Barley Is Strong and Dealers Predict a $35 Quotation Before the Season Is Over-No Change in Flour Soon

Wheat prices are steadily rising in the local market. Sales are generally small, as very little grain is now available. A lot of club wheat changed hands yesterday at $1.16. Bluestern has been sold here for herthan $1.25 and it was stated yesterday was quoted at $1.15 for good quality and red Russian at $1.05@1.09.

The news of the day was decidedly builish. It was a holiday at Chicago, but wheat was up a cent at Minneapolls. Heavy Offerings of Stocks in New York Markets.

BEARS ARE AGGRESSIVE

Selling Is Largely Speculative Profit Taking - Government Crop Report Awaited With Interest. Steel Is Heavy.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The demand for stocks today encountered an amount of offerings that overbore the balance and carried the price movement backward. The extent of the recent advance evidently was, in itself, a main incentive to much of the sell-int, which was epeculative profit-taking in large part. The professional bears were alert to take advantage of the wavering appearance of the market and to help on the decline with short selling and with offering down prices. The addition from day to day of new stocks to the list which have risen above the prices touched in the advance in the latter part of last year brings the market to a stage which is recognized as the critical point between the alternatives of reaction or further advance.

point between the alterinatives of reaction or further advance.

All previous purchases thus come in for a profit on any further advance, with an incentive in consequence to sell. New forces of improvement must be relied upon to carry the advance through such a stage. The average price of the most active stocks on Monday teached about the level touched on the sustained advance which set in last year after the Presidential election. Some of the most conspicuous stocks have risen well above that and some are far short of it, but the averages, as usually computed, are nearly the same.

New impelling factors were not many or important today, but the growing hesitation about carrying the speculation forward left the market without sufficient sustaining power to hold prices. The fact that the present week in the stock market will end on Thursday added to the disinclination to extend speculative commitments.

Tomorrow's Government crop report is awaited with keen interest and is expected to have an influence on the speculation if any declaive information is given of the Spring condition of the Winter wheat crop. With wheat and cotton both at top prices for the season and with rumors not lacking of crop damage to account for this, the stock market is compelled to take some notice of the subject.

Beyond the coming three days' heliday looms up a possible Supreme Court decision

Beyond the coming three days' holiday looms up a possible Supreme Court decision on Monday in the commodities clause test case. The opening arguments in the Government's suit against the Standard Oil Company at St. Louis contained no matter sufficient for appraising any change in Governmental policy in the prosecution of corporamental policy in the prosecution of corporamental policy in the prosecution of corporamental policy in incient for appraising any change in Governmental policy in the prosecution of corporations which might have resulted from the change in executives. Nothing was offered, however, to foreshadow any great leniency, such as has been assumed in the discussion of prospects from the financial standpoint. The financiar was commented upon in connection with the day's stock market.

Some very unfavorable views of the steel trade position was heard and the heavy tone of United States Steel was of sympathetic effect on the whole market.

FESTIVAL ASSOCIATION FINDS TOO MANY OBSTACLES.

Span Near Union Depot Which Was Never Completed Will Probably Now Be Torn Down.

Final doom bovers over the "Arch of Welcome." Threatened in one quarter by an injunction suit and in another by a suit for damages to recover for material and labor supplied, the Rose Festival Association now refuses to go ahead with the proposed improvements which were planned to put the structure into presentable shape for the Festival and for the numerous National gatherings that are slated for Portland the coming Summer.

The arch is in such a legal tangle raze the arch as proposed.

"We regret very much that matters have come to the pass they have," said Mr. Hoyt yesterday, "There is no reason why, with a little expense, which the Festival is perfectly willing to assume, this archi could not be made a most attractive greeting to the thousands and thousands of strangers who will pour into Portland the coming Summer. When it was first considered that we might do something with the arch to make it extends hearthest. the arch to make it extend a hospitable welcome and also advertise the 500,000 the arch to make it extend a hospitable welcome and also advertise the 500,000 in 1912' idea, we found a strange bundle of complications facing us. In the first place it must be remembered that the arch is not a Festival project. The city decided to built it, let the contract and, the contractor being unable to make good, the controversy lay between him, the city and the bondsmen.
