FUNERAL IN STATE HOUSE WEDNESDAY

Governor Cosgrove Will Be Buried at Olympia With Military Honors.

CAPITOL DRAPED IN CRAPE

Funeral Train Will Be Met by Guard of Honor in Portland Tuesday Night and Escorted to Olympia. Flags Are at Half - Mast.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 28.—The funcrel of Governor Samuel G. Cosgrove, who died this morning at Paso Robles, will be held in this city Wednesday at 2 o'clock, with full military honors.

The body will be met in Portland Tuesday evening by a military escort, Governor M. E. Hay, state officers and a committee from the recent House and Senate. The funeral cortege will reach Olympia sarly Wednesday morning, and the body of the late Governor will immediately be taken to the Capitol, where it will lie in state until noon.

Funeral Services in State House.

Services will be held in the House chamber at 2 o'clock and interment will chamber at 2 o clock and intermed,
be in this city,
All companies of the National Guard stationed in Western Washington will be called out and will participate in the Governor Cosgrove was a member of several secret orders, and each of these orders will send delegations to the ceremonles.

Lieutenant-Governor Hay, who has been Acting Governor since January 27, and who tomorrow will take the oath of office as Governor, has issued a proclamation requesting, all public offices to be closed Wednesday, and that memorial services be held throughout the state at the hour of interment.

All flags in the city have been at halfmast all day, and will remain so for 30 days. The State Capitol has been draped in crape.

Train Due at Olympia Wednesday

Train Due at Olympia Wednesday.

The funeral train will leave Paso Robles Monday morning, and is scheduled to reach Portland at 11:15 Tuesday night. If connections are made the funeral party and escort from Olympia will leave Portland at 11:30 Tuesday night in special cars attached to the regular Northern Pacific train to Tacoma. These cars will be swillched at Tenino to the Port Townsend Southern tracks, and brought to Glympia by special engine, arriving here about 6 A. M. Wednesday.

From 7 A. M. Wednesday until in the afternoon the remains will be in state in the Capitol building in the rotunda on the main floor. The funeral services will be held in the House chamber in the Capitol, beginning at 2 P. M. Wednesday. Rev. C. E. Todd, pastor off the local Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate. The desks will be removed from the floor of the House and chairs placed to accommodate the special delegations who will be present, representing the G. A. R. Masons, Oddfellows and other fraternal orders of which the late Governor was a prominent member; state officers and friends of the family.

Interment in Masonic Cemetery.

Interment in Masonic Cemetery.

Mrs Cosgrove and other members of the family left all arrangements to Howard Cosgrove, who, after consulting with Governor Hay and friends of the family here, tonight agreed to the plan above, and also decided for a military funeral. Interment will take place at the fasonic Cemetery in this city with full List of Honorary Pallbearers.

The following have been selected as honorary pallbearers: Ex-Governor John H. McGraw, of Seattle: ex-Governor John H. McGraw, of Seattle: ex-Governor Athert E. Mead, of Bellingham; Justice M. E. Gose, of Pomeroy; Judge H. D. Crow, of Spokter: Senator J. R. Stevenson, of Pomeroy; Senator Alex Polson, of Hoquiam; Senator John L. Blair, of Friday Harbor; George H. Boardman, of Tacoma; Representative Oliver Byerly, of Ostrander; Representative W. H. Thompson, of Centrality, Jesse Reid, of Tacoma; W. H. Wiscombe, of Spokane; F. A. Hazeltine, of South Bend; Daniel Bush, of Chehalis; George W. Tibbetts, of Orting: Samuel Vestal, of Everett; Eugene Lorton, of Walla Walla, and Harry Gilbam, of Seattle.

The House committee to meet the

The House committee to meet the funeral train will consist of Speaker funeral fram will consist of Speaker L. O. Meigs, of North Yakima, and Representatives John A. Fancher, of Espanola; F. L. Calkins, of Ellens-burg; John A. Whalley, of Seattle; Frank H. Renick, of Seattle; W. H. Thompson, of Centralia; Oliver Byerly, of Ostrander: H. C. Krouse, of Pome-Thompson, of Centralia; Oliver Byerl; of Ostrander; H. C. Krouse, of Pomeroy, and T. J. Bell, of Tacoma.

Tonsilitis at Wells College Can't Blame Girls' Kisses.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Experts on tonsilitis and other experts on kissing appear to be unanimous in the opinion that the epidemic of tonsilitis at Wells College is not due to any undue or un-

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF WASHINGTON'S DECEASED GOVERNOR

SAMUEL G. COSGROVE.

Samuel G. Cosgrove, late Governor of Washington, was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, April 10, 1847, and reared in Defiance County, Ohio, on a farm. He enlisted in the Union Army in the Fall of 1863, in Company E, Fourteenth Ohio Volunteers, P. I., and was discharged in July, 1865, at the close of the war. He entered Ohio Wesleyan University in 1866 and graduated in 1873. He then read law and was admitted to the bar in 1875. He worked his way through college and his law course. In his early life he taught school. He was a life-long Republican and a resident of Pomeroy, Wash, since 1882.

Mr. Cosgrove was a member of the State Constitutional conven-

Wash, since 1882.

Mr. Cosgrove was a member of the State Constitutional convention and was a McKinley and Roosevelt elector. At the time of his election as Governor he was a regent of the State University, an appointee of Governor Mead. He was prominent in Grand Army and lodge circles, being a member of a number of secret orders, including the Masons, Elks and Oddfellows.

In addition to practicing law, he farmed for the last 20 years, being the owner of a 1400-acre farm in Washington and Idaho.

He leaves a family consisting of a widow, two sons and a daughter.

Had Cheering News From His Mother Only Day Before.

POMEROY GRIEF-STRICKEN

Home Town Feels Keenly Loss of Man Whom They Loved to Honor. Walla Walla Opponents Had Become His Friends.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 28.-Howard G. Cosgrove, eldest son of the late Gov-ernor, and his father's confidential manager during the primary and general campaign, was with John H. Perry, in his coms at the Hotel Washington Annex when news of his father's death reached Immediately on receiving the intelli-gence over the long-distance wire from Paso Robles, Mr. Cosgrove went to the home of his eister, Mrs. Roy J. Kinnear, He took the afternoon train for Olympia and last evening and was in conference with Governor Hay and other state officials in regard to funeral arrangements

"The news of my father's death," he said yesterday, "was entirely unexpected and came as a severe blow to all of us. All the news from Paso Robles has been optimistic, and all of us believed that my father would return to Washington and become Governor in fact about May 1. My mother has written frequently, and her letters have contained accounts of how my father was gaining. One week he gained a pound a day. The last letter from her was written Wednesday and reached the yesterday afternoon. It was a cheerful account of the Governor

Walla Walla Is Shocked.

"The report that seems to be cur-rent that my father sold all of his Son to Meet Train at Ashland.

Howard Cosgrove and his sister, Mrs. Roy J. Kinnear, of Seattle, leave here tomorrow morning to meet the funeral train at Ashland.

On the Capitol, the city schools and from flagstaffs at many residences flags are flying at half-mast here. All day men have been busily engaged draping the Capitol building with somber bannars of crape. Crape shrouds each of the several entrances to the building and the same token of mourning in rosettes are fastened to the doors of the executive offices.

The Senatorial committee which will act as a guard of honor to meet the remains of Governor Cosgrove at the state line will consist of President Ruth, Senators Stevenson, Poison, Falconer, Blair and Potts. A number of other Senators have also announced their intention of acting.

NOT DUE TO OSCULATION

"The report that seems to be current that my father sold all of his property, including his home, is without foundation. A few days ago Mr. Cosgrove sold a small ranch, but the rest of his property remains in the hands of his property, including his home, is without foundation. A few days ago Mr. Cosgrove sold a small ranch, but the rest of his property remains in the hands of his property, including his home, is without foundation. A few days ago Mr. Cosgrove sold a small ranch, but the rest of his property remains in the hands of his property, including his home, is without foundation. A few days ago Mr. Cosgrove sold a small ranch, but the rest of his property remains in the hands of his property remains in the hands of his property, including his home, is without foundation. A few days ago Mr. Cosgrove sold a small ranch, but the rest of his property remains in the hands of his rest of his property remains in the hands of his rest of his prop would realize the ambition of a lifetime and be Governor. In fact, his fight for life had changed all sentiment against him, and those who opposed him in the election were his ardent supporters and well wishers.

"Pomeroy, his home town, was astoinded when the news came of the passing away of Washington's most prominent citizen, for the people of that little town loved the old man and had followed with careful attention the course of his illness and then his gradual recovery of strength.

grove's ambition to be Governor caused him to brush aside all other proffers of office made by men desiring to prevent him resching his goal, and Pomeroy and this city agreed with him in his resolutions. The two cities backed him in his fight for the Governorship and when it was known that he had won he was given a mighty reception.

"Eugene Lorton, probably the closest friend of the dead Governor and the man who brought him out as Governor and won the fight for him, is almost heartbroken, and stated tonight that the death of a member of his own family would affect him no more deeply than the news of the Governor's demine. Mr. Lorton left tonight for Olympia to help make arrangements demine. Mr. Lorion left tonight for olympia to help make arrangements for the funeral.

"Not since the death of President McKinley has the city been so affected. The city took as much pride in Governor Cosgrove as if he had been a resident of Walla Walla."

DANA ESTES BELITTLES SPORT OF ROOSEVELT IN AFRICA.

Says Animals Are so Tame They De Not Raise Their Heads as Trains Go By.

NEW YORK, March 28.—In the opinion of Dana Estes, the Boston publisher, who arrived here today after a journey of 25,000 miles in Europe, Asia and Africa, ex-President Roosevelt will find hunting big game in East Africa "like shooting cows in a back yard."

"Antelopes and animals of that kind are so tame," he said, "that they graze along the railroad and scarcely look up as the train goes by. I saw thousands of zebra, antelope and other animals a few hundred yards from the train and most of them never even so much as lifted their heads as it went by."

Mr. Estes visited Uganda. His travels in Africa took him inland as far as Victoria Falls on the Upper Zambesi.

toria Falls on the Upper Zambesi.

SELLS LIQUOR TO INDIAN

Steven Basas, of Vancouver, Admits Guilt When Arrested.

VANCOUVER, Wash. March 28.—
(Special.)—For selling a half-pint of whisky to Joseph Tuorish on Sunday, Steven Basas, a Greek, and proprietor of the Newport Restaurant, on Washington street, was arrested by Officers McFarlan and Mullane at 8:30 o'clock this evening. Being unable to put up a $100 bond, his partner being at a dance across the river, Basas was lodged in jail for the night. lodged in jail for the night.

Tuorish was caught coming out of the restaurant and was threatened with arrest himself if he did not tell and he informed the police who sold him the liquor. Basas admitted his

JUDGE ALLYN VERY LOW Well - Known Tacoma Democratic Jurist Near Death

TACOMA, Wash, March 28.—(Special)—Judge Frank Allyn is lying very low at his home in this city, and it is not believed he can live until morning. Judge Allyn served one term to the control of the can be some as Superior Court judge and some years ago was an active Democratic politician and well known throughout the state. Of late years he has devoted his time to his law practice.

Change Teachers' Convention Date

that the epidemic of tonsilitis at Wells College is not due to any undue or unusual brand of osculation.

"Unless there is something peculiar about the Wells kiss," declared one "expert," "the explanation sent out by the sollege is untenable. If there was anything new about the Wells kiss the world would have known it before this. The demand to have the institution converted from a woman's college into a co-educational school would have been irresistible.

Why, if kissing caused tonsilitis there could be no education. The colleges for women couldn't last one term, and it wouldn't be worth while to open the co-educational institutions at all. Kissing is as safe as wine or airships."

that little town loved the old man and had followed with careful attention. ALBANY, Or., March 25.—(Special.)—The State Teachers' Association, which will meet in Albany this Summer, will not hold its session the last, week in June as planned. It has been found necessary to fix a new date, and the executive committee of the association will meet in Selem on April 12 for that purposes the faculty of getting close to the people and counted most of his acquaintances as his personal friends. It has been found necessary to fix a new date, and the executive committee of the association will meet in Selem on April 12 for that purposes of the people and counted most of his acquaintances as his personal friends. It has been found necessary to fix a new date, and the executive committee of the association will meet in Albany this Summer, will not hold its session the last, week in June as planned. It has been found necessary to fix a new date, and the executive committee of the association will meet in Albany this Summer, will not hold its session the last, week in June as planned. It has been found necessary to fix a new date, and the executive committee of the association will meet in Albany this Summer, will not hold its session that purpose as a lawyer and a farmer, but he also possessed the faculty of getting close to have condition as pl

Elected After 16 Years' Struggle, Cosgrove Dies as Goal Is Attained.

BORN IN OHIO IN 1847

Enters Union Army at Age of 16. Graduates From Ohio Wesleyan University, and Starts for Far West in 1880.

WORDS OF COSGROVE WHEN HE

egislation I should like to mentio you now, because I may not be with you again. I would like to see a good, strong local-option law enacted in this state. . . I have not writ-ten you a message; I have not done anything, and I do not expect to be able to do anything."

SPOKANE, Wash., March 28 .- (Spe cial.)-Governor Cosgrove frequently stated that for 20 years his consuming ambition was to be elected Governor Always a receptive candidate, he never Always a receptive candidate, he never showed strength sufficient to make him a prominent factor until J. M. Frink was nominated by the Republicans 12 years ago. Cosgrove would have been nominated had the southwest counties, pledged to him, voted for him in convention. He was talked of during the campaign preceding the nomination of Mead, and was ready to make a race in convention until the nomination of Mead, and was ready to make a race in convention until the nomination was settled in secret

Wins After Long Fight.

After the struggle of 12 or 15 years he won, but was Governor in fact only two days, his trip to Olympia from California in the dead of Winter, to take the oath, undoubtedly shortening his life.

Mr. Cosgrove was carried from Pomercy, Wash., November 12, of last year, and reached Paso Robles, Cal., three days later. He recovered sufficiently to start for Olympia January 22, of this year, but his private car was delayed by storms, and he did not reach the State Capital until January 27. He was sworn in the same day in the presence of the Legislature and state officers, insisting upon making a public appear-of the Legislature and state officers, insisting upon making a public appearance, instead of taking the oath in the car, as had been planned. Friday, January 28, he began his last trip, having been Governor only two days.

S. G. Cosgrove was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, April 10, 1847. He grew to manhood in Defiance County, Ohio, where he enlisted in the Union Army in 1863, at the age of 16. He served throughout the rest of the war, being homorably discharged in 1865.

The following year he entered Ohio Wesleyan University, where he was graduated in 1873. Among his classmates during his college career were Charles W. Fairbanks, ex-Vice-President, and James M. Vernon, now postmaster at Everett. Cosgrove earned his dent, and James M. Vernon, now postmaster at Everett. Cosgrove earned his own way through college.

After leaving college, Cosgrove studied law in an office in Woodfield, O, being admitted to practice in 1875. He left Ohlo in 1880, and went West, first to Nevada, then to California, then to Washington, settling in 1882 at Pomeroy. Upon his first arrival in this state he formed a law partnership with M. M. Godman. After 1896 Cosgrove practiced law alone until two years ago, when his eldest son, Howard, was graduated from the law school of the State University and entered his father's law office.

When the agitation arose in Washington for the ensetment of a primary nomination law, Mr. Cogrove became an ardent champion, and when the passage of the law was assured he made it known
to a few of his friends that on the first
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a ton be gardent champion, and when the passage
of the law was assured he made it known
to a few of his friends that on the first
trial of the new law he would make a
ton be gardent champion, and when the passage
of the law was assured he made it known
to a few of his friends that on the first
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a trial of the saw at trial of the new law he would make a
trial of the new law he would make a trial of the law sa assured he made it known to a few of his friends that on t er's law office.

Mr. Cosgrove, by frugal living and good business management, acquired 1400 acres of farm lands in Washing ton and Idaho, which are farmed under annual leases.

Took Active Lead in Politics.

He was an active and more or less rominent member of the Oddfellows, Workmen, Masons, Elks and Grand Army of the Republic. He served one term as division commander of the G. A. R., and at the National convention of that body at Louisville, Ky., of that body at Louisville, Ky., was appeinted junior vice-commander-in-chief of the National order.

Mr. Cosgrove became an advocate of state regulation of railroads, and took an active part in the political contest for the establishment and exercise of that power.

For three years preceding his election as Governor, Mr. Cosgrove was a member of the Board of Regents of the State University, holding that position by virtue of an appointment by Albert E. Mead, against whom he was a candidate in the primary campaign for the nomination for Governor. Governor Mead received his primary campaign for the nomination for Governor. Governor Mead received his nomination at the hands of the faction of the party which opposed the faction of which Mr. Cosgrove was a member.

When the call to arms was sounded from the party headquarters, Cosgrove buckled on his party armor and went forth to fight his party's battles. As he himself has explained it, he "marched when the party ordered him to march, halted when his party ordered him to halt, and when his party ordered him to stand on guard he stood on guard."

When he entered the race for the nomi-

A well-made, skillfully-fitted Truss is life insurance-it prevents strangulation, it aids a cure, and often obviates an operation

We fit Trusses right, as thousands will testify; our prices are low. We send Trusses to any address on approval-no pay if you're not satisfied. Write for our illustrated list.

Woodard, Clarke & Co. Established 1865. Portland, Or.

High art Clothing THE present is emphatically the age of the manly man, who exults in the strength of his good right arm. To the manly young man and the older man, young in spirit and tastes, no clothes appeal so persuasively as "HIGH ART" Clothes. They impart that easy, unstudied, jaunty air, which is the quintessence of style in these athletic days. "HIGH ART" Clothes are garments of inimitable style and consummate distinction. "HIGH ART" Clothes are tailored with more skill than ordinary made-to-measure gar-ments and with the same skill of the highest cost "drapers". "HIGH ART" Clothes fit both the wearer's person and personality, gracing the one and ac-centuating the other. The best clothes-shops everywhere are proud to sell "HIGH ART" Clothes. The label "HIGH ART" is in every garment. If you look for it, ask for it and get it, you cannot go astray. Made only by STROUSE & BROTHERS

nation for Governor, Mr. Cosgrove notified Governor Mead of his willingness to resign from the university governing body, but Governor Mead insisted upon his retaining his position, which he did. When the agitation arose in Washington for the enactment of a primary nomination law, Mr. Cosgrove became an ardent champion, and when the passage of the law was assured he made it known to a few of his friends that on the first trial of the new law he would make a campaign for the Gubernatorial nomination. that organization

Duning the earlier months of his campaign Cosgrove sought the signatures of ils supporters to a petition pledging him and inactivity

Son Manages His Campaign.

that organization to indorse Cosgrove's candidacy, but, falling in that, an organization of newspaper editors was organized in his behalf.

This organization started out with some 50 newspapers, and at the end of the campaign the Cosgrove press service was being regularly supplied to and published by not less than 150 publications. Meanwhile, Cosgrove, Sr., had so far recovered from his illness as to be able to enter upon a stump speaking tour, which thoroughly covered King. Snohomish, Skagit, Whatcom and other of the Puget Sound counties. When the date came for the primary election he was completely exhausted, making it necessary for him to return to his home in BALTIMORE, MD.

FOR SALE BY ALL LEADING CLOTHIERS. Write for Spring and Summer Style Booklet.

sary for him to return to his home in Wins by Second-Choice Votes.

Last May, while Cosgrove was in Spo-kane attending the Republican state con-vention, he became so exhausted that he was compelled to return to his Pomeroy home for several weeks for enforced rest

His eldest son, Howard, was called upon to take charge of the details of the campaign organization. Here is where the list of signatures of the candidate's more active supporters came to have an important and immediate value.

Going to Seattle, young Cosgrove, through his acquaintance with students of the State University, organized a club of university students, which later on became an important influence in the con-

Wins by Second-Choice Votes.

He won his nomination on the second-choice vote in the Republican primaries, receiving a total of first and second-choice votes of 57,867 as against 49,402 cast for Mead, and 47,734 cast for ex-Governor Henry MoBride.

In his own county—Garfield—his popularity was demonstrated by a vote on first choice of 290 as compared with 58 for ex-Governor McBride and 25 for Governor Mead, his two leading opponents. In Asotin County, which bounds Garfield County on the east, Cosgrove received 270 first-choice votes, as compared with 51 cast for Governor Mead and 52 for ex-Governor McBride.

If precedent is followed, Lieutenant-Governor Hay will serve out the full term of Governor Cosgrove, or until January, 1913. A general election intervenes between this date and the close of the present term, but a similar instance arese when Governor John R. Rogers dled, in December, 1901, after serving less than one year. Licutenant-Governor Henry McBride served out the full term as Governor. Early in July, at a meeting of the Washington State Press Association in Vancouver, an effort was made to induce Latest style pumps at Rosenthal's. .

HAND

Fingers roughened by needlework eatch every stain and look hopelessly dirty. Hand Sapolio removes not only the dirt, but also the loosened, injured cuticle, and restores the fingers to their natural beauty. ALL GROCERS AND DRUGGISTS

COATES ORIGINAL

PLYMOUTH DRY GIN

NO MORE FEAR OF THE DENT

IT IS OUR AIM to give the best and most for your money. A large business and a small profit is the modern way of doing business. "That is our policy." In satisfying you with a set of teeth, we nat-In satisfying you with a set of teeth, we natforward to do other dental work in your family or for your friends. MAKING ARTIFICIAL TEETH is a leading feature of our business, and we believe it cannot be surpassed in the point of completeness. We operate our own laboratory, and as making Artificial Teeth is

Written Guarantee On All Work For Ten Years

TEETH WITHOUT PLATES

You will meet here no young and untried dentist with his new diploma, his only laurels fresh upon him, but instead, the well-directed interest of a master of the dental art for every required case.

CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK A SPECIALTY Remember, examination and consultation free to all who visit our office. To those who cannot afford to have their work done and pay cash, we make arrangements on the installment plan.

No Pain

Union Dental Company

2211/2 MORRISON STREET, CORNER FIRST STREET Open Daily Till 7 P. M.; Sundays, 9 to 1 P. M. Ladies in Attendance. No Gas