Wilbur Wright Visits King.

ROME, April 2.-King Victor Emmanuel ROME, April 2.—King Victor Emmanuel received Wilbur Wright, the American aeroplanist, in private audience today. His Majesty showed his intense interest in the subject of aerial navigation and said he was glad Italy was among the first countries to greet the American inventor. Mr. Wright expressed a desire to charge a fee to witness the flights he is to make near Rome, the proceeds to go to the benefit of the earthquake sufferers.

It was also condistricts, the Cascade Mountains to be the dividing line. It was also contemplated that an Eastern Oregon man, presumably John L. Rand, of Baker City, should be the new Judge. Mr. Rand was a member of the State Senate in 1803 and supported Mr. Fulton for United States Senator, for which, it was generally reported, Mr. Fulton promised to make him Federal Judge. Later it was decided not to divide the state into two districts, but to provide merely for the districts, but to provide merely for the appointment of an additional Judge. It was in that form that the office was created by means of an amendment that was included in the Washington juditates with the control of the control of

"It is of the utmost importance to the state of Oregon that there should be harmony and co-operation among the members of its delegation. It is my purpose not to let politicians interfere with the promotion of those interests which have no relation to party or faction. I believe such matters as the location of headquarters for the new railway mail divisions, the threatened removal of the departmental headquarters from Vancouver and appropriations for rivers and harbors require united effort, and I believe this cannot be attained without frequent cannot be attained without frequent meetings of the delegation. I there-fore heartily indorse your plan and suggest further that the members of the delegation meet at luncheon at least once a week."

DEBATE IS OREGON'S

Unanimous Decision Won Over Washington Law School.

DES MOINES PLAN LOSES

Portland Students Are Successful In pal Government by Commission in Portland.

Students of the Oregon Law School won a unanimous decision over the representatives of the Washington Law School last night at the Masonic Temple.

The question was, "Resolved, That the Des Moines Plan of Municipal Government Should Be Adopted in the City of Portland," the affirmative being argued by the Washington delegation. The question was debated without regard to local conditions, this qualification being made beforehand. Consequently the debate was entered on the general systems. debate was entered on the general sys-

Political gossip also has it that even should Wetherbee be indorsed by the as-sembly, friends of Ben Selling will urge him to become a candidate. Selling's him to become a candidate. Selling's friends, however, are awaiting the result of the assembly, in which neither he nor they will participate, although several of them were included among the 500 delegates selected at the meeting of the City Central Committee Wednesday night. They are said to figure that the time will then be ripe to spring Selling for the primary nomination. They argue further that should Wetherbee receive the indersement of the assembly, his strength as a candidate would be dissipated, regardless of the backing he may be promised from the business firms of the city. One of the as candidates for the council. One of the conditions under which Dr. Wetherbee agreed to become a candidate, if he should be indorsed by the business men, was that in seeking to give the city a business administration, his supporters should see to it that only business men should be selected as candidates for the Council. S. C. Pier last night said that this was one of the details that would receive attention at the proper time. The first thing to be done, he explained, was to secure the desired indorsement of Dr. Wetherbee's candidacy for Mayor.
