ley, told the officers to help themselves to evidence. He assured them he would evidence. He assured them he would plead guilty to the charge and was ready to pay whatever fine was imposed by the court. He had the feathers in stock by versight, he said. At Lowengart & Co.'s place the clerk

At Lowengart & Co.'s place the clerk proved an ambitious young fellow, who was extremely anxious to make a sale. "These are the last of these feathers we've got," he told Mr. and Mrs. Finley. "The factories have quit turning them out. I advise you to take these right away, or you're liable not to get any."

"All right, we'll take them right away," remarked Mr. Finley, significantly, and the officers stepped forward and took possession of the feathers. Three other places were visited, but the word seemed places were visited, but the word seemed to have gotten out about the raids and the party was not able to find any more Letters of Warning Sent Out.

Letters of warning were sent out by the Audubon Society January 15. An excerpt of the state law was included, to-gether with the information that a Supreme Court decision had made successful evasion of the law no longer possible.

The decision in reference was that in the case of New York vs. Siz. Silz had the case of New York vs. Sliz. Sliz had been importing game from Europe and selling it in New York. When arrested he appealed on the grounds that the conviction was not in harmony with the constitutional rights accorded him. The Supreme Court ruled, in effect, that states may evolve their own game laws to meet their peculiar needs. Hence the ruling is taken to apply to Oregon.

Amusements

This Afternoon and Night

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS.

Big Bill at the Orpheum.

Today and tomorrow fluishes the bill for the current week at the Orpheum. If you have not seen the bill, avail yourself of the opportunity while you have the chance. The bill is possessed of an abundance of variety and is pleasing.

Children's Matinee Today.

Send the children to Pantages Theater mathree today to see Mile Barnes wild animal circus, featuring Nero, the riding ilon. Real live performing Teddy bears, beautiful high school shetland ponies, com-teal monkeys, and educated dogs, fulshing with a free-for-all steeple-chase.

Little Hip a Hit.

Little Hip, the baby elephant, is at the Grand and he is the cutest little fellow of his kind that has been exhibited in Portland. Little Hip is well-trained and his performance is an entire show in itself. The elephant will be at the Grand today and tomorrow.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"Girl Question" Tomorrow Night.

Beginning tomorrow night and continu-ing the following three nights, the attrac-tion at the Hellig Theater will be the big musical comedy success. "The Girl Ques-tion." This musical offering is presented by the same management that gave Port-land "A Stubborn Cinderella." A special matinee will be given Wednesday.

"David Harum" Opens Tomorrow.

A great revival of interest is being feit everywhere in the widely-read hook, "David Harum," and Baker Stock Company will give a strong production of the dramatiza-tion of it all next week at the Bungalow, opening tomorrow afternoon. William Glea-son will again be seen in the title role.

Portland Favorites Coming.

Two Portland favorites will be seen at the Orpheum next week. James Nell and Edythe Chapman will present the one-act playlet, "The Lady Across the Hall" Much has been said in praise of the sketch, and Mr. Nelli is well-known in Portland as an actor of unusual ability.

Carlyle Pantomime Company

The Carlyle Pantomime Company will be the headline attraction at the Grand the conding week, starting Monday afternoon. This act introduces Dan, the talking pony. Manuel Romaine, the singer, will be on the programme and with him will be the Foley boys and the Palmer sisters.

The Mysterious Sa-Hera

The Mysterious Sa-Hera.

Sa-Hera, world's greatest thought-reader any mystifier, is booked at Paninges Theater for one week only, commencing with the usual matinee on Monday. The special added attraction will be the six Arminas, in their beautiful instrumental some scene entitled. "A Night in Naples."

SCOTT'S

EMULSION

being universally recommended for Consumption is proof positive that it is the most energizing and strengthening

It builds flesh and strength with such wonderfully rapidity that the disease is retarded and

Send this ad., four cents for postage, men-tioning this paper, and we will send you a "Complete Handy Atlas of the World."

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York

preparation in the world.

often overcome entirely. ALL DRUGGISTS party w.

THE ONLY BAKING POWDER made from

Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

Royal Baking Powder is the greatest of time and labor savers to the pastry cook. It economizes flour, butter and eggs, and makes the food digestible and healthful.

IF WIFE FLIRTS

Court Says Husband Has Right to Lose Temper if Spouse Likes Other Men.

WOMAN RECEIVED VISITORS

Testimony Shows Annie P. Chambers Allowed Men to Call on Her While Chambers Was Away.

Court Gives Lecture.

"Do you think that it is proper for a married woman to receive her male acquaintances at her home three or four times a week in the absence of her hus-band, and then to expect her husband to keep his temper?" With these words Circuit Judge Gatens delivered a scathing rebuke to Mrs. Annie P. Chambers yesterday afternoon as she sat in the witness chair testifying in the divorce case which she had brought against her husband, Robert Chambers, a switchman the Albina railroad yards.

in the Albina railroad yards.

Mrs. Chambers replied that she didn't know. "Well, you have been married for 13 years, haven't you?" queried the judge. "And do you think it is proper for a married woman to go out buggyriding with the groceryman?" continued the court. "You don't think that he is different from the ordinary mortal of the male sex, do you?"

"Well, Mr. Fink always treated me as a perfect gentleman would." was the ana perfect gentleman would," was the an-Testimony was introduced to the effect that Mrs. Chambers once went buggy-riding with Gus Fink, of Fink & Lewis, Albina grocers, and that she returned home at 11 o'clock at night. Mrs. Chambers testified that on this occasion the meeting was accidental, and that they were only out for half an hour.

Judge Gatens did not announce his decision last night, but he said Mrs. Cham-cision last night, but he said Mrs. Cham-bers has not acted as a wife should act toward her husband. "I don't believe that any pure-minded, virtuous woman would permit any man to visit in her-home, and to drink beer with her, even once a week," continued the judge.

No Alimony to Be Granted.

"It seems to the Court that a man who will accumulate $1500 in 13 years on $40 will accumulate $1600 in 13 years on $40 a month is quite a thrifty man. The Court doesn't like to see a woman turned out into the world alone, but I will say now that the Court will permit no attorneys' fees and no allmony for the plaintiff. Neither will the Court allow Mrs. Chambers half the Albina property." The house and lot are valued at $1500, and it was to this properly that the Court referred.

That her husband gripped her in the

That her husband gripped her in the neck until a lump half the size of an egg was raised behind her ear, and that he beat her upon the nose and face until the blood flowed freely from the nose, these were the charges which Mrs. Chambers brought. In support of them her attorney introduced in evidence, over the sustained objection of C. M. Idleman, the attorney for Mr. Chambers, a kt-mona worn by the woman at the time of the alleged assault. This was passed of the sileged assault. This was passed up for the Court's Inspection.

The woman also told of having been knocked against a bed 10 years ago, so that her nose bled. Chambers is a good husband except when he gives way to his violent temper, according to Mrs. Chambers. But it was evident that the Court thought he had sufficient provocation. "We were not married a year when he struck me for the first time," said the woman.

Says She Is Dutiful Wife.

The alleged recreant husband was formerly a freight conductor. His wife, himself and four others went on a pleas-ure trip to The Dalles. He created a disturbance in the passenger coach beaccording to yesterday's testimony, and continued to upbraid his wife when they arrived home.

On the other hand, Mrs. Chambers said

On the other hand, Mrs. Chambers said she was a dutiful wife, even buying her husband's tobacco with the $45 a month which he provided for the purchase of groceries. She said she also kept up his lodge dues for four or five years and his life insurance policy. But in addition to the $45 a month, it was shown she had $3 a week which she earned as a milliner, and $25 a month from a boarder.

Chambers said his wife's conduct with male associates, whom she invited to the house, was so unbecoming that it created disturbances in other families. He also said that she was in the habit of visiting salcons; Mrs. Chambers admitted on the witness stand yesterday that she sent flowers to Sam Eber, the driver of a wagon for Weinhard's brewery. He was sick at the hospital at the time, she said.

Woman Cause of Divorce.

Woman Cause of Divorce.

Neille Eber, who recently obtained a divorce, was placed on the witness stand, and said that her husband's fondness for Mrs. Chambers and his frequent visits to the Chambers home were the cause of her divorce. Mrs. Chambers admitted yesterday that Eber would drive up to her house with his wagon, leave it standing in the street in charge of another man, and pay her a visit to talk about the weather, about lodge business, and Mrs. Chambers didn't remember what else, two or three times a week. Twice he brought her beer, she said, and she gave him something to eat when he said he was hungry. Nellie Eber, who recently obtained a diwas hungry.

ambers also said she was in the Ferry saloon several times, going once for beer for her husband, when he was hurt

Mr. Idleman was the attorney for Mrs. Eber when she obtained her divorce.
"Did you take Mrs. Eber up to see Idleman once" asked Mrs. Chambers' attorney of Chambers, while he was on the witness stand.

"Mr. Ditchburn, did you not take my wife to a card party?" was Chambers' retort.

retort.

Mrs. Fred Kress. Mrs. A. Mende and Mrs. Mary Moran were called to testify for Mrs. Chambers, while Ada Swanson. Mrs. M. E. Colby, E. A. Whitney, Amelia Lewis, George Lewis, W. A. Baiwell, Mrs. W. A. Baiwell, Minnie Thomas, G. W. Harris, Neil O'Hara, as well as Judge Gatens' balliff, Andy Weinberger, were called upon by the defense. Mrs. Chambers sued for half her husband's property and a dower interest in the balance. erty and a dower interest in the balance Husband Lived With Her 12 Days.

Susie McDonaid alleged in her divorce complaint that Jesse J. McDonaid lived with her for only 12 days before describe complaint that Jesse J. McDonaid lived with her for only 12 days before descring her. But when she took the witness stand before Circuit Judge Cleland yesterday morning she remembered that she had lived with him for 12 days instead of 12. The thirteenth day was last September, when she went to him at the Merchants' Hotel and begged him to take care of her. The only reply she received was that she was well able to support both of them.

Busic C. Seelbinder married McDonaid Fune 2, 1807, Justice of the Peace Olson

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible colamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing rippies and faster current—Nature's warnings are faster current—Nature's warnings—growing rippies and faster current—Nature's warnings are faster current—Nature's warnings—growing rippies and faster current—Nature's warnings—growing rippies # performing the ceremony. He drives an express wagon. The young woman, who is but 22 years old, said she tried to be a faithful wife to him, but that the only provision he ever made for her was to lay in $3 worth of groceries after the wedding. With the addition of the meals she has purchased herself, she has been living on these provisions ever since. "Every time I opened my mouth my husband would use nasty words," said the girl. "I tried to shame him, but it was no use. He told me he would leave. I put my arms around his neck and begged him to stay, but he left anyway. He told me at the hotel in September that it was all he could do to take care of himself." Grace E. Jenne told of the accusations of infidelity made by Christian J. Jenne, and was given a divorce. She mairied Jenne at Sandwich, Ont., September 13, 1897. Emma S. Turner brought sult in the

Emma S. Turner brought sult in the Circuit Court yesterday for a divorce from William Turner, They were mar-ried at The Dalles, October 17, 1897. She says she has been beaten and that her life has been threatened by Turner, who

BOND OF NEGRESS FORFEITED

Her Disappearance Costs A. B.

Burger and M. Kutner $1000.

The $1000 bond of Grace Reed, a negress convicted before the late Circuit Judge Frazer of the theft of $500, was declared forfeited by Circuit Judge Cleland yesterday morning. The woman was convicted in June, 1907. As soon as the verdict was returned, she asked for permission to leave the courtroom, and never returned.

room, and never returned.

Last Fall, word was received from Ontario that the Reed woman had been arrested there. A. B. Burger and M. Kutner, the bondsmen, contended in court yesterday that they agreed with the District Attorney that they make the court was the court Attorney Manning had nothing to do with the discovery of the woman's whereabouts, and that the bond is forfeited.

Allege Arrest Without Warrant Before Charge Was Made.

The Ahs brought suit in the Circuit Court a second time yesterday morning. Their suit against the Municipal Court.

Judge Van Zante and Clerk Milner fol-lows the action of the grand jury in indicting three police officers for en-tering rooms in lodging-houses without warrants. They allege they were arrested without warrants and a gambling charge brought six days later, with fines of $20 each in the lower Sam and Ah Ling. They were arrested September 24, and the complaint against them was filed five days later.

BREAK GROUND FOR CHURCH

Universalists to Hold Appropriate

Ceremonies on East Side Sunday.

The congregation of the Universalis Church of the Glad Tidings, at East

Eighth and Couch streets, will celebrate is to be erected at Broadway and East

Twenty-fourth street. Rev. W. H. Mc-superintendent of the Universalist Church will preach the morning sermon in the Chicago, Who Will Preach Palm Sunday Sermon at Universalist church at East Eighth street; and in the afternoon the congregation and friends will assemble at the site of the new church, where Rev. James Dimond Corby

the pastor, will turn the first shovelful the pastor, will turn the first shovelful of earth for the new edifice.

Rev. Mr. McGlauffin will deliver the principal address at these ceremonies, which will begin at 2:30; and other addresses will be made by Dr. J. J. Lewis, of New York; Rev. T. L. Ellot, Jr., of the Portland Unitarian Church, and by Rev. J. S. McCullagh, who has recently come to this city from Australia in the interests of a liberal and modern church.

It is the pian of Mr. Corby, the local pastor, to make the ground-breaking ceremony a sort of all-day church gathering.

mony a sort of all-day church gathering, and to further this idea it is urged that members of the congregation bring a light lunch to the morning service.

BOY'S PICTURE IN SALON

Parisian Critics Accept Painting by

Lad of but 12.

PARIS, April 2.—The Salon jury has accepted a picture of Maurice Levalard, aged 12, who is believed to be the world's youngest artist.

Swept Over Ningara.

Nine Millinery Establishments Arrested for Having White Heron Feathers.

WOMEN ON STREET NEXT

If Present Rigorous Campaign Does Not Stop Violations of State Law, Any Woman Appearing in Publie With Aigrettes Liable.

War to the end was declared yesterday by the Oregon Audubon Society on milliners who decorate hats for women with plumage from native birds. Nine arrests were caused of leading milliners and department store proprietors for selling aigrettes and several hundred deling aigrettes and several hundred dol-lars' worth of finery was seized as evidence. It is being planned hereafter to arrest all women who appear in public wearing prohibited finery. Bringing to the point of execution a plan that has been in the air for several months past, officers of the Audubon So-clety, accompanied by constables spe-cially detailed by the theorem.

the District Attorney that they would bear the expense of sending an officer to bring the woman back to Oregon. It proved to be a case of mistaken identity, and the bondsmen alleged that they had done their full duty. The court decided that District Attorney Manage had pothing to do clety, accompanied by constables spe-cially detailed by the District Attorney's office, made the rounds of the millinery shops during the forenoon. Evidence was office, made the rounds of the millinery shops during the forenoon. Evidence was craftily secured upon which it is expected to base the conviction of those selling the feathers of white herons, a bird of beautiful plumage which thrived in Southern Oregon before the advent of the pot-hunter. Another round will be made shortly and in the meantime the campaign will be taken up in every section of the state. CHINESE BRING SECOND SUIT

William L. Finley, president of the so-ciety, and H. T. Bohiman, secretary, led the expedition, which precipitated a small panic among the dealers. Mr. Finley was accompanied by his wife, and they did the purchasing of the white heron feathers, Constables Wagner and Klernan lattering in the background parti-Kiernan loitering in the backgroun the psychological moment for the psychological moment for action. Although a warning had been sent out to every dealer in the state more than two months ago, it was found the warning ad fallen short of results for no difficulty was met with in buying aigrettes.

One Dealer Shows Fight.

with fines of $20 each in the lower court. This, they allege, is contrary to law, and they pray for a writ of review. They were only released after their arrest when they put up $50 ball each, and the fines were taken from the bail money. H. H. Riddell and Jay H. Upton appear as attorneys for the plaintiffs, who are as follows: Ah Fat, Ah Lin, Ah Dat, Ah Fine, Ah Lin, Fing Wing, Ah Lee, Ah Sam, Ah Wah, Ah Sam and Ah Ling. They were arrested. Except in one case, the dealers sub-mitted quietly to removal of plumage selzed by the officers. The exception oc-curred at Le Palais Royal, 375 Washing-ton street, where Mrs. Becker, in charge of the millinery department, made a scene. After a quantity of aigrettes and a large black but frimmed in torbidden a large black hat trimmed in forbidder feathers had been forcibly taken, she attacked Constable Klernan, as he was leaving the place, and succeeded in wresting several handsful of feathers from him. As a result about $50 worth of plumage was ruined by her. The officer managed to preserve the hat. Mrs. Becker was placed under arrest im-mediately but was permitted to remain at her work pending the calling of the

The places visited, and whose proprietors will have to answer in court to a violation of the state game laws, are: Lipman, Woife & Co., Olds, Wortman & King, Meler & Frank, Frake's Millinery store, McCreedy & Campbell, Le Palais Royal, W. D. Fraley's Millinery Store, the Wonder Millinery Company, and Lowengart & Co. Complaints were issued by Deputy District Attorney Hennessy and the warrants were struck off later at the Municipal Court.

If this heroic plan for stopping the sale of forbidden plumage does not prove effective, then the system of arresting women for appearing in public with aigreites will be adopted. The Audubon Society is making a final and determined stand and intends to win, so its representatives said. The places visited, and whose pro Palm Sunday by a special sermon and exercises appropriate to the breaking of ground for the new church edifice, which Glauffin, D. D., of Chicago, the general

Society is making a final and determined stand and intends to win, so its represen-tatives said. Aided by the state laws and by a late decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, they say they cannot fall in their campaign.

Law Gives Authority.

That the law empowers the society, or other interested persons, to arrest women on the streets for wearing restricted feathers is not doubted by President Finley and his associates. The law forbids anyone to have the feathers of specified birds in possession and wearing feathers on a hat certainly comes within the meaning of "having in possession," it is averred. Consequently any woman who chances to own a lot of fine plumage had best study up on ornithology in order to ascertain if she is a lawbreaker. That several thousand dollars' worth of plumage is now in the hands of local dealers was ascertained by Mr. Finley and his associates during the rounds of the millinery establishments. They made the rounds in an automobile, knowing that word of the raid was likely to spread. Regardless of the speed limits they dashed from place to place, and even then found that word of their work was broadcast before noon. That the law empowers the society, or was broadcast before noon.

The first place visited was the Lipman, Wolfe & Company store. Mr. and Mrs. Finley sought out the millinery department and asked for algrettes. "Certainly," said the sales woman, and she proceeded to show a splendid

Mr. Finley, an expert on birds and feathers, picked out a half dozen white heron feathers, motioned the officers to come up, and then the evidence was ap-propriated. Will Lipman was called by the clerk, but he consented at once to having the feathers removed. The same result was met with at the other depart-ment stores, except at Meier & Frank's, where Julius Meier explained to the party that, while the saleswoman exhibited the feathers, yet at the same time she would not have sold them, inasmuch as she has instructions to the contrary. But the law makes it an offense even to have the feathers, so the Meier & Frank Company was promptly added to the list for prosecution.

Constables Show Authority.

"Ah, this is a beautiful thing," obligingly remarked the saleswoman at Frakes, as she got out an assortment of heron feathers and handed a magnificent specimen to Mrs. Finley, "It's only $55," the clerk continued. "You can't get another like it in the city. And these feathers are going to be all the thing for fine hats this Summer."

The clerk come near to exception the

fine hats this Summer."

The clerk came near to swooning when the Constables loomed up at that moment and appropriated the big feather and half a dozen smaller ones. The party then proceeded to Le Palais Royal, where the difficulty occurred with Mrs. Becker, the proprietress.

"I can't let those feathers go," she snamed. "Show your authority." I don't

"I can't let those feathers go," she snapped. 'Show your authority. I don't believe you are officers. Anyway. I'll have to see my lawyer. No, I will not wrap them up for you. Shut the door there and lock it, so these people onn't get out until my lawyer gets here." were a few of Mrs. Becker's angry remarks.

"If you lock that door on us I'll kick it down," remarked the Constable. A moment later Mrs. Becker made the attempt to recover the feathers and the struggle for possession was a brisk one.

At Fraley's, the proprietor, W. D. Fra-

PORTLAND BEATS GAIRO

BAKING POWDER

GEORGE F. RUSSELL WRITES OF EGYPTIAN CARNIVAL.

Local Rose Festival Surpasses Other Fetes He Has Visited.

land Rose Festival, yesterday received a letter from Mr. Russell, sent from Cairo, Egypt, the day after the famous annual floral celebration there, which, as a matter of fact, is little else than a battle of flowers. Mr. Russell, when he left Portland early last Fall, provided himself with an abundance of Rose Fes-tival literature, but he declares in em-phatic terms that the more he sees of phatic terms that the more he sees of other shows the more he thinks of those af home. His letter follows:

Cairo, Egypt, March $, 1809.—Ralph W. Hoyt, Portland, Or.—My Dear Hoyt: I am sending you today two parcels, one containing three photographs of the show here in Cairo and one of the posters of this year's "Battle of Flowers."

It is, of course, unnecessary to say to you that comparisons between the Cairo and Portland shows are out of the question. The display in today's fete consisted mostly of paper flowers and there was nothing that would appeal to you in the way of decorations of vehicles; in fact, there was nothing new or original. I regret that it was impossible for me to get pictures and literature at Palermo, Sicily, and am afraid my late arrival at Milan and other points will be of little use to you for this year's show.

I shall look out for enything new that

There will be two performances at the Hellig Theater, Fourteenth and Washington streets, today. A matinee will be given at 2:15 o'clock and the last time tonight at 5:15. The attraction will be Kiaw & Erlanger's production of "The Right of Way." in which the distinguished players. Guy Standing and Theodore Roberts, will be seen. The Bungalow matines this niternoon and tonight's performance will be the last two opportunities to see the wonderful play. "Leah Kleshna." which Baker Stock Company has been presenting all week with such success. Miss Jewel's portrayal of the role of Leah is the acme of high-class acting.

progress. Sincerely,
G. F. RUSSELL.
The photographs which Mr. Russell enclosed showed the passing of a number of gaudily-decorated vehicles through the Garden of Esbekieh, at which the spec-vised yesterday from Philadelphia that the question of sending the Liberty Bell to the Rose Festival would be decided to the Rose Festival would be decided one week from today. This question is one of the first to be decided after the reorganization of the new Common and Select Councils, which are to be elected next Monday. Latest advices support the former ones received to the effect that the great relic is surely coming to Portland in June. Official sanction alone is wanting, and this is confidently looked for at the meeting next Saturday.

CHURCH MAY HAVE ANNEX First Presbyterian Is in Need of

In the report of the building committee of the First Presbyterian Church, sub-mitted at the annual meeting of that congregation Thursday night, was a recley and James Cormack.

Trustees elected for one year are W.
W. Cotton, Frank Robertson, W. R.
Mackenzie, H. C. Campbell, W. A. Mac
Rae, Jacob Kamm and Dr. R. C. Coffey.

Spring style shoes. Rosenthal's. .

NO-You do not understand -LET ME SPELL IT: CARTON BUTTER IT'S MADE BY THE T.S.TOWNSEND CREAMERY CO.

Manager of Pennoyer Estate Says

the Pennoyer estate, now on a trip around the world, swears by Portland as the place where enjoyable floral fetes may be given as against any places he has visited on his present tour.

President Ralph W. Hoyt, of the Portland Ralph W. Hoyt, of the Portland Ralph W.

show,
I shall look out for anything new that presents itself, but feel satisfied that the ideas of the people over here are not up to our standard when it comes to a flower show.

The more I see of this country and of its shows the more I think of our own. I never saw as poor a display of cuttle, livestock, etc., as I did here the other day, and one wonders in this country of the oldest civilization why there is no more progress. Sincerely,

G. F. RUSSELL.

New

to

Route

Spokane

Spokane, Portland &

Seattle Railway

"The North Bank Road"

TWO DAILY TRAINS 9:15 A. M.

5:40 P. M.

-AND-

Daylight Train to Walla

Walla 9:15 A. M.

Splendid View of the Columbia River

New Equipment and Dining-Car

Service On All Trains.

DEPOT:

Eleventh and Hoyt Sts.

TICKET OFFICES:

122 Third St., Near Washington;

255 Morrison St., Corner Third; Eleventh and Hoyt St., Passen-ger Station.

"My mother is a great sufferer from rheumatism, and Dr.

Miles' Anti-Pain Pills is the only

MRS. G. DAVENPORT,

The pains of rheumatism are almost invariably relieved with

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They, also overcome that nervous irritation which prevents sleep because they soothe the nerves. To chronic suffers they are invaluable. When taken as directed, they relieve the distress and save the weakening influence of pain, which so frequently pros-trates. Many sufferers use them whenever occasion requires with the greatest satisfaction, why, not you? They do not derange the stomach nor create a habit.

Why not try them? Get a package from your druggist. Take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return Roycefield, N. J.

remedy that relieves her."

Rheumatic

Pains

QUICKEST TIME

SHORTEST ROUTE

The Rose Festival management was ad-

More Room.

ommendation that a modern brick build-ing be erected by the church at the cor-ner of Thirteenth and Alder streets. The plan provides for a two-story building with large basement to be joined to the church building. In case this is under-taken it would be necessary to rent or purchase a new manse to take the place of the one occupying the site of the pro-posed annex.

By motion of the committee itself, the

By motion of the committee itself, the report was laid on the table for a week, when an adjourned meeting will be held to discuss the proposed building at length. Reports from the various societies of the church show a prosperous year. The records show 103 new members for that period, making the present enrollment 1334.

Elders elected to succeed themselves are Robert Livingstone, W. M. Ladd, E. Quackenbush, C. R. Templeton, R. K. Warren; to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Johnson, J. S. Bradley. The other members of the session are A. S. Patullo, G. M. Wells, J. J. Ross, F. E. Cooper, J. F. Ewing, B. A. Thaxter, Miller Murdock, J. S. Meek and Fletcher Linn. Deacons elected to serve one year are G. B. Cellars and J. H. Sidey; the remaining deacons: President, A. S. Nichols; treasurer, J. E. Davis; W. D. Fraley and James Cormack.

SHREDDED WHEAT

bakery. Crisp, delicious, nutritious. Try it for breakfast with milk or cream.

your money. THLETES use Sloan's Liniment A to prevent lameness after any violent exercise. It penetrates and acts like massage, relieves soreness, stiffness and contraction of the Sloans Liniment stops any kind of pain and doesn' need any rubbing, Mr. H. K. GILMAN, instructor of ath-letes, 417 Warren St., Roxbury, Mass., says: "I have used Stoan's Limiment with great success in cases of extreme fatigue after physical exertion where an ordinary rub down would not make any impression."

All druggists carry Sloan's Liniment. Price, 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Fresh from our two million dollar sunlit