RECALL FACTION

Alexander Elected, Though Socialists Poll Surprising Vote.

OLD PARTIES BOTH SPLIT

Both Throw Many Votes to Wheeler, but Recallers Have Advantage of Organization and Cash-End of the Harper Regime.

LOS ANGELES, March 26 .- (Special)-The recall election is over. George Alexander is elected Mayor by a majority of exander is elected Mayor by a majority of 1631 votes. Thus the recall faction has won at every turn of the bitter fight made in the past six weeks.

The surprise of the election was the vote captured by the Socialist, Wheeler, Against Alexander's 14,063, Wheeler got 12,342. The Socialists did not do active campaigning with the hope of winning until Harper's resignation, and then they had no campaign fund with which to work. Last night they were unable to raise $50 necessary to have some dodgers printed for distribution at the polis. But the regular Republican organization threw many votes to Wheeler, and many of the Democratic votes that elected Harper when the Republicans were badly split two years ago were given the Socialist ticket.

The full Socialist vote of the city is less than 4000, as is shown by the vote received by Eugene V. Debs at the last Presidential election.

Fight of Recallers.

Fight of Recallers.

The recaliers began their fight two weeks before the petition was filed demanding Harper's recall from office. They were unable to settle upon a candidate, but finally the place at the head of the ticket was offered Walliam D. Stephens, who later became Mayor protem, filling the office between the time off Harper's resignation and today's election. Stephens finally refused to rim, and after some little delay Alexander was chosen. Alexander has been an office-holder for many years. He was a regular Republican until two years ago, when he joined the Lincoln-Roosevelt League.

Socialists' False Hopes.

Socialists' False Hopes.

The result of today's election was in The result of today's election was in doubt up to a late hour. The Socialists were confident of winning after the first fetuurns came in showing a much greater tote for Wheeler than had been anticipated. The Alexander forces were corfespondingly cast down, and at 9 o'clock five would not state that their candidate had been successful. Later returns, however, principally from the residence districts, showed strong gains for Alexander, until at 11 o'clock there was no longer any question.

Recallers Well Organized.

The recallers had carriages and auto mobiles at the disposal of the voters and good organizations at the polls. The Wheeler forces, on the contrary, had no workers in the various precincts and no orkers in the various precincts and no seans of transportation to capture ballots.

None the less, the Socialists are de-lighted at their showing tonight. It is considered by old-time politicians, how-ever, as having no real significance, beaus: of the strong feeling at present xisting in local politics, which will outlies be cleared, maybe before the ext election.
Alexander will serve as Mayer until annary 1. 1910, when a regular city lection will be held.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Neff Dies.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26 .- Jacob H. Neif, former Lieutenant-Governor of California, and one of the best-known men in the state, died this morning at his home, after an illness of about two weeks' duration. The immediate cause of death is indi-gestion, complicated by heart trouble.

Jacob Neff was born in Pennsylvania, October 12, 1820, and was in his 73th year when he died. When a boy he re-moved with his parents to lows, coming moved with his parents to lowa, coming from there to California in 1849. Since then he resided constantly in this state, most of the time in places in the coun-try where he had mining interests. He had served in both branches of the Legislature, and one term as Lieutenant-Governor. For many years he was president of the California Miners' Association. He also filled a term as State Prison Commissioner, and at various times occupied other positions of public trust.

Several times his name was mentioned several times his name was mentioned in connection with the United States Senatorship, but he never was an active candidate for that place. A few years ago he retired from business and public life and since then had lived quietly at his nome in this city.

After the funeral the most dramatic event of the day occurred when Dr. J. Hamsey Neville, the Coroner, laid away in the folds of the shroud two notes and the mysterious trinkets found on Mrs. Lorillard's body after her death.

Mrs. Lorillard wrote neither of the notes after she returned from the Townsend dinner. It is now believed that the only words she wrote on the morning of her death were those on an envelope that contained the notes and trinkets. They were:

"Bury this with my body, unopened. "Bury this with my body, unopened."

TAFT RESCINDS LAST REMNANT OF ROOSEVELT'S ORDER.

Advised by General Board, President Carries Out Purpose of Congress' Act.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The last remaining vestige of the Roosevelt order taking marines off the battleships and cruisers of the United States Navy was swept away today, when President Taft directed that an order be issued restoring the marines to exactly the same duties they had conformed before same duties they had conformed before same duties they had performed before they were ordered ashore. After Congress had placed a provision in the Navy appropriation bill that a certain percentage of the marine corps should be assigned to ship duty, an order was issued the day before Mr. Roosevelt went out of office, restoring the marines to ships, but placing the under the orders of the captains of the

Under the old system the marines were given specific duties. One of these was to fight certain guns of the secondary battery. The order placing them under the direction of the ship's captain made it possible to assign the marines to any fort of duty and to deprive them of fighting any part of the ship's battery. In restoring the old regulations the President acted upon the recommendation of the General Board of the Navy.
