FUND BUILDING UP

Progress Made by "500,000 in 1912" Committees.

WILL OVERLOOK NOBODY

Campaign Is Being Organized Into Strong United Effort to Pull for State of Oregon as Well as for Portland.

Gratifying progress was made yesterday by the soliciting committee of the Commercial Club for the $100,000 publicity fund.

The new publicity campaign, while its slogan is "500,000 for Portland," is not confined to Portland by any means.

GASTON TO GET ACADEMY

ADVENTISTS WILL MOVE LAURELWOOD SCHOOL.

Plan to Establish It on Larger Scale—Advanced Steps in Educational Work Decided On.

At the sessions of the Western Oregon Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists yesterday the entire day was occupied with educational matters, and it was decided to take advanced steps in improving the church school system.

The principal new measure determined on was the recommendation of the committee on plans that the Laurelwood intermediate school be changed into an academy and that it be called the Laurelwood Academy, located at Gaston.

President M. E. Cady, of the Walla Walla College, opposed the resolution on the ground that the action should not be taken until after the General Educational Convention had passed on such matter.

The seat sale for the Admiral Evans lecture starts this morning at Rowe & Martin's drugstore.

WE WILL PAY THESE PRICES: Dressed Hogs, 9c; Dressed Veal under 130 lbs., 8c; Dressed Veal, large, 7c to 8 1/2c; Dressed Hens and Springs, 15c; Live Hens and Springs, 15c; Dressed Turkeys, 20c; Eggs, 15c.

LARGE SALES CONFIRMED

DEALS IN NORTH END MAY MEAN A BIGGER DEPOT.

Indications Are Very Strong That Some New Railroad Is Seeking to Invade Terminal District.

Confirmation was obtained yesterday of the purchase of at least three blocks facing the circle to the southwest of the Union Depot.

Mr. Henry said yesterday that no more is to be said for publication than in the case of the Thirteenth-street deal some weeks ago.

The seat sale for the Admiral Evans lecture starts this morning at Rowe & Martin's drugstore.
