First Meeting of General Staff.

It was the first meeting of the general It was the first meeting of the general staff, the new organization which, in accordance with the amended military code of the state as passed by the last Legislature, fixes the military policy of the state. The session opened at 10:30 A. M. sind continued all day. General Finzer, as the senior officer of the state service, presided. Captain Loren A. Bowen, Third Infantry, was designated as permanent secretary. The other members of the staff present were Colonel Charles E. McDenell, of Portland; Colonel George O. Yoran, of Engene; Captain Samuel White. Yoran of Eugene; Captain Samuel White, of Baker City, and Captain Hiram U. Welch, of Portland.

The most important matter passed upon was that of the annual camp of instruction. Field maneuvers at American Lake are held every other very services.

Model Camps to Be Established.

The principal features of the instruc-tion camps will be guard duty and in-struction practice on the rifle range. Model camps will be constructed at the ind-acre range lately purchased by the United States Government for use by the Guard. Companies will alternate on the rifle range and will be relieved from other military work during the period assigned for range practice. An order was authorized for revision of

An order was authorized for revision of the state military regulations to conform to the latest military laws. A resolution was likewise adopted regulating the use of state armorles for other than military purposes. Discretion of captains in rent-ing armorles was removed and hereafter permits will have to be secured from

In adjourning it was decided to hold another meeting in about three weeks.

JUVENILE COURT REPORT

Judge Gantenbein Tells of Work Among Youthful Delinquents.

The report of the Multnomah County Juvenile Court for March shows that 64 bers and 18 girls were brought into court, 13 for second and subsequent offenses. There was one case of burglary, eight cases of larceny and one case of forgery. Twenty-eight children were placed on probation and three were sent to the Reform School. The sentences were suspended in two instances. The complete report, as given out by Judge Gantenbein, is as follows:

New Pastor of Evangelical Church Has Record for Efficient Work.

Rev. H. A. Deck, who has been assigned to the First United Evangelical Church, East Portland, is a well-known and popular minister in the Oregon Conference. For the past four years he has been in charge of the First Church of Salem. Rev. C. C. Poling, the new Presiding Elder, said of him yesterday:

"I regard Mr. Deck as one of the ablest, if not the ablest man we have in the Oregon Conference. He has just finished four successful years at Salem. Rev. A. Winter, retiring pastor, elected acting

Dr. Poling, who was made Presiding Elder for the entire Oregon Conference, taking the work of two former Presiding Elders on his shoulders, said yesterday that he had not yet decided where he would locate his family, but that it would be either in Portland or Dallas, with a preference for the latter, as it will afford opportunity for his children to attend Dallas College, although there is a strong pressure being brought to retain him in Portland.

M. Spot, Hollander, Will Go With Frenchman on Long Canoe Voyage Across Continent.

Albert Challyst, adventurer, is not destined to make his proposed trip across the Canadian continent by caroe alone. Although Chalivat may be perfectly willng to encounter the dangers alor his light Gaille temperament, M. Spot, a Hollander resident in Portland, is in com-munication with Chalivat in an attempt to become the "pardner" Chalivat asks

Spot is a sturdy Flemish settler who has worked as railroad man or in similar employment. As a hunter and trapper he has spent considerable time in British Columbia among the Indian tribes, one time illying for months among the Russ Indians. Spot would well form the other haif of the partnership. He will supply the wisdom and sagacity which Chalivat himself admits is missing from his own disposition. Chalivat believes in push and go, Spot in slowness and surety; be-tween them they would strike a happy medium that will result in a successful

DR. C. E. CLINE SAYS MORE MEN ARE NEEDED.

Talks on "Elements of Strong Church" at Meeting of Portland Ministerial Association.

Following the address of Dr. William Hiram Foulkes on "Some Elements of a Strong Church," before the Portland Min-Strong Church, before the Fortiand Min-isterial Association yesterday morning, Dr. C. E. Cline commended the speaker and added some views of his own regard-and added some views of his own regard-ing certain needs of the church. He expressed the opinion that no church can be deemed a strong one that is con-trolled by women. He believed it should have the support of the business men of the community and deplored the lack of interest in church matters manifested by men generally.

interest in church matters manifested by men generally.

Referring to certain features of the service, Dr. Cline said he believed the musical end should be revised to permit more congregational singing and do away with what he termed "the singing of operatic airs by three or four persons perched in front of the congregation." In concluding his remarks, he thought ministers should exiced an invitation to strangers at each service to join their congregations.

A SUPERB CORPORATION.

A SUPERB CORPORATION.

Undoubtedly the richest transportation corporation in the United States, if not the world, is the Pennsylvánia Railroad Company. It has, for many years, been blessed with able and honest management, both conservative and enterprising. The annual report to the stockholders, made by the directors March 2, shows its assets to be over $706,000,000, of which half is in road and equipments, one-third in securities, and the remainder in cash and miscellaneous property.

Its liabilities are a funded debt of about $300,000,000, the balance being in capital

Its Habilities are a funded debt of about $300,000,000, the balance being in capital stock, and a profit and loss credit of $25,000,000. Its gross income for the year was $136,000,000, its total expenses $108,000,000; leaving $28,000,000 as net profits, out of which a dividend of 6 per cent was paid; nearly $9,000,000 was expended in improvements, and almost a million added to the profit and loss account. These figures are hard to appreciate.

These figures are hard to appreciate, and the executive ability required to handle such a business must be of the highest order. The vastness of this business can perhaps be better comprehended by a perhaps be better comprehended by a consideration of the fact that its gross receipts for the year exceed both the receipts and expenditures of the National Government in 1860. In that year the Government received and paid out only $120,000,000. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company last year received and accounted for $136,000,000.—South Bend (Ind.) Times.

The Scientific Treatment of Weakness

Dosing the system with powerful stimulants and tonics in an effort to restore functional vigor can have but one final result: The condition is rendered worse than before. "Weakness" is merely an indication of a low form of inflammation in the prestate giand, and this inflammation is low form of intrammation in the prostate gialo, and this intrammation is but aggravated by stimulating remedies that excite temporary activity. I employ the only scientific and fully effective treatment for "weakness," which effects a permanent cure by restoring the prostate gland to a sound and healthy state. I obtain complete results in every case I treat. Interesting literature and a beautifully engraved chart free if
