CALMED YOUNG AMERICA

Prevented War With Japan and Withstood Assaults of Trusts. Had Greater Power as President Than Monarch.

PARIS, April 6,-The French press is displaying great interest and curiosity in Theodore Roosevelt. "When the Caesar of modern democracy goes hunting, Europe, Asia, Africa and America to their windows and watch the caravan of publicity pass," is the way one of the papers describes Mr. Roosevelt's journey to East Africa. A majority of the cor-respondents sent to Naples to chronicle their impressions of Mr. Roosevelt say the ex-President is absorbed in himself. They describe his cabin as filled with his books and littered with photographs of ilmself and members of his family. They say the only object not relating to Mr. Roosevelt himself was a photograph of Emperor William bearing the imperial signature in green ink.

Could Not Break His Back.

Mr. Roosevelt talked freely but principally about himself and his work, the mdents say, and he manifested a isposition to "preach." In his convers tion he touched upon his Knickerbocker ancestry and his experiences as a ranchman in the Far West. Turning to politics, he said he had been elected to Presidency as a representative of honesty against the power of gold.
"I have always maintained that probity in private life is ind spensable to public "I have fought the oir kings and the stee emperors; they tried to break my back but my back is still intact.

Disappointed Daughter Is Well Consoled.

NO CHANCE FOR LAWYERS

Expected Legacy of $500,000 Had Shrunk to $50,000, but Threat of Contest Expands It-Other Daughters Still Rich.

SAN FRANCISCO, April & - (Special.) -'Lucky" Baldwin's spirit may now rest n peace, so far as the likelihood of a contest of his cherished will is con erned, for it was announced today that the claim of Mrs. Roselia Selby, wife of D. F. Seiby, of Oakland, and a daughter of the decedent, had been settled.

In accordance with the policy adopted when "Lucky's" widow, Mrs. Lillie Bennett Baldwin, was given a blg bonus to prevent her tying up the estate in the red tape of the law, the exact terms of the arrangement are kept secret. But it can be stated that the amount received it not far from $1,000,000.

Sowed Seeds of Contest.

Unless the unforeseen should occur at the 11th hour, one of "Lucky's" cherished dreams-a will which could not be -will thus escape the test of the courts. Having lived within a whirl of lawsuits, the millionaire turfman spared no ingenuity to make his will contest proof. It contained a provision that should any of its beneficiaries file a contest they should by that act be cut off without a cent. Another clause provided a bequest of $10 to any person who could prove an heir's claim to the estate, thus making success worthless in advance. But when, while acknowledging Mrs. Selby as his daughter, he yet left her only 200 acres of the Rancho el Puente.
