

TWO MORE ADDED TO CASEY'S COLTS

Mullin and Harrigan on Way to Report for Duty at Camp in Medford.

APPEARANCE PLEASES FANS

Northwestern Players Report That in Omaha They Saw Catcher Tom Murray Who Will Soon Join McCredie's Team.

BY W. J. FETTERMAN
Charles A. Mullin, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who is slated to hold down the initial sack for the Portland Northwestern League club, accompanied by Catcher John Harrigan, of Kansas, arrived in Medford yesterday morning on their way to Medford to join Pearl Casey's squad at the Spring training camp.

Mullin is a strapping fellow, but on the order of "Jiggs" Duggan, of the American League club, and like the famous brother of Pat Donahue, formerly of Portland, he is possessed of a "carrot top." Little and active in his movements, the big fellow appears to be every inch an athlete, and Manager Walter McCredie was seemingly well advised when he put in a draft for this player. Harrigan is a stocky-built chap, with a powerful pair of shoulders, indicating that he may show considerable class as a catcher.

While at Omaha Mullin and Harrigan met Catcher Tom Murray, who was en route to San Luis Obispo to join the Pacific Coast League club. The members of the two Portland teams held a pleasant reunion at the depot of the Nebraska metropolis and discussed their prospects. According to Mullin, Murray was very favorably inclined to join the Portland Coasters, but said he would reserve his opinion until after he has seen something of the country.

"Murray said he had several chances to play in the East," said Mullin last night, "and was especially anxious to be allowed to play with Pittsburg. He informed me that he had received a very nice letter from Judge W. W. McCredie, and Murray says this letter explained a lot of things to him that he had not known before. Still, he was set upon playing with Pittsburg that he may not like California. I don't know much about him as a catcher, but he'll have to hustle some to keep pace with this Armbruster, who is playing with Portland."

"When asked about his own impressions and prospects Mullin replied: "I have never felt better in my life, and I must say that this is a glorious weather. Do you have this kind all spring? Well, if it is half as good it will be plenty. I feel like getting into the game right away. I know many of the players who are with the western team, but I guess I'll get acquainted fast enough. I know most of the Aberdeen, and Magee and Ross of the Seattle bunch. I guess I'll soon get acquainted in this league. Anyway, I'll do my best to help Manager Casey and the Portland team win that pennant."

Mullin and Harrigan look like a good pair to draw to. They are anxious to get to Medford and should report to Casey at noon today, when they left at 7:45 o'clock for the training camp.

The news brought by Mullin that Murray is on the way is welcome intelligence to the fans, for it means that Manager McCredie's holdout squad has now dwindled down to Casey and Ryan. The latter has been stalling round Denver principally keeping the wires hot for his railroad ticket, which was sent him over two weeks ago. Now that he is being kept away from Portland by the order of J. Cal Ewing.

"Well, I guess I'll have to brave it out with the old fellow, after all," said Wheeler Jones last night, when informed that Comiskey had started for Portland. "I hate to disappoint Casey, but I can't see my way clear to do otherwise. By the way, this way of retiring from baseball when you have one of the best hands in the world as a boss, besides several hundred rabid fans who shoot through telegrams every week, is a harder task than I imagined it, but I'll have gone through with it this far. I guess I'll stick right here in Portland, all right. I am commencing to warm up to Casey's bunch already, for you know I have adopted the Northwestern team as my special protegee this season."

which contemplate playing independent ball this season are requested to be in attendance, and the promoters of the new league expect an organization of from 8 to 12 clubs can be formed.

DENTISTS WALLOP DOCTORS

North Pacific Does Up Willamette by Score of 10 to 5.

The dental students of the North Pacific Dental College defeated the knights of the lancet from Willamette University yesterday by the score of 10 to 5 in what was undoubtedly the hottest game between the professional rivals of the season.

Charles A. Mullin, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Who Arrived in Portland Yesterday, on His Way to Medford.

The dentist drilled holes completely through the batting of the medical students and did some execution, but he had not the support necessary to win the game, which was played on Multnomah Field. The lineup follows:

Dentists	position	Doctors
Spaulding	Strick
Johnson	Ziegler
Holler	Brooke
Holler	Brooke
Smith	Denmore
Schmidt	Russell

O'CONNELL TAKES ANOTHER

WILL WRESTLE URLACHER ON MARCH 26.

Portland Sports Will Have Chance to See Three Good Matches in Series Next Week.

In order that two wrestling matches may not come so close together, and because Tremblay will be unable to reach Portland by April 1, O'Connell has made a slight switch in his wrestling programme. Instead of wrestling on April 1, he has announced his next match for the night of March 30, the same night Dr. Holler meets Hjalmar Lundin in Seattle, and the Multnomah instructor's opponent will be Joe Trichter, a new York wrestler who recently defeated Con Albright three falls in one hour.

O'Connell is meeting Urlacher in a straight match, and while the Easterner outweighs the local grappler, O'Connell believes he can defeat him. Urlacher will weigh in at noon of the day of the match at 160 pounds. The O'Connell-Tremblay bout is slated for April 8, which means the Portland wrestling fans will have a series of three matches, each of which is expected to be exciting.

John Berg, or Young Hackenschmidt, who is to wrestle Dr. Benjamin Franklin Roller of Seattle, April 2 left last night for Eugene, where he is matched with Joe La Salle at catch weights for Thursday night. "Hack" came down from Shipper's springs yesterday and expressed himself as at a fiddle. He said his leg was so strong he decided to take on La Salle in a practice match. La Salle is a fairly good wrestler and "Hack" must believe himself quite strong to tackle this man so close to the date of his contest with Dr. Roller, who is known as the best man in the country.

COMISKEY IS AFTER JONES

White Sox Manager Still Confident of Landing Fielder.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Charles Comiskey, manager of the White Sox, accompanied by his personal party, consisting of Mrs. Comiskey, John Burns and John Agnew, left for the East tonight for Portland, where he is expected to make an arrangement with Manager Randall of the rink whereby the seating for Eugene, where he is matched with Joe La Salle at catch weights for Thursday night.

TEAM IN EXCELLENT SHAPE

With but Few Days Before First Game, Portland Aggregation is Right Up to Mark and is Expected to Play Fine Ball.

BY WILL G. MACRAE
SAN LUIS OBISPO, Cal., March 23.—(Special.)—Already the hounds down here are barking at Manager McCredie and the Portland team, and everything points to a hot time for the Portland magnum this season. The row that has been kicked up over Shinn, and the fact that McCredie has two teams which have been at all to the fancy of these narrow-minded California fans, and that they are going to take it out on the team that is the surest thing you know. At least the San Francisco scribes were blaming President Cal Ewing for allowing Portland to break in on the Northwestern League, and for Mr. Ewing being taking the blame rather than tell the truth. Then on the heels of this came his attempt to deprive the McCredies of the two and a half hours of baseball from Sacramento south to Los Angeles is taking a wallop at Portland, and especially at McCredie.

This California wing of the Coast League has never been over-much in love with Portland, not since the McCredies' party has been insisted upon. As long as Portland was willing to dole out its swaddling clothes and was willing to take whatever was offered, things went along smoothly. When Portland demanded and insisted upon getting what was coming, then the California moguls began to howl about unreasonable demands. They have assumed the attitude that it was a concession to allow Portland to put a team in the Coast League, when in fact the city up north has done more than its share in keeping the league going.

What the Papers Say.

A sample of what Manager McCredie can expect this season, and the feeling that is being created in Sacramento, Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles is very apparent. One newspaper in San Francisco, in printing the account of the White Sox game, said: "Even Portland is the White Sox." Down in Los Angeles one of the afternoon newspapers came out the other day with a long screed abusing McCredie, and charged him with robbing the city of infants and putting them in a Portland uniform. I have no idea who the brilliant scribe is who wrote this, but in charity it must have been some $10-a-week scribbler.

Now, Portland may not win the Coast League, but it is altogether too early to make any prediction about it. That Manager Mac has a lot of hired men on his payroll, taking them man for man, is being a good thing for the team in the league, or right then many for man. It is to be hoped that Captain Dillon and the rest of his veterans hold the same opinion of the Portland team. If they have this opinion, they will give a brilliant opportunity to change their minds within the next ten days. By watching the game which is the other Coast League team has played against the Chicago team, I can't for the life of me see where they have anything on us.

Mac Ready for Trouble.

Manager McCredie realizes he is going to be up against it down here this season, and he is going to be ready for trouble. The same is being said by the route to the pennant will be ready with many rough passages, especially if the umpires are seeking to curry favor with President Ewing. All that is needed is a manager, and about the first thing that should be attempted will be to goad him beyond endurance, so as to make his head. He realizes this, and will be on his guard.

Before the season opens he will hold several heart-to-heart talks with his players, and they will be warned to look out for breakers ahead. This does not mean that he will lay down and quietly submit to being double-crossed, and he will send a lot of ball players onto the field that will be frightened and afraid to fight.

Some Past History.

Here's another sample of San Francisco's loyalty: Last season, it will be remembered, the Seals opened in Portland. The team played four games, and Nick Williams took back with him a check for $200 for his share of the gate. On the opening day some one kicked a board off the fence, and it was rumored that he charged money to let people through the opening. When Williams returned to San Francisco he flouted the check, and then had the nerve to say he had been robbed in Portland, giving out the impression that the McCredies were the responsible parties.

for his ticket. Ryan evidently expected the railroad company to slip it to him by a special messenger.

CASEY NOW AT MEDFORD

CAPTAIN AND SEVEN PLAYERS START TRAINING.

Men Begin to Unlimber Immediately After Arrival and Make Excellent Showing on the Diamond.

MEDFORD, Or., March 23.—(Special.)—Captain Manager Pearl Casey, of the Portland Northwestern League baseball team, and seven of the players arrived in Medford this morning, and as the sun was bright and shining and the weather just like summer, they could hardly wait until they had lunch before they dashed away to the ball grounds for two and a half hours of some active practice before several hundred citizens and fans who turned out to see them.

Besides Captain Casey, the following members of the team are now here: J. Bassey, left field; Troesch, catcher, and the following pitchers, Gardner, Penner, Osburne, Coleman and McFarland. Most of the other players and the ball game suits are expected tomorrow.

FANDOM AT RANDOM

WITH Catchers Harrigan and Four-winner at Medford, Manager Casey will not worry much over the attitude of Catcher Beaumont.

Two ball teams in action at one time—poor old Mr. Fran has his troubles keeping cases on the "doings." Many breakfasts can be expected to cool off during the next few days—before being eaten. Guess the reason?

Charley Mullin—not of Seattle—but Portland's new first baseman, is a likely looking youngster. He is husky enough to meet all the requirements and is bound to be a hit with the fans.

President Lucas is well pleased with the comments of the fans on his selection of Umpire Jimmy Flynn. Several prominent bugs visited the Northwestern city yesterday for the purpose of congratulating the president on his judgment.

For the first time since Larry McLean, Portland seems to be well fortified behind the bat. Charley Armbruster, the big fellow now with the Portland "White Sox," is performing in a highly creditable manner. When Murray arrives, McCredie will ask no favors from any club in the league as far as backstops are concerned.
