity. There was general good feeling among the members. The anticipated message of President Taft was received and met with prolonged applause from the Republicans. Some disapointment, however, was felt over the fact that the tariff measure was not presented. however, was felt over the fact that the tariff measure was not presented. This, it is expected, will be done to-morrow. Interest attached to the an-nouncement by the Speaker of the personnel of the committee on rules and the committee on ways and means. #### Lottery for Seats

Lottery for Scats

As a special compliment Bingham, of Pennsylvania, the father of the House; Sherwood and Klefer, of Ohlo: Payne, of New York; Clark, of Missouri; Tawney, of Minnesota; Livingston, of Georgia; Sperry of Consetticut, the oldest members of the House; De Armond, of Missouri, and Talbot, of Maryland, were allowed to select their seats without reference to the result of the drawing.

Some of the old members were especially fortunate in procuring desirable seats. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, and Mann, of Illinois, got their former seats. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, and Mitchcock, of Nebraska, were among those lucky in their locations.

A storm of laughter at the expense of Clark, of Missouri, was created when he suggested that the Democrats who were forced to occupy the so-called Cherokee strip to the extreme right of the Speaker, be allowed to choose seats in the last tier, and not be compelled to "mix up" with the Republicans.

In view of the allance of the Republican "insurgents" and the Democrats on the question of modifying the rules, the humor of the suggestion became at once apparent, but it nevertheless prevailed.

EXCHANGE OF COMPLIMENTS

Cannon and Clark Express Opinions of Each Other. WASHINGTON, March 16.—Speaker Cannon and Champ Clark, the minority leader of the House, swapped tart remarks about each other at the White House today. The Speaker called upon the President early in the morning, and when he was leaving the Executive Offices made this answer to a question as to the fight in the House yesterday:

purest temmyrot. There has never been a time when the majority could not control the House. What they wanted to do was to make a committee of 15 chars, dominated by Champ Clark and La Follette. That also is tommyrot. La Follette is a fake."

rot. La Follette is a fake."

When Representative Champ Clark called on President Taft later in the morning he was told what the Speaker had said. He answered briefly:

"Uncle Joe has paresis."

Mr. Clark would not comment further except to say that the amendments to the rules adopted yesterday amounted to very little.

WASHINGTON, March 16 .- The contest over the appointment of a Collector of Customs of Charleston, S. C., which was waged for so long a time over the selec-tion of Dr. William D. Crum, was ter-minated today by the appointment by President Taft of Edward W. Durant, Jr. Mr. Durant is a white man, and as the only objection to Crum was based upon the fact that he is a negro, it is pre-sumed that Mr. Durant's nomination will be confirmed.

be confirmed.

Dr. Crum's nomination had been before the Senate at each session since January 5, 1903. While he has been in office all this time, he was never but once confirmed by the Senate.

The selection of Mr. Durant is generally accepted as the introduction of President Taft's announced policy of appointing white men to Federal positions of responsibility in the South.
