WHEAT HOVERING NEAR HIGH MARK

May Shows Slight Advance, Though Longs Begin to Unload Slyly.

CLOSE IS 1-4 CENT HIGHER

Little Life in Market Awaiting Government Crop Report—Large Decrease in Supplies on Passage to Europe.

CHICAGO, April 5.—(Special.)—Wheat made little headway today in either direction, although Ma yand July touched former high points, the latter, in fact, a trifle above the previous high point. There was comparatively little life or action in the market. The tendency was to curtail operations because of the holiday tomorrow and the Government report early Wednesday. Closing prices showed an advance for the day of 1/4 cent for May, July closed practically unchanged, September 1/4 lower and December 1/4 lower than Saturday's close. Non-professional interest in the market was at a very low ebb, in marked contrast to the activity prevailing a good part of last week.

Longs Begin Unloading. Another prominent feature was the sly unloading of May wheat by Bartlett-Patten, who supplied all bidders. It was the popular impression that nearly, if not quite, 1,000,000 bushels of May had been sold by the leading longs. There was considerable commission-house selling of early July wheat, principally on local account. Logan-Bryan & Finley barrel were prominent. One of the sharp advances late in the session brought heavy selling by King-Coleman, which was followed by more or less pit selling.

European Markets Higher. There was a range of just 1c between extremes in May wheat, practically 1c in July and December and 1/2c in September. Continental European markets were generally higher. An exception was a decline of 1/2c at Buda Pest. Liverpool closed unchanged to 1/4 higher, which was counted a poor response to Saturday's showing here of unchanged for December to 1/4c advance for May. Anyway advanced 1/4c, Paris 1/4c for wheat and 1/4c to 1/2c for flour, and Berlin advanced 2 1/2c.

One of the early features of strength was the large decrease of 3,372,000 bushels in supplies on ocean passage. The world's shipments were a little larger than expected at 8,464,000 bushels, which compared with a total a year ago of 10,150,000 bushels. Primary receipts were larger than last years at 591,000 bushels, as against 576,000 bushels.

RECEIVER FOR DICKINSON CO. Head of Firm Said to Be Planning Trip Out of Country.

CHICAGO, April 5.—The American Trust & Savings Bank was today appointed receiver for the John Dickinson Company, the board of trade house, which suspended business last Saturday here and in New York. It was a Federal court proceeding. It was stated in court that Mr. Dickinson was in New York, but that an effort would be made to bring him back to Chicago to testify before a referee in bankruptcy. The assets of the company were said to be about $20,000, but no statement of the liabilities was made. The Journal states that a Chicago friend of Mr. Dickinson received the following telegram from the broker: "When you receive this, we will be on the brink deep." The "we" is supposed to include Mrs. Dickinson.

Dickinson Offices Closed. NEW YORK, April 5.—The offices of John Dickinson and Company here were closed today and a notice of the firm's suspension was posted upon the door.

TRAPPER DIES IN WOODS

Bert Simpson Found With Face Buried in Mudhole.

CASTLE ROCK, Wash., April 5.—(Special.)—Bert Simpson, a trapper, met death in the woods last Saturday afternoon under peculiar circumstances. He ate dinner at the home of Jack Frost, on Green River, in the northeastern part of Cowlitz County, and started out to look after his traps on Devil Creek. That was the last seen of him alive. Toward evening Mr. Frost started out to look for his cows, and about a mile from home found the body of Simpson, with his head and face almost buried in a mudhole. From all appearances he had fallen in an epileptic fit, to which he was subject. After an investigation by the Coroner, Simpson was buried where he fell. He was 28 years old.

She is 88 feet long, 11 feet beam and equipped with 200 horsepower engines, capable of making 15 miles an hour against the current of the river. The Requa is the first passenger vessel on the river from this city to be equipped with a propeller. All the other vessels are stern-wheelers.

MUST FIND GIRL IN WEEK

NEW YORK, April 5.—A week's time in which to get the deposition of a witness was allowed the plaintiff in the suit of Mrs. Fannie Work Burke-Roche Batony for divorce from her husband, Aurel Batony, when the case was called for trial in the Supreme Court here today. ### NOT IN CONTEMPT

Langdon's Forces Deny Judge Murasky's Order Legal.

HANLEY ASSUMES BLAME

Says Policeman Ignored Injunction by His Advice and Police Deny Order Served on Them. May Decide Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—A full day's hearing, devoted to reading of affidavits and the hearing of testimony, did not suffice to determine today whether or not three attaches of the District Attorney's office and a detective sergeant were in contempt of court when they searched the offices of the United Railroads, and the hearing of testimony, did not suffice to determine today whether or not three attaches of the District Attorney's office and a detective sergeant were in contempt of court when they searched the offices of the United Railroads, and the hearing of testimony, did not suffice to determine today whether or not three attaches of the District Attorney's office and a detective sergeant were in contempt of court when they searched the offices of the United Railroads.

W. H. Metson, who appeared for the United Railroads, and James M. Hanley, the Assistant District Attorney who is accused of having violated the restraining order, each introduced a half dozen witnesses, but the court, in advocating progress, intimated upon several occasions that portions of the testimony were entirely irrelevant. Tomorrow's argument, according to Judge Murasky's order, will be limited to an hour.

Affirming that attorneys for the United Railroads did not comply with all legal requirements in seeking to prevent the search, the four officials presented affidavits denying that the order of Judge Murasky had been violated and asking that the proceedings be dismissed. Mr. Hanley argued that Judge Murasky had no authority to interrupt or prevent the raids.

Detective-Sergeant George F. Mulcahy, who executed the search warrant upon which the railroad officers were entered on March 28, declared that he had not been served with a copy of the complaint while engaged in the search and denied that he had heard one of the attorneys for the corporation threaten any of his party with contempt. He assumed all authority for the search and his denials were corroborated by the affidavits of Ray S. Schindler and W. H. Russell, agents of the District Attorney's office.

Mr. Hanley, in his affidavit, declared that he had not assumed or possessed any authority over the officers engaged in the search, but added that, as an attorney, he advised Mulcahy that he could not be restrained, as the corporation attorneys had declared. In addition there was filed an affidavit showing that the papers issued by Judge Murasky on March 27 had not been filed at the office of the County Clerk, but had been given to an official at his residence on the evening of the first raid and filed during the next day. Mr. Hanley argued that the restraining order was illegal because it had not been filed; because it had been issued on Sunday; because it had not been signed by a presiding Judge and because it had not been legally served. In conclusion he declared that Police Judge Deasy, who issued the search-warrant upon which the raids were based, was acting within his rights and could not be restrained in such a manner. "If any one is to be punished for contempt," said Mr. Hanley, "it should be myself and no other. I advised these officers as an attorney, believing that there was no regularity in the issue of this order."

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Representative Ellis has recommended the appointment of Anna J. Baskett, as postmaster

NEW DODGE CASE DEATH

Lawyer Is Third Man Connected With Land Suit to Be Killed.

M'RAE, Ga., April 5.—Pope S. Hill, an attorney of Macon, was found dead in a law office here today, a revolver in his hand. He came here yesterday to appear in a case, and today claimed he had received a threatening note, and induced a hardware man to open his store and sell him a revolver. He was shot through the eye, and there were evidences of a struggle. The Dodge land case, for the trial of which Hill was in Macon, is one of the most famous in the state, and three attorneys connected with it have met tragic and mysterious deaths. The trail of deaths and narrow escapes in the Dodge land suit began in 1891. In that year Captain John C. Forsyth, representing the Norman W. Dodge estate, was murdered, and after a six weeks' trial five men were sent to prison, charged with the crime. Shortly afterward Captain P. L. Williams, one of the claimants in the case, was killed, and for weeks afterwards four counties were in a fever heat of excitement. Besides these deaths there were several encounters in which the participants received gunshot and knife wounds.

The Dodge lands cover about 400,000 acres, and since 1882 there has been almost continuous litigation over portions of this property. The presence of many squatters on the land created an element of risk and caused widespread enmities.

DE SAGANS EXPECT STORK

Boni's Financial Hopes Sent Glimmering by Paris News.

CHICAGO, April 5.—The Record-Herald today in a special cable from Paris says: A bombshell that will shatter all the financial hopes of Count Boni de Castellane is contained in the news that the Princess de Sagan expects the arrival of a new heir to the de Sagan name and the Gould millions some time in June or July. The arrival of the de Sagan heir will give Anna Gould the whip hand over Boni.

By her father's will, the Princess is permitted to leave her fortune to any child or children she might have. The places her in the position of being able to hold Boni's children's future inheritance and welfare over his head to whip him into a less warlike frame of mind. Should Boni persist in his efforts to estrange the children from their mother and embitter them against de Sagan, it is in her power to cut off the de Castellane fortune for the benefit of the coming heir of the de Sagens.
